DADDY'S BOSS? YOU MEAN HE'S GOTTA MIND SOMEBODY ELSE BESIDES YOU?

Government Studies Easier Draft For Older Age Men

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is considering a change in draft regulations aimed at getting younger men into uniform.

The proposed change is prompted by the rising average age of draftees—now up to about 23—and is coupled with the administration's new military reserve program.

Officials said the proposed changes, designed to be more "lenient" with older draft-age men, are being circulated among interested agencies for review and comment. They said they did not expect early action.

At present, the practice is to draft from the top down—that is, to take the oldest men first in the eligible 18½-26 age group.

However, a selective service official said that as things now stand, the average draftee will be about 25 when he finishes his two-year hitch and moves into the ready reserve. This is only a year under what this official said is the age at which most men reach their peak of military efficiency.

"We want younger men than the 25-year-olds going into that ready reserve," he continued. "We want men who can serve in the ready reserve several years before they reach 26."

Selective service officials said the average age of draftees was about 30 in late 1952 and 1953.

Hollywood Rolls Out Carpet For Actor Alec Guinness

By ALINE MOSSY
 United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Alec Guinness, the shy English comedian, gets both stardom and Grace Kelly in his first Hollywood picture, but he modestly calls himself "just an ordinary character actor."

Guinness has the distinction of being a foreign star who has become a top comedian with U. S. fans because of his polished, wry, wry comedies such as "The Lavender Hill Mob" and "Kind Hearts and Coronets."

At last the actor has been lured to Hollywood for the film version of the Perceval play, "The Swan." He not only gets the girl in passionate love scenes, but she, Grace Kelly, the top prize of the Hollywoods.

She also rolled out a red welcome carpet for Guinness with a cocktail party, and Miss Kelly gave a soiree at her home in his honor.

But the solemn-faced actor waves all this acclaim aside.

"I'm just an ordinary character actor," Guinness said humbly. "I've been an actor for 22 years. I do dramas, too, and stage work. I don't get much fan mail. I'm not that kind of an actor. Any notice I've had in this country is indeed a mystery to me. As it is to people back home."

Guinness sat in his Beverly Hills hotel suite, a colorful sight in a long, black, baggy sweater and muffled, and minus his usual toupee. He often sniffled and blew his nose because of a cold the Londoner picked up from the California sunshine.

His favorite comedian, he went on, is Hollywood's Buster Keaton. Guinness, ever so surprised that many film critics regard England's comedies as superior to Hollywood's.

Guinness was asked before to come to Hollywood but, he explained, "The scripts were usually imitations of stuff I've done back home."

"Or else I was committed for English films," he said. "I'm supposed to be doing a film in England right now. But three weeks ago it suddenly fell through, and I was left high and dry. Within 24 hours this 'Swan' comedy turned up with the role of an amusing character."

In "The Swan" Guinness plays a Hungarian prince who is not too interested in the sleek Miss Kelly until Louis Jourdan nearly sweeps her away.

Already there's a plot about in the inner sanctum of MGM to Hollywoodize that Molnar ending. If sneak preview audiences don't dig Guinness' romantic appeal, a new non-Molnar finish will be filmed in which Jourdan wins the fair lady.

Guinness arrived in Hollywood on an over-the-north-pole airliner. This trip featured a scene right out of a Guinness movie.

"I had a berth, but it jacked and collapsed," he said. "I didn't

Godfrey Gets Scroll, Praise

NEW YORK (AP)—Arthur Godfrey finally got around to his part in the opening of the new West Side Airlines terminal but he was nearly a week late and a mile away from the terminal.

It originally was planned for him to land a helicopter on the roof of the terminal at its opening last week.

The stunt was vetoed by City Marine and Aviation Commissioner Vincent A. O'Connor, who said the terminal, on 42nd Street near the Hudson River, was too close to the West Side Highway for safety.

So the helicopter flight was transferred to the roof of Pier 87 farther down the river at 15th Street. After Godfrey brought the aircraft down yesterday he was awarded a scroll from eight airlines praising him for "his contribution to the progress of aviation."

Ike Continues Trout Fishing

FRASER, Colo. (AP)—They have changed the course of the Rocky Mountain stream where President Eisenhower fishes here to make it easier to catch trout.

The President and his host, Denver investment banker Kael Nielsen, stood on the bank of St. Louis Creek yesterday afternoon and helped supervise a bulldozer and a steam shovel in the operation.

The swift-flowing creek, which meanders through Nielsen's ranch, is being tapped to increase the supply of water to Denver, 70 miles to the southeast. The water will be piped over the Continental Divide to the eastern slope.

Murray Snyder, assistant White House press secretary, told newsmen the President and Nielsen—who have been fishing for trout here since 1940—have been planning for years how to alter the course of the stream to improve the catch. They decided to go ahead, Snyder said, when it became apparent that the Denver water diversion project might lower the stream level to such an extent as to spoil the fishing next year.

So they had a new channel cut with the purpose of slowing down the flow, and in doing that created a few deep pools where trout like to lurk.

The President caught seven trout Monday, his first day here, but his luck fell off yesterday. He landed only two.

IGGU Wants Atomic Bombs

TOKYO (AP)—The International Geodetic and Geophysical Union wants to use atomic bombs in artificial earthquakes studies, the newspaper Asahi reported today.

Asahi said Prof. K. E. Bullen of Australia, chairman of the union's seismological section, asked Dr. Kiyoo Wadachi, director of the Tokyo Central Meteorological Observatory, for his advice on the project. Seven other experts in the United States, Russia, Britain and Switzerland were also queried.

Bullen tentatively suggested touching off four atomic bombs in the International Geophysical year, 1957, in the United States, Russia near Australia and in the Pacific Ocean.

MINE ACCIDENT

FUKUOKA, Japan (AP)—Nine coal miners were killed and eight injured by an underground gas explosion today at the Hinomaru coal mine in north Kyushu.
