CHOCOLATE

1 8-inch sponge cake layer
2 tablespoons sherry
1 pint chocolate ice cream
1/2 cup cream, whipped

Cut sponge cake layer into thin strips. Line freezing tray of automatic refrigerator with strips. Sprinkle with two tablespoons sherry, then spread half of ice cream over this. Top with remaining cake and sherry, then with rest of ice cream. Cover with waxed paper and freeze until firm. To serve, cut in slices and top with whipped cream.

DILL TEMPTERS

Cut 2-inch rounds from slices of bread and toast on both sides. Cover each round with three thin slices of baby dill pickles. Top with a cube of sharp American Cheddar cheese. Place under low broiler heat until the cheese melts. Serve at once.

SUPERGLOW solid face powder with lumium gives your face that satin feeling... the richness of satin and the opalescence of satin. It is incredibly light in texture and yet it gives the complexion a softness and beautiful smoothness that is comparable only to satin. It is multisifted hundreds of times to cling for hours without ever becoming apparent. The model is using one of Germaine Monteil's fluted gold cases of Superglow face powder. The powder comes in 10 shades and refills are available.

Sleepwear Fashions

With more and more people using electric blankets, sleepwear designers can forget about warmth when they design new styles. The result is a smart fashion story that is brief and frivolous.

No longer do sweeping floor-length gowns dominate the nighttime picture. Instead, the short, young-looking skirt looks smarter and is infinitely more comfortable, too.

Not content with the dress length style, designers now borrow inspiration from bathing suits and come up with a series of short shorts. Luxite lingerie reaches the ultimate in brevity with a new night dress that has matching panties.

The little sleeper has a fitted bodice and hip-length flaring skirt, reminiscent of a ballet dress. Sheer black tricot is used over sheer blue to give an iridescent effect. The bodice is banded with dainty Val lace and the same lace encircles the hemline of the skirt. The little blue panties to wear underneath have black lace edges, too.

Some of the other brief sleepers are styled like peignoirs with satin ribbon sashes catching them to the waist. Still others are termed "Cradle Snatchers" because their design is adapted from dainty baby dresses.

The short sleepwear not only has styling with fresh fashion appeal, but the colors are unusual, too. Deep vibrant reds, clear aquas and blues, pastel pinks and roses, even black are all a part of the new color scheme.

And, of course, the best feature of all is that the new sleepwear is all of nylon tricot, so you can wash it quickly and it is dry and ready to be worn a short time later.

GROUND BEEF

In choosing beef for grinding, ask your butcher to grind boneless beef cubes, the meat used in preparing stews. Extensive experimentation has found that ground beef containing 25 per cent fat produces the finest hamburgers and meat loaves. Beef cubes, generally, contain just the right proportion of fat. Save round steak for your favorite braised steak dishes.
