

LEWIS - VAN DOREN "I DO'S"
MERGE TEACHING AND MARRIED CAREERS

LOVELY AUGUST BRIDE was Carol Van Doren, when she became Mrs. Robert Eugene Lewis on August 14, in First Presbyterian Church. The impressive service uniting the couple was read at 2 p.m. by the Rev. Dale E. Hewitt.
The popular blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Van Doren, 1854 Melrose, and her husband, the son of Mrs. Leona Lewis, Long Beach, are both teachers in the Gervais Union High School. (See story on inside page.)
—Photo by Guderian

SUKIYAKI DINNER IN HONOLULU

IT'S NOT ALL FISH AND POI in the Hawaiian Islands — the Polynesian dish shares honors with Japanese sukiyaki in that Pacific Paradise. Applying themselves with varying degrees of adeptness with chopsticks to a sukiyaki dinner in Isshi Gardens are, from the left, Marg Banks (next to the Japanese girl who in native manner, cooked the sukiyaki at the table); Mrs. Charles Moss, Mrs. Neal Stewart, Mrs. T. M. Medford and Mrs. Ray Oldenburg. Mrs. Oldenburg, Mrs. Moss and Marg Banks are sisters. They and Mrs. Medford are from the mainland. Skilled one with the chopsticks, Mrs. Stewart is a former Klamath Falls resident, now living in the islands. Occidental shoes were removed and kimonos were donned before the group was seated on cushions at the floor level table. Exquisite Japanese screens separate dinner parties in the one long room—and maintain the proper oriental atmosphere.
—Photo by Sunao Hironaka, Honolulu.

S
O
C
I
E
T
Y

by Milly
Ramsby

Resort Hosts Don't Have Time
To Join Lonely Hearts Clubs

Timmons' anniversary photos by Milly Ramsby.

The Herald and News, Goes to a Party in the Woods
To the Resort Owners 29th Wedding Anniversary Party

IT'S FUN to give a party when you can say "Things are in a mess — but we don't care!" That's what Florence and Lloyd Timmons did on their 29th wedding anniversary when they recently shared their celebration with 29 guests. They are pictured above proposing a toast to the occasion in front of the new fireplace in what will be the recreation room at Rocky Point Resort when remodeling is complete. With them is their Labrador retriever "Rocky of Klamath" who celebrated his birthday anniversary August 12. [Further details on inside page.]

EVERYBODY HELPED during the informal evening on August 15, at the resort on Upper Klamath Lake when the Lloyd Timmons celebrated the 10th of 29 wedding anniversaries during their summer operation at Rocky Point.
Pictured above, from the left, Norman Franklin, Santa Ana, where he is custodian of, and teaches shop in the high school; Mrs. Timmons, back of Johnny Licheay, Sacramento and Chicago, retired major in the USAF; Steve Wolken from Oakland, California, where he is salesman for Schifel Bakery Equipment Company. He and his wife are summer home owners near the resort.

From Klamath Falls were Stan Smith, with the state highway maintenance department; Roy Carter, Carter's Fine Foods; Laurence Brown, manager of KMSB; and Fred Hoagland, part owner and manager of Shasta View Apartments on Washburn Way.
On "the feminine side" — Mrs. Steve Wolken, left foreground; almost hidden, Mrs. Stan Smith, Mrs. Roy Carter and Mrs. Laurence Brown. Far right, Glenn Smith, his wife leaning out of sight, from Grants Pass where he's with the Southern Pacific; and Mrs. Charles Milnes, Pasadena.

