

THE SOFT, BUT FULL silhouette with high round neck, short sleeves and narrow belt makes the kind of dress that is right for daytime and, with an accessory change, right for after-five. Designed in embroidered wool by Will Saunders of Arkey for the Arkey Junior Frocks line.

Klamath Falls Library Club Annual Luncheon-Style Show At Willard Hotel September 19

The Klamath Falls Library Club's annual fall luncheon and style show promises as usual, to be a top social event of the year.

All interested Klamath Basin women are extended a special invitation to a social afternoon starting at 1 p.m. September 19, in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel.

The style show will feature a preview of outstanding fall fashions from Miller's. A sensational highlight and stellar attraction of the production will be Model Zarina of Hollywood, who will display advance styles in her own inimitable manner.

Mrs. Gus Vlahos is general chairman, and Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, president of the Klamath Falls Garden Club will supervise decorations — assisted by members of the garden group.

Other committee members include Mrs. Harry Glesin, Mrs. Leo Huls and Mrs. Fred Hoagland.

Background organ music will be played during the style show by Mrs. Arthur Denison.

For reservations call Mrs. Robert Egge, 2-0708 — or Mrs. Vlahos, 5381.

HOUSTON, Tex. (AP) — Testimony in a recent federal court suit centered around a receptionist in a doctor's office. A woman witness was testifying when Atty. Carrington Williams asked if she knew the receptionist's name. "No, sir," replied the witness. "We always called her that stacked-up blonde."

Ruger-Pike Marriage Of Interest To Friends

A wedding of interest of their friends in Klamath Falls, took place in Vancouver, Washington, when Mrs. Ellen Marie Pike, Salem, and Ray Ruger, were married August 27.

Attendants were Ed Tomlin, uncle of the former Mrs. Pike; and Mrs. Dorothy Korbe, Portland.

Mrs. Ruger was co-honoree with Mrs. Dorothy Michaels at a shower in Salem, Tuesday evening, August 30, at a dinner and shower given by 41 former fellow-employees of Montgomery Ward and Company.

The Rugers are now at home, 1035 Mitchell Street, Klamath Falls.

Lakeview BPW Woman Of Year

LAKEVIEW — Business and Professional Women, at their first fall meeting on September 8, voted the superintendent of Lakeview Hospital, Mrs. Mabel McDonald, as the local BPW 1955 woman of the year.

During national BPW week on September 25-October 1, Mrs. McDonald will be honored at a breakfast preceding the church hour when the members will attend St. Luke's Episcopal Church in a group.

President Dora Herwick appointed committees to plan the southern Oregon district BPW conference in Lakeview, slated for October 8 and 9. At the meeting, Dr. Joycelin Robertson reported on the regional convention she attended in Reno during July.

Hostess for the evening was Mrs. Eva Arthur.

GWEN KIRKPATRICK, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Kirkpatrick of Malin, celebrated her tenth birthday at the home of her parents, Thursday, September First, with sixteen guests present. Games were played and refreshments served, including a lovely birthday cake, made by Gwen's mother and aunt, Mrs. C. M. Kirkpatrick Jr.

The young lady, in the fourth grade at Malin school, is also a budding musician.
