CATHOLIC RITES IN RENO CHURCH UNITE KLAMATH FALLS COUPLE

In Our Lady of the Snows Catholic Church, Reno, Darlene M. Hartung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Hartung, Arkansaw, Wisconsin; and Rupert M. (Jack) Wolff, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. Baird, Lincoln, Nebraska; exchanged nuptial vows in a double-ring ceremony at 11 a.m., the Rev. C. T. Shallow, officiant. Her three-quarter length veil was held by a Mary Stuart halo of pleated net; and she carried an orchid entwined with a white rosary. Her sister wore a light blue ballerina length dress with pink accessories and her floral arrangement was white carnations with pink rosebuds. The wedding party went to the Mapes Hotel for dinner; and the newlyweds left later for their Canadian honeymoon. Wolff is a construction foreman at Weyerhaeuser Timber Company Camp 9; and the bride is also with the same company in the bookkeeping department. A bridal shower was given after the wedding at the home of her sister, Mrs. Wendell Huettl, 1940 Lowell, with hostesses Mrs. Ben Burgess and Mrs. Frank Husleed. The couple will start housekeeping in a new home, 2434 Garden which is a duplicate of the magazine "Home of the Year." Mrs. George Marson was also a member of the wedding party.

Schoolmates Picnic Luncheon At U.E. Reeder's Spring Creek Home

Schoolmates Club members have been having fun together ever since they were "that high" — and last meeting on August 18, hosted by Judge and Mrs. U. E. Reeder at their summer home on beautiful Spring Creek, didn't spoil the record. The usual fun-session was further sparked by very special guests, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Fountain, from Merced, where he is a county supervisor. He is a native of Klamath Falls, and has known all the Schoolmates since they were little children together. He left Klamath Falls many years ago; but still refers to visits here as "going home." Mrs. Fountain took pictures of the group during the picnic luncheon on the green bank of the stream — and Glen Fountain, who is remembered for possessing considerable talent as a boyhood prankster and a robust, ready wit, entertained the other guests and members with droll references to past incidents of their childhood. Other guests were Ruth Heldrich and Marie Strom. Members included June Grimes, Neil Peterson, Sally Wood, Ida Grimes, Minnie Grizzle, Mabel Murphy, Winnie Cleghorn, Georgia Zollman, Maud Hosley and Anna Reeder. Boating was also part of the day's entertainment. The group was invited to meet with Mildred Garrett at Fort Klamath in September.

Turner Family Reunion Picnic

MALIN — Collier Park was the scene of the annual Turner family picnic recently with 50 attending. Members from Malin included two of the Turner girls, Mrs. Emma Wilson, her son Earl and family; Mrs. Lydia Turner Kirkpatrick, there with her husband C. M. Kirkpatrick Sr., daughter Beth Oberchain and two sons, Orville and family and C. M. Kirkpatrick Jr., and his family. From Portland, Mrs. Wilson's daughter, Emmaline, and her husband L. V. Shepherd and their son Darrell and their daughter, Carol, who has been spending the summer with her Grandmother Wilson. If all the clan had been able to join the group — it would have been a crowd of 105.
