

Writer Claims McCutcheon Saved $64,000 TV Program

By CHARLES MERCER
NEW YORK (AP)—Those feathers you see sticking to my chin are from eating crow. A couple of months ago I said nobody would ever go for the big and final question on The $64,000 Question (CBS-TV). But I hadn't counted on the U.S. Marines.

On Tuesday evening Capt. Richard S. McCutcheon of the Marine Corps went for the question—and won. Never did a befuddled prophet how more willingly to a courageous warrior, McCutcheon displayed a coolness, intelligence and modesty throughout his long ordeal that makes you want to vote for him for company commander. If he isn't promoted to major within two months I'm going to write my congressman.

I must confess that personally I'm a bit tired of The $64,000 Question. But apparently nobody else is, so let's talk about it.
McCutcheon has given this program new life at a critical age in its history. He has ushered in what you might call its "institutional phase." For when McCutcheon said, "I belong to a very proud organization, and the answer is 'go,'" he was speaking for the Marine Corps.
It's to be expected that numerous institutions—as well as the people who run this program—will recognize the promotional value of having a "representative" on the who run this show are planning a further development in which each other. Details, as this source says, are being worked out. Well, all the big winners contest against sir, they'd better be.

Lions Club Raps Comics

BISMARCK, N. D. (AP)—Almost to a man, the Bismarck Lions Club believes questionable pictures and reading matter collected by a Senate committee would "damage the normal youth's outlook on sex."
All but one of 113 club members who marked and returned secret ballots voted "yes" on this question after reviewing for 45 minutes material turned over to the club as a "citizens jury" by the Senate's subcommittee on juvenile delinquency.

Storybook Romance Is On the Rocks

LONDON (AP)—The storybook romance of World War II spy "Odette" and the British officer she saved from the Nazis is on the rocks.
Capt. Peter Churchill has filed suit for divorce from the former Mrs. Odette Sansom, naming a co-respondent identified only as "Haltows."
Churchill and the French-born Mrs. Sansom met while both were serving as British spies in occupied France and she helped him escape from the Gestapo.

DAUGHTER DIES

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP)—While Mr. and Mrs. Billy Graham watched a drive-in movie last night their 14-month-old daughter Karen hanged herself in the back seat. Police said she apparently climbed on a pillow and put her head out a partially opened side window. The pillow slipped, leaving her head trapped between the window glass and frame.

Motorist Sees Brother Killed

BOSTON (AP)—James Shaughnessy was driving along a highway last night when he spotted an accident a few cars ahead of his.
He went to the scene and learned that the motorist who had suffered a heart attack and crashed head-on into another car, was dead.
The motorist was his brother, William J. Shaughnessy, 49.

Sailor Learns The Hard Way

WEST WARWICK, R. I. (AP)—Medford B. Johnson, 22, of Bacoia, Ill., bought a car in his home town and started to drive to Quonset, R. I., where he is stationed with the U. S. Navy.
When he was only 12 miles from his base, police noticed the car had no registration plates. He was arrested on a charge of driving a unregistered car.

Sarasota Baby Dies While in Bathtub

SARASOTA, Fla. (AP)—Nine-month-old Mark Thomas Smith drowned yesterday when his mother was interrupted by a doorbell while bathing him.
Before Mrs. Frank Smith got back, a maid found the child floating lifeless.
The father is a prominent Sarasota developer.

E. German Woolworth Store Typifies Communism At Fair

Editor's Note — Reinhold Ensz, an American on the AP staff in Germany, received Russian permission to visit the 1955 Leipzig fair. Here is his report.
By REINHOLD ENSZ
LEIPZIG, East Germany (AP)—One way to sum up the Communist transformation of Leipzig is to tell what has happened to the F. W. Woolworth store.
The store front still carries a red sign with the familiar lettering, "F. W. Woolworth Co." Window displays are arranged in the tradition of the worldwide chain. Inside, the counters are neatly laid out, displaying many of the items one always looks for in "the dime store." But all the merchandise is from East Germany, and a close look at the sign out front reveals the significant words: "In Verwaltang," meaning "under administration" — Communist administration, that is.
"Things have certainly changed around here," one clerk told this reporter. "The difference is like day and night."
The Communists have chopped the building in half, converting the other part into a clothing store. Ten years after World War II, long lines regularly form in front of the state-operated food stores. Meat, fats, sugar and coffee are frequently unavailable. Restaurants still feature "ersatz" coffee, just as they did under Hitler.
The nicest thing about the 800-year-old fair, from the viewpoint of the Leipzigers, was the hundreds of shiny autos it brought from the West.
Entire families spent an afternoon or evening walking along the streets, fingering chrome head-
