

White Sox, Giants Lose...

Yanks Dump Tribe, Bums Drop Two

By JOHN CHANDLER
The Associated Press

Ol' Casey Stengel and rookie Rip Coleman were taking the bows for the New York Yankees today, and whether you love 'em or hate 'em, you've got to admit that when the chips are down the Bronx Bombers usually come through.

Manager Stengel calmly selected Coleman, an almost unknown 24-year-old lefty just up from Denver, to oppose the Indians in the first game of their crucial three-game series at Cleveland last night. The result was a 5-2 Yankee victory. New York now rides in first place by 1 1/2 games over the Chicago White Sox, who dropped a 6-1 decision to the Washington Senators.

The loss dropped Cleveland two full games behind New York. Early Wynn, the Cleveland starter, was hustled to the showers in the second inning after allowing four runs.

More heat was taken off the Yankees when the best fourth-place split in a double-header with the Detroit Tigers. Detroit won the opener 6-1, and Boston grabbed the nightcap 6-4, falling five games behind New York.

In the other American League contest, the Kansas City Athletics doubled the Baltimore Orioles 9-2.

DOUBLE BILL

In the National League, the Brooklyn Dodgers were slapped down by the Cincinnati Redlegs 6-3 and 6-5. It was the first time the Bums had lost a double bill this year, and coupled with Milwaukee's 3-2 victory over the New York Giants it left the Braves 11 games behind Brooklyn in second place.

Philadelphia nabbed a pair from the St. Louis Cardinals 11-9 and 8-3. The Pittsburgh Pirates edged the Chicago Cubs 2-1.

The Yankees called Coleman up from their American Assn. farm, and he made his first start Aug. 15, going 5-13 in three starts against the Cardinals. Grim came in and applied the stopper the rest of the way. Joe Collins' two-run homer was the big blow of the Yankee second inning and Andy Carey contributed one in the sixth. Al Rosen homered for Cleveland in the sixth.

Bob Porterfield of Washington won his third game from the White Sox. The Senators knocked out Connie Johnson with a four-run fourth inning, and collected 13 hits in all. Minnie Minoso drove in the only Sox run.

ACCOUNTED

Ned Garver won the Detroit opener Ray Boone and Charley Maxwell backed him up with a double and homer apiece, each batting in two runs. The second game was Jackie Jensen's show as he became the first American League to drive in 100 runs this year. The Boston outfielder accounted for four runs with a homer and bases-loaded single.

Kansas City collected 13 hits, while Art Ceccarelli limited the Orioles to four, including a two-run homer by Hal Smith.

Johnny Klippstein gained his third victory over Brooklyn, but had to be relieved with two out in the ninth inning of the opener by Hershell Freeman. Wally Post slugged his 32nd homer in the second inning to get the Reds off in front. In the nightcap Freeman relieved Joe Black in the seventh and got credit for his fifth victory although he left for a pinchhitter when the Reds scored two runs to break a 4-4 tie in the ninth.

Philadelphia won its sixth straight, overcoming a six-run deficit in the opener. Robin Roberts registered his 21st victory in the opener, surviving a four-run Card outburst in the first inning and a five-run splurge in the fourth when Wally Moon hoisted a grand-slam homer. Saul Rogovin won the night cap as the Phils came from behind again. It was Del Ennis night, and he celebrated by getting three hits in the opener and a double in the second game.

It appeared as if Jim Hearn would seat the Braves, but Milwaukee routed him in the seventh inning with all their runs on three walks and two singles. Warren Spahn tossed a six-hitter at the Giants.

Hannon Meijas doubled in the eighth at Pittsburgh and Johnny O'Brien singled to break up a 1-1 pitching duel between the Bucs' Roy Face and Paul Minner.

Little League Series Moves Into Final Day

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa. (UP) —

Morrisville, Pa., and Delaware Township, N.J., practically neighbors, met for the Little League World Series title today after blasting their way into the finals with home runs.

The 1955 Little League competition began with 1,800 leagues throughout the nation. But as it neared a climax, the lone survivors were two Delaware River communities located only 20 miles from each other.

Delaware Township was trailing 4-3 when it came to bat in the top of the sixth and final inning against Auburn, Ala., Thursday.

However, with two out and Tom Trotman on base with a walk, Harry Foukis homered for two runs. Wilber Robinson then followed with another circuit clutch.

The thrilling finish was almost a letdown from the sudden 3-0, end which Morrisville put to its extra-inning game with Winchester, Mass.

The contest went into overtime when the teams completed the regulation six innings in a scoreless tie. Two innings later, Vince Sawyer homered with two mates on and two out to give Morrisville its triumph. Tony Charron, who had walked, and Jim Weidenfaher, who had singled, scored ahead of Sawyer.

Delany Poland pitched a five-hitter in blanking Winchester over the eight-inning span.

Homers accounted for all of Auburn's runs. Arnold Umbeach hit a three-run blast in the first and Ted Wilson slugged for the circuit with the bases empty in the fourth.

Trotman hit a four-ply blast in the third with none aboard in the third and Delaware Township got its other two runs in the fifth on three hits and an error.

Fairway Youths Stopped

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP)—The up-rising of the teen-agers had been put down and golf's "middle seniors," as Jane Nelson refers to the group in their '30s, had taken complete charge of the Women's National Amateur Golf Tournament heading into this afternoon's semifinals.

The first 18-hole match paired Miss Nelson, a relaxed, wise-cracking 27-year-old history teacher from Indianapolis, against Mrs. Scott Probasco Jr., Chattanooga, Tenn., 25-year-old mother.

The other match paired Polly Riley, advertising specialist from Fort Worth, Tex., who'll be 29 tomorrow, against Pat Lesser, 22, a Seattle University senior.

Misses Nelson and Lesser scorched the 6,413-yard Myers Park Country Club course with the best performances of the week in yesterday's quarter-finals. Each was 3 under par in an impressive victory. Jane trimmed 20-year-old Barbara McIntire, Toledo, Ohio, 5 and 3, and Pat smothered Mrs. H. S. Covington, Orangeburg, S.C., 7 and 6.

Mrs. Probasco and Miss Riley had to travel all the way, each gaining a hard-earned 1-up victory. Mrs. Probasco, who as Betty Rowland of Lexington, Ky., and Rollins College, was national intercollegiate champion a few years ago, was 2 down with four holes to play but rallied to edge 17-year-old Anne Quast, Marysville, Wash.

Miss Riley ousted 18-year-old Margaret (Wilfr) Smith, St. Clair, Mich., in a grim struggle that saw Polly unable to win a hole after the 18th as they halved the last six in an unyielding struggle.
