Soil Specialist Given New Post

CHILOQUIN — William Rogers, soils and moisture specialist in the farm planning section of the Klamath Agency, has been transferred to the Wind River Indian Agency in Wyoming.

In his new post, he will organize an enlarged program of work similar to that carried on at the Klamath Agency.

Mrs. Rogers and their three children are accompanying him.

KF School Rules Told By Gralapp

Regulations for children who will start in the first grade of city schools this week have been announced by Arnold Gralapp, city school superintendent.

Children must be 6 years old, on or before November 15. A birth certificate is required for first graders only. A medical examination for all first graders is recommended. Medical examination forms may be obtained through the Klamath County Health Office.

Eighth graders who did not attend Klamath Falls schools last year are to report to Fremont Junior High School with their report cards for the previous year at 1:30 p.m., Friday, September 2. All freshmen are to report to Klamath Union High School at 1:30 p.m. on the same day.

Buses will make the regular run, beginning at 12:45 p.m. for the first pickup. They will return about 2:30 p.m.

School opens for all pupils on Tuesday, September 6. Beginning time is as follows: high school, 8:30 a.m.; junior high school, 8:40 a.m.; 9 a.m. all elementary schools. Schools which have a different starting time will announce this schedule to pupils on Tuesday.

KUHS will operate the regular schedule of classes all day Tuesday, September 6. Therefore, students are urged to purchase school books and supplies before hand. Lists specifying high school books needed are available at the Shaw Stationery Store and the Pioneer Office Supply.

The KUHS cafeteria service will begin the first day of school.

On Tuesday, September 6, junior high school will operate on the regular schedule followed at the close of school last year. Cafeteria service at the junior high school and the elementary schools will begin Wednesday, September 7.

GRANGE NEWS

MIDLAND GRANGE

Plans were made for the annual grange Booster Night to be held in September when the Midland Grange met at the Henley Grange Hall on August 17.

The meeting was turned over to the men by Mayme Cammock, lecturer for the program. Floyd Hoover acted as master of ceremonies. Taking part were Raymond Andrieu, Pat Milani, Alex Cammock, Kathryn Smith, Verland Huff, James and Francis Flowers and Leon Andrieu. Amy Crapo won the special prize.

Men members served the potluck luncheon.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. George Robison, Burns, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Novotny, Langell Valley, and Mr. and Mrs. Hap Caldwell and daughters, Rosalie and Mary Lou, Klamath Falls.

The next meeting will be held Tuesday, September 6 at 8 p.m. at the Henley Grange Hall when there will be a school of instruction on grange proceedure and ritualism. All members, especially new members are urged to be present.

Former Edgewood Resident Dies

YREKA—Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at Upton's Mortuary in Weed for Grover C. Jacobs, about 65, an uncle of County Supervisor Clint Jackson of Edgewood.

Jacobs died Sunday at the veterans' hospital in Oakland.

A World War I veteran, he married in 1917. His wife died while he was serving in France, and a son died by drowning in 1925.

In 1928, while he was living at Edgewood, he left for a fishing trip on the Klamath River and dropped out of sight for about 25 years. When he returned home, he said he had traveled throughout the West and had worked as a truck driver, miner and other occupations.

He had been an intermittent patient at the veterans' hospital for the past year.

Survivors include a brother, Lora T. Jacobs of Oakland; three sisters, Mrs. Velma Shaffer of Edgewood, Mrs. Ora Heintz of Long Beach and Mrs. Pearl Lee Jackson of Oakland. Mrs. Jackson is the mother of Supervisor Jackson.

Funeral services were held under the auspices of the American Legion and the Veterans of Foreign Wars. Interment was in the Edgewood Cemetery.

Newell School Classes Slated

NEWELL — The Newell Union Elementary School will start classes at 9 a.m. Wednesday, September 7. The cafeteria will start serving meals on the opening day.

All buses, except the one making the Tionesta run, will operate on reversed routes this year. This means that pupils who were picked up on the first part of the run last year will in most cases be picked up last this year.

The school employes 10 teachers and has an anticipated first day enrollment of 290 students.

Members of the faculty are Crait Lester, principal, Mrs. Zola Slaughter, kindergarten; Mrs. Rachel Lester, first grade; Mrs Ethel Nelson, combined first and second grades; Martha June Reeves, second grade; Mrs. Virginia Moore, third grade; John Nelson, fourth grade; Clinton D. Smith, fifth grade; Stephen F. Sabo, sixth grade; Luther Morris, seventh and eighth grades.

District BPW Meet Planned

WEED — Final plans for the Northern California District conference for BPW clubs, a two-day affair to be held in Weed, September 27-28, were discussed by the members of the local BPW at a meeting Wednesday night at Dom's Drive-In.

Mrs. Helena Schleuter, Yreka, president of the BPW Northern California district, and Mrs. Grace Picthorne, Dunsmuir, district music chairman were guests at the dinner meeting and other local guests were Mrs. Ruth Ward and Helen Melrose.

A "hat parade" presented by chairmen of the local organization, each wearing a hat depicting the office each holds for the present term, was presented as program with the arrangements made by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, membership chairman.

Sixteen members attended the meeting and Mrs. H. C. Strothers, president, presided. Mrs. E. Holley, was chairman for the dinner.

TWIN ENGINE

HONOLULU (AP)—Four swift B57 jet bombers capable of carrying the atom bomb leave today or tomorrow for Japan to replace slower, propeller-driven B26 light bombers. The twin-engine jets arrived yesterday from Hamilton Air Force Base near San Francisco. More will follow.
