

Harvie Ward Paces Field in Amateur Golf Tourney

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
RICHMOND, Va. (AP) — Kicking and conversions in a football game before 50,000 screaming fans is nothing compared to trying to sink a tough putt before a silent golf gallery.

You can ask Bill Booe, one of the unlikeliest golfers ever to get to the semifinals of the National Amateur Golf Tournament.

Booe is the little guy who used to trot out on the Yale bowl turf almost a decade ago and kick some vital points when the Elis scored a touchdown. Now a quiet, unassuming Bridgeport, Conn., businessman, he's in the semifinals of the National Amateur along with one other almost unknown golfer, a player of considerable local fame and one of the world's best amateurs.

Bill doesn't figure to go beyond today's 36-hole semifinals. He's scheduled to meet San Francisco's Harvie Ward, 1952 British Amateur champion, runner-up for that title in 1953 and unquestionably the tournament's most consistent golfer left in this mixed-up tournament.

The other semifinal brings together Hillman Robbins Jr. of Memphis, Tenn., last year's intercollegiate champion and winner of a flock of important invitational tournaments, and William Hyndman III of Philadelphia, who has been recognized for years as a time golfer who played only around home.

TRANSPLANTED
Ward, a transplanted Tar Heel from Tarboro, N. C., ranks as odds-on favorite now that all the other players of international stature have been removed.

Los Angeles '9' Bounces Twinks In Playoff Fray

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Angels finally snapped out of it.

Los Angeles whipped Hollywood Thursday night, 7-1, with Don Etkin firing a five-hitter and Buzz Clarkson hitting a two-run homer in the fifth inning. That blow won the game. It had been a tight hurling duel to that point between Etkin and Hollywood's Joe Trimble.

The Angels chased Trimble in the eighth, when they put across four runs as the Stars used four pitchers trying to get the side out.

Hollywood's only run was Curt Roberts' homer in the eighth.

The Stars have won two games in the three-of-five series for third place in the Pacific Coast League standing and the city championship. The teams finished in a third place tie and wound up their city war with 14 games apiece.

MINOR LEAGUE Results

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION
Minneapolis 8, Omaha 5 (Minneapolis leads best-of-7 finals, 1-0)
INTERNATIONAL LEAGUE
Rochester 14, Toronto 10 (Rochester leads best-of-7 finals, 1-0)
TEXAS LEAGUE
No game scheduled, Houston at Shreveport Friday night for first game of best-of-7 finals.

Ward has been playing exceptionally well over the rugged, 6,713-yard, par-70 James River course of the Country Club of Virginia. He had a 19-hole squeaker in his opening match against Ray Palmer, but has won every one since by a comfortable margin.

After knocking out Robert Jordan of Greensboro, N. C., and young Jimmy McCoy of West Palm Beach, Fla., yesterday, Ward repeated an earlier statement that if he keeps on playing the same kind of golf, he stands a chance to win. That was a real understatement.

Booe, on the other hand, had the roughest of all roads to the semifinals, although three of the four quarter-final matches went to the 18th green. For the first seven holes against tall Charles Kunkle, upset conqueror of Joe Conrad, Bill couldn't make a par.

FINISH
"I felt so bad I didn't want to go on. I didn't want that match to finish," he said afterward.

But he did go on and, as Bobby Jones advised, had his bad round when his opponent also was having a bad one. Coming to the 18th, they were all even and both short of the green in two. Booe chipped within five feet of the cup, then blew the putt. But Kunkle missed an even shorter one to lose.

The 39-year-old Hyndman, who beat his Philadelphia friend Jimmy McHale in the morning, turned back intercollegiate champion Joe Campbell 2-up.

Robbins had a 67 but won only 1-up from Ed Hopkins of Abilene, Tex.

Weekend Angling Outlook

PACIFIC NORTHWEST
Portland (AP) — This week's rain has brightened fishing prospects in Oregon streams, the State Game Commission said in its weekly bulletin. However, even without it some waters gave promise of good catches.

The report by districts:

NORTHWEST
North coast streams need the rain for improvement of salmon and trout angling. Salmon angling out of Yaquina and Depoe Bays has been fair to excellent. The McKenzie and Willamette rivers have been good. Dexter and Lookout Point reservoirs have been fair on trout. Dorena has been fair and Clear Lake has been good. Other McKenzie Pass area lakes have been fair.

SOUTHWEST
Winchester Bay salmon angling has continued fair. Sea-run cutthroat angling has been fair in the lower Rogue and spotty in Smith River. Fly fishing in the Angeles and Inland areas has not been successful. There has been a great need for rain. Along the main Umpqua some sea-run cutthroat are being taken. Steelhead angling has been fair to good at Steamboat Creek and Soda Springs Dam is closed to all angling. The river above Soda Springs is open until Oct. 2. The South Umpqua above Jackson Creek is closed. Salmon angling at Coos Bay has been fair to good inside L.E. bar and good to excellent outside. Striped bass angling has been fair to good up the Coos River and fair to good on Haynes slough and between

Medford Names Baseball Coach

MEDFORD (AP) — John Kovenz, former University of Oregon and Western International League baseball player, was named Thursday as Medford High School baseball coach. He will assist in football.

The University of Mississippi apparently doesn't believe in field goals. The Rebels last made one against LSU in 1931 and lost, 29-0.
