

Swaps, Nashua Meet In Showdown Classic

CHICAGO (AP)—Perfect conditions are expected to prevail for the Nashua-Swaps showdown tomorrow, pitting the race between the two glamor colts, strictly in the "dream" category.

There have been many great match races, but seldom, if ever, have two such brilliant 3-year-olds come up in the same year.

Not only are sophomore racing honors at stake but also recognition as Horse of the Year.

Both colts are considered by their trainers to be in peak form for the $100,000 winner-take-all race.

The weatherman forecast fair and cooler weather.

The showdown on Washington Park's manured dirt oval is expected to draw 35,000 fans. Latest odds list Swaps at 2-5 and Nashua 9-5.

BRIDGECAST

The race will be over the Kentucky Derby distance of 1 1/4 miles and under equal weights of 126 pounds. It will be broadcast by KFLW at 3:15 p.m. (PST). The broadcast will be a "live" program.

Beaver Misses No-Hitter

By DON THACKREY
United Press Staff Writer

Even Earl Rapp must be sorry he cut so hard at a Red Adams pitch in the eighth inning of a Pacific Coast League game between Portland and San Diego last night.

Rapp, clouting at a tremendous pace as the league's leading run-driver-in, swung hard at one of the balls Adams threw. As a result he boosted his home run total, topped his RBI mark by one and rapped Adams of a no-hitter.

The only hit the ancient Adams gave up was Rapp's eighth inning homer and that amounted to nothing as Portland already had four runs in the make-up game and won it 4-1.

In another game of some importance in the league Hollywood downed Los Angeles 3-2 and moved into a virtual tie with Seattle for the loop lead. The Stars now trail the Mariners by a single percentage point.

Rapp ruined a splendid effort by Adams, who fanned six and walked only one as the Padres had only one man left on base.

Jim Robertson, Portland catcher, hit a home run in the fourth inning with none on as the Beavers clouted Bill Thomson for a dozen hits and the victory.

Hollywood scored two runs in the sixth frame to take the win from Los Angeles with Red Munger racking up his 21st win—highest in the league.

Gale Wade and Steve Bilko hit homers for the two Los Angeles runs and Munger held the team to three other hits.

Jack Lohrke doubled home the two runs for Hollywood in the sixth that made the difference.

The Linescores

San Diego 000 000 010—1 1 2
Portland 200 100 10X—4 12 0
Thomson and Bailey; Adams and Robertson.

Hollywood 000 012 000—3 6 0
Los Angeles 100 000 100—2 5 0
Munger and Bragan; Brosnan, Lown (7), Nelson (9) and Fanning, Tappe (9).

Army Makes Changes

WEST POINT, N.Y. (UP)—Three position changes of first-string players from last year marked the opening of Army's 66th football campaign Monday.

Coach Red Blaik moved All-America end Don Hollender to quarterback, to replace the ineligible Pete Vann, and shifted guards Ralph Chesnut and Play Goodwin to tackle. Blaik said the current squad is one of the youngest in Army history, averaging 19 years in age.

Seixas, Hart Given Rolls As Underdogs

FOREST HILLS, N.Y. (UP)—Defending champions Vic Seixas and Doris Hart both appeared to be underdogs today as officials prepared to make the draw for the 74th national tennis singles championship, which starts Friday.

Seixas, 32-year-old men's champion from Philadelphia, seemed to be only a long shot to retain his crown. After a poor season, Seixas took a wallop in two singles matches and one doubles during the Davis Cup series last weekend, which saw the Australians sweep the United States, 5-0.

Low Head, blond strong man of the Aussie crew, seemed to be a hot outside favorite to win the crown with cup teammates Ken Rosewall and Rex Hartwig also drawing many supporters.

Tony Trabert, 25-year-old Wimbledon champion from Cincinnati, Ohio, who won the title here in 1953, was the only American given a chance to stop the Aussies. And Trabert, beaten by Hoad in one cup match and withdrawn from another because of blisters on his racket hand, was strictly a question mark.

Seixas figured as the No. 2 U.S. hope with Ham Richardson of Baton Rouge, La., who lost a cup singles match to Rosewall, the third.

Miss Hart is not nearly the underdog that Seixas is, but still the reigning women's champion has been overshadowed in play this season by former champion Louise Brough of Beverly Hills, Calif.

Title Fight Briefs

GROSSINGER, N.Y. (UP)—Rocky Marciano look a brief rest from training for his Sept. 20 heavyweight title defense Monday for a visit from his two and one-half-year-old daughter Mary Ann. Marciano's wife and daughter will remain at the training camp through Thursday.

NORTH ADAMS, Mass. (UP)—Archie Moore, who challenges Rocky Marciano for the heavyweight crown Sept. 20, said Monday Rocky had "soft touches," his last two fights "but when he meets me, the honeymoon will be over."

Moore said there was "no reason" for the second Marciano-Ezzard Charles fight "after he had punched Ezzard lopsided in their first fight" and he called the Marciano-Don Cockell fight "a mismatch."

Don Mueller of the Giants is the son of Walter Mueller who played the outfield for the Pirates from 1922 to 1928.

Bucs Have Pitching Longevity

By RUDY CERNKOVIC
United Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (UP)—Pitching, a precious baseball commodity, will lighten the task of Pittsburgh Pirate officials when they review the club's plight at an after-season meeting.

The performance of Pirate hurlers has been one of the few "rays of sunshine" that Manager Fred Haney has seen this season.

Pirate pitchers set the major pace for longevity in the majors this season by going the distance in six consecutive games. Elroy Face, a fork ball specialist was the first and last hurler on the string.

The diminutive righthander started the cycle July 22, beating the Chicago Cubs 3-1 on seven hits. The route pattern was maintained successively by Bob Friend, Dick Hall, Vernon Law and Dick Littlefield. Face completed the string July 25.

HURLING STAFF
Law, the champ of the hurling staff with a 10-8 record, went the distance eight times in recording victories. He was lifted for a pinchhitter when he won his other two games.

The righthander who is an ordained Mormon minister, pitched the four-hit games among his victories including a 2-0 shutout over the Braves Sunday.

The whitewash Sunday provided some balm for the righthander who went 18 innings against the Braves July 19 but did not get credit for the victory. Bob Friend, who pitched the 19th and last inning, was the winner although he acknowledged "Vernon should have this one."

Friend (9-8) has won five of seven games in which he went the distance and Face (4-4) went the route each time he won.

DURABILITY PROVEN
Hall, who made his major league pitching debut with a triumph over the Cubs when he struck out 11 batters, has proved his durability.

Hall went the route in three of his four victories.

Ron Kline, whose action has been limited because of an injury, went all the way to shut out the New York Giants, 7-0, on seven hits in May and completed his mound duty in beating the Cubs 2-1 on eight hits in June.

Bob Purkey went the distance in beating St. Louis Cardinals, 4-1, on four hits and 5-1, on seven hits before he was sent to New Orleans for more work.

Sox In Crucial Series

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

The second-place Chicago White Sox, stumbling along like the rest of the American League contenders, take their first dose of a kill 'em or cure 'em remedy tonight.

All the White Sox have to do in play two games with fourth-place Boston and four with third-place Cleveland in the next six days.

Manager Marty Marion's guys aren't exactly sickly, not when they're just a half game behind first-place New York. But they aren't really robust, either, after losing five of their last eight—and with four of the defeats at the hands of seventh-place Washington. The Sox were held to a straight defeat 6-3, and Cincinnati homered past Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 4-3. Milwaukee and Pittsburgh were idle.

Erv Fallica set down the Tigers in the first game with a five-hitter. Baltimore had 10 hits while battering loser Steve Gromek, including a two-run homer by Gus Triandos.

In the nightcap, it was a bases-loaded single by Freddie Marsh that won for the Orioles, overcoming a 2-2 Detroit lead in the seventh inning.

BEANBALL

A beanball battle flared early at Ebbets Field, but Plate Umpire Jocko Conlan put his foot down in the fourth inning, warning both managers after Stan Musial was hit on the right hand by a Johnny Podres pitch and Cardinal righthander Tom Poholsky had hummed one behind Jackie Robinson.

Ken Boyer homered to bring the Cards within 5-4 of the Brooks in the seventh, but Duke Snider and Carl Furillo homered for the Dodgers in their half of the frame.

The Phillies, who had won 9 of 10, couldn't hold a 3-0 lead as the instant and last-place Baltimore.

If the Sox turn hot, they could be sitting pretty as they make their final swing through the East next week. If they drop the two series, it might be all over.

SWEPPING

Baltimore slapped fifth - place Detroit 13-5 games back yesterday by sweeping a double-header 6-0 and 4-3. That was the only action in the league.

In the National, Brooklyn made it three straight by whipping St. Louis 10-4 to go 12 games out front again; Chicago's Cubs spilled the New York Giants to a fifth straight defeat 6-3, and Cincinnati homered past Philadelphia and Robin Roberts 4-3. Milwaukee and Pittsburgh were idle.
