

Pelicans Travel To Meet Axemen Friday

The Klamath Union High School Pelicans move into the second chapter of their 1955 football season this Friday evening at Eugene as they meet the Axemen of Eugene High in a non-conference prep battle at Civic Stadium.

Coach John McGinnis' Pelicans opened their season on a surprising and victorious note last Saturday by dumping the Grant Generals of Portland by a 27-6 margin and in doing so displayed some of the sharpest tackling and blocking seen here in a good number of years.

Although the Whitebirds had a comparatively easy job of knocking off the "not ready Generals," this Friday's fracas with the Axemen should be a better test as to the caliber of the 1955 KUHS eleven.

Eugene lost their season opener to Corvallis last Friday night by a 14-9 margin, but the Spartans are reportedly seeking district honors and said to be a tough foe. Eugene has always produced a grid power each year and since their high school system joined forces into one central school, they have been fielding top athletic squads.

Over the period of time that the Pelicans and the Axemen of Eugene have been tugging on the football field, the purple and white from the shadow of the University of Oregon's Hayward Field, has been seen and then some.

The Klamath-Eugene series (according to H-N records) started in 1934 and since that time 13 games have been played making the series one of the longest in Klamath football history. Eugene won the opener from the Pelicans in 1934 and in the last meeting, Klamath Union came out with a 26-19 triumph in 1954. The record of the two schools up to this year's game finds the Pelicans with a 5-7-1 record giving Eugene a two game edge in the win column.

Results of the Klamath contests against Eugene since 1934 are as follows:

UP Picks New Men For Board

NEW YORK (UP) — Six new coaches — John Michelosen of Pittsburgh, Bobby Dobbs of Tulsa, Len Casanova of Oregon, John Roning of Denver, Bill Meek of Houston and Jack Mitchell of Arkansas — will serve on the 1955 United Press Football Coaches Rating Board.

As in previous years, five outstanding coaches from each of the seven sections of the country will make up the board and rate the collegiate teams weekly.

They will begin ranking the teams this year after the games of Saturday, Sept. 24. Their ratings have become recognized generally as the official standings of the teams.

Michelosen, Roning, Meek and Mitchell replaced on the board the coaches they succeeded at their respective schools. Michelosen took over for Lowell Dawson; Roning for Bob Klamath; Meek for Clyde Lee, and Mitchell for Bowden Wyatt.

Dobbs replaces Jennings Whitworth, who left Oklahoma A & M, as one of the old's five midland coaches. Casanova takes the board post held previously by Laverne Taylor of Oregon State.

Wyatt, who went from Arkansas to Tennessee, will serve as one of the board's five coaches in the South. He replaces the man he succeeded, Harvey Robinson.

The first 1955 rating will be released to afternoon newspapers of Tuesday, Sept. 27. As in past seasons, the ratings will be released first alternately for Tuesday morning and afternoon papers.

Each of the board's 35 coaches will rate the top 19 teams weekly. Their selections are used only to reach a consensus and never on an individual basis. Points are awarded on the basis of 10 for a first place vote, nine for a second and so on down to one for a 10th place vote.

The coaches who will comprise the 1955 United Press Football Coaches Rating Board:

East
Charles Caldwell, Princeton; Edward Erdelatz, Navy; George James, Cornell; Lou Little, Columbia; John Michelosen, Pittsburgh.

Midlands
Bobby Dobbs, Tulsa; Don Fautol, Missouri; William Glasford, Nebraska; Charles Mather, Kansas; Charles Wilkinson, Oklahoma.

Midwest
Terry Brennan, Notre Dame; Hugh Daugherty, Michigan State; Ray Elton, Illinois; Forest Evanskevski, Iowa; Stu Holcomb, Purdue.

Pacific Coast
Len Casanova, Oregon; Jess Hill, Southern California; Alton Kitcher, Washington State; Jack Myers, College of the Pacific; Charles Taylor, Stanford.

Rockies
Charles Atkinson, Brigham Young; Jack Curtice, Utah; Phil Dickens, Wyoming; John Roning, Denver; Bob Titchener, New Mexico.

South
Bobby Dobbs, Georgia Tech; Andy Gustafson, Miami; Frank Howard, Clemson; Bill Murray, Duke; Bowden Wyatt, Tennessee.

Southwest
Paul Bryant, Texas A&M; Bill Meek, Houston; Jack Mitchell, Arkansas; Edwin Price, Texas; George Sauer, Baylor.

Shaw Looks Like Colts Top Choice

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Colts announced Monday night that quarterback Jack Scarbath was being returned to the Washington Redskins.

George Shaw, rookie bonus selection from Oregon, apparently has nailed down the starting post at quarterback.

The Colts accepted Scarbath's return conditionally. They were to have given Washington one of their high draft choices if Scarbath was kept.

Colt coach Webb C. Beiback said he could not afford to give up the high draft choice, whose name was not revealed, for a second string quarterback.

Shaw will take over the number one signal calling job from Gary Kerkorian, former Stanford star.

TIME OUT

"Rotten shame about Abernathy had a first putt to break 100 for the time today!"

Amateur Favorites Sidelined

By LEO H. PETERSEN
United Press Sports Editor

RICHMOND, Va. (UP) — With four of the favorites already on the sidelines after a smashing wave of first round upsets, the 128 survivors in the U.S. Amateur Golf Championship teed off for the second round today with Bob Sweeney meeting Willie Turnesa in one of the feature matches.

Sweeney, the runner-up for the title last year, was among the name players who advanced in the first round matches Monday while Turnesa, two-time winner of the crown, drew a first round bye.

Like the others who got a free pass into the second round, Turnesa was thankful that he had Monday off after the first round.

He had eliminated such name players as former champion Charlie Coe and Dick Chapman, North-South amateur king Don Bishpoff, and Billy Joe Patton.

VETERAN
In addition to the Sweeney-Turnesa match, other second round pairings had Jake Howard Jr., a 19-year-old University of Georgia student from Atlanta who upset Coe 2 and 1 in the first round, facing veteran Chick Evans, another two-time winner of the title.

Another dark horse, George McCullister, a 45-year-old real estate salesman from Los Angeles, meets Louis Triewiesle, of Kansas, Ill. McCullister knocked off Patton 3 up in five extra holes in the first round.

Chapman was eliminated by Art Hoff, a 35-year-old jewelry firm vice president from La Grange, Ill. Hoff and 1 in the first round, Billows from Poughkeepsie, N.Y., a two-time runner-up in this tournament, knocked off the 20-year-old Bishpoff, 1 up.

LOGGED
There were other casualties, too, such as M. Edward Merrins of Meriden, Miss., who won the Western Amateur championship in July. He was put out 1 down, by Fred L. Gordon of Clarion, Iowa. But while a lot of the name players fell by the wayside, there still were plenty left in this wide-open tournament. In addition to Ward and Turnesa, Walker Chipman, Bruce Cudd and L. Joseph Conrad, the current British Amateur champion, got started after having first round byes. So do Charles Yates, the 1938 British Amateur champion and Ted Bishop, who won this tourney in 1946.

Bill Campbell, the former West Virginia legislator, Evans and Jimmy McHale were among the prominent shot-makers who won their first round matches. Campbell turned back Dave Goldman of Dallas, 3 and 2. Evans defeated John Busenmeyer of Wyoming, Ohio 2 and 1, and McHale beat Dr. John McKey of Orlando, Fla., 3 and 2.

Packers Counting On Rooks

By DON BRYDON
United Press Sports Writer

GREENBAY, Wis. (UP) — Little Blackburn starts his second season as coach of the Green Bay Packers with a group of eager rookies holding the key to success or failure.

The Packers started the 1954 season with high hopes, but inability to win the close ones landed the club in fifth place in the National Football League's Western Division at the finish with a 4-8 record.

Green Bay's chances to improve on that record this year depend to a discouraging degree on newcomers. The attack last year was built almost entirely around quarterback Tobin Rote and ends Billy Howton and Max McGee. When that aerial combination failed, the Packers lost.

CANDIDATES
This year McGee has been lost to the armed forces and Blackburn is still looking for a number one left end. The top candidates are rookies Jim Jennings of Missouri and Bob Peringer of Washington State, with second year man Gary Knafiec also in contention.

But none of the prospects has looked good enough in pre-season exhibitions to take his place alongside Howton, one of the best pass catchers in the league when the opposition can't double-team him. The Packers also need a top reserve quarterback, and they may have found one in an unlikely place — Prairie View (Tex.) A&M. Charlie Brackins, who passed kicked and carried the ball to set a flock of records at Prairie View, has taken the switch to pro ball in stride and should stick as Rote's understudy.

DEFENSE
The Packers' defense, already one of the best in the league, has been strengthened considerably with the addition of rookie guard Tom Bettis of Purdue. Green Bay's first draft choice, George Timberlake of Southern California, and Hank Bulough of Michigan State also have shown promise of sticking at guard.

Rookie halfback Doyle Nix of Southern Methodist has looked good on defense, and probably will team up with Val Joe Walker, who ranks as one of the top pass defenders in the circuit.

Blackburn has been rebuilding for the past two years and said he did not expect to win a championship "until we have championship caliber men on the club."

Cleveland Meets Senators, NY vs. Tigers In Crucials

By MILTON RICHMAN
United Press Sports Writer

The Cleveland Indians aim to settle a couple of scores with the sad sack Senators tonight, the first one having to do with something personal and the second one with something like $10,000 per man.

On the personal side, the Indians are fed up with the increasing needling they have been subjected to from the seventh-place Senators, who have beaten them 12 out of 19 games this year.

Then there's the always vital matter of World Series money. The Indians, who lead the American League by 1 1/2 games, are convinced they can eliminate the last major obstacle in their road to the pennant by capturing at least two games of the three game series which opens with a two-night doubleheader at Griffith Stadium tonight.

Toward that end, Cleveland Manager Al Lopez, who says "this series can make or break us," has nominated two of his pressure-tested right-handers, Bob Lemon and Mike Garcia, to pitch against Washington in tonight's twin-bill. Chuck Dressen, the fiery little Senator skipper who vows he'll treat the next three games as if they were World Series contests, indicated his pitching choices may be southpaw Micky McDermott in the opener and right-hander Bob Porterfield or left-hander Chuck Stobbs in the nightcap.

The Yankees, a game and a half off the pace and one game down in the all-important "lost column" which opens with a tie betwixt Cleveland and New York for first place.

Casey Stengel is sending his right handed fast-baller Bob Turley to the mound against Detroit today while Bucky Harris of the Tigers has given the nod to Bob Miller, a 20-year-old place hitter who has just returned to Detroit after compiling an 8-2 record with Augusta of the Sally League.

The third-place White Sox, who are 3 1/2 games back, are at Baltimore for a two-night doubleheader, while the Red Sox, who insist they still have a chance even though they are six games behind, meet the Kansas City Athletics in a two-nighter.

Eugene Emeralds Win Northwest Loop Title

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Eugene defeated Salem, 9-6, Monday night to win the Northwest League baseball championship. The win gave the Emeralds the best-of-seven playoff series, 4-2. Eugene was the league's second half champion.

The Emeralds won the championship game with a four run rally in the top of the ninth inning. With one out, Salem starter Bill Whitson walked Ted Hesse then gave up a single to George Maffo. Bill Dials came in to pitch for the Senators and was touched for consecutive homers by Bill Eastburn and George Huffman.

Salem took a 6-5 lead in the eighth inning with two runs. Singles by Floyd Robinson and Jack Dunn and a double by Mel Krause set up the scoring.

Hesse got a home run for the winners in the first inning, good for two runs.

A crowd of 1,083 witnessed the game.

Kretlow Top Coast Hurler

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Lou Kretlow, who won promotion to the Major Leagues with his efforts, was the Pacific Coast League's top percentage pitcher for 1955.

Kretlow, big gun in Seattle's drive to the pennant, compiled a 14-3 record to take percentage honors with a .824 figure, final unofficial averages revealed Tuesday. The righthander appeared in 22 games for the Rainiers, working 149 innings and striking out 110 men while walking 74. He and his battery mate, Joe Ginsberg, were sold recently to the Kansas City Athletics.

Hollywood boasted the league's only 20-game winners in George (Red) Mungler and Bob Garber. Mungler wound up with a 23-3 slate, second only to Kretlow in the percentage column. Garber ended at 20-16 and with Sacramento's Bud Daley, earned the dubious distinction of losing the most games. Daley, called up by the Cleveland Indians, finished at 18-16.

Garber also was the loop's strike out leader with 198 in 292 innings, while Johnny Briggs of Sacramento was the most liberal with bases on balls with 118 in 251 innings.

Chase, Williams (8) and Dapper; Whitson, Dials (9) and Koepf.
