1955 School Year Opens; Student Rolls Show Rise

KLAMATH FALLS CITY SCHOOLS opened their doors September 6 to an increased number of students over last year. Superintendent of Schools Arnold Gralapp reported that the Klamath Falls elementary schools have a total of 2,470 students enrolled. This is an increase of 67 over last year's total of 2,403 enrolled. Klamath Union High School's enrollment increased from 1,441 in 1954 to 1,513 in 1955; an increase of 72. In the top right picture Mrs. Loy Barker, third grade teacher at the new Twyla Ferguson School instructs her new class. The middle left photograph shows Jacqueline Dukes hard at work on her textbooks. Jacqueline is in the sixth grade at Shasta School. Middle right shows Klamath Union High School students crowding the halls early one morning soon after school convened. Students hurry home through the rain in the picture at lower left. They are leaving KUHS at the close of a day's studies. KUHS students enjoy a Coke after school at one of the local fountains in the photograph at lower right. They are, left to right, John Carnes, Jim Dittrich, Pat Case, and Pat Braniff.

PHOTOS
BY DON KETTLER