Burdley Crum, attorney for Rita Hayworth, explaining why they oppose a writ ordering her to bring her daughter Yasmin to visit Rita's ex-husband, Aly Khan:

"What Rita wants is the right to call the French cops in case something goes wrong."

Mrs. Muriel McCormick Hubbard, heiress to an estimated 40-million dollar fortune, answering adoption application questions as to how much income, insurance and real property she had:

"Over $100,000."

Farmer Keron Walsh, Durand, Ill., father of eight polio-stricken children, to a Los Angeles woman who telephoned him she was praying for the children and asked what else she could do:

"I just told her to keep praying."

Marine Capt. Richard S. McCutchen, when asked if he would try for the top prize on The $54,000 Question TV quiz program, which he won:

"I am proud to belong to a 'go' organization that the answer is I go."

Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas on his threatened arrest by a policeman in Stalingrad for taking a flashbulb picture on the street at night, during his recent tour of the Soviet Union:

"Apparently the word had not gotten down that the patrolman was supposed to be friendly."

Asbestos heir Tommy Manville, Jr. asked if he planned to marry again, after divorcing his ninth wife, the former Anita Eden of Atlanta, Ga., for a reported $400,000 settlement:

"The way it's going, when I can find a woman who can support me this time."

Philadelphia Dist. Atty. Samuel Dash investigating the abortion death of food chain heiress, Mrs. Doris Ostreicher:

"One thing we want to know is why Mrs. Silver didn't want her daughter to have the baby."

Rita To Fight Aly Khan's Writ Asking Yasmin's Visit

RENO (UP)— Rita Hayworth, through her attorney Bartley Crum, announced Tuesday she would fight a writ filed by former husband Aly Khan, asking that she produce their daughter, Yasmin, for a six week's visitation in Europe.

Crum said that he would ask District Court Judge A. J. Macchetti, either late today or tomorrow, to order withdrawn a writ filed by Aly Khan asking custody of Yasmin for six weeks, regardless of whether the French courts recognize the validity of the Reno divorce of the couple.

However, Miss Hayworth has indicated she will let Yasmin go to her father for six weeks when and if the French courts recognize the divorce. The court goes into session Sept. 15 Crum said. Miss Hayworth now is in New York and will take a ship to France immediately with Yasmin and Rebecca, the latter a daughter by Orson Wells.

"It boils down to this," he said. "What Rita wants is the right to call the French cops in case something goes wrong."

Miss Hayworth wants to make sure the French courts recognize her Nevada decree in France. The writ filed by Aly Khan would compel Rita to produce Yasmin in France, regardless of whether the French courts recognize the decree.

Crum said that his representatives would seek quick action in the French courts.
