

ZAROSINSKI-SKINNER NUPTIALS ON 4th

Pale pink and white gladioli floral arrangements illuminated by candlelight from white tapered in gold exodora was the effective decor for the wedding of Darlene Merle Skinner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh S. Skinner, McKenzie Highway, Redmond; to Edward Richard Zarosinski, son of Theodore P. Zarosinski, Keno Road, Klamath Falls.

The nuptial service was read at 4 p.m., September 4, by the Rev. James S. Jenner, in Holy Rosary Catholic Church, Portland. It was a small quiet wedding, attended by approximately 45 members of the immediate families and close friends and relatives.

The bride wore a white hand-embroidered satin dress—a very simply designed afternoon sheath—which she had made herself. Interest was in the exquisite needlework emphasized by the simple lines of the frock. She wore a small white satin hat with touches of silver, white satin strap high heeled sandals, and carried a bouquet of ranunculus and white roses tied with white satin streamers.

Her honor attendant was her sister, Mrs. Kenneth Fairchild, Milton-Freewater, Oregon. She wore a pale aqua brocaded satin short afternoon dress, aqua satin lilac trim—and her bouquet was of pink gladioli roses with pink streamers.

Flower girls, Kristi Ann Fairchild, bride's niece; and Dobra Zarosinski, bridegroom's niece, wore aqua crystal dresses. Their headpieces were of pink velvet and they carried variegated nosegays centered with pink roses and tied with pink satin streamers. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Fairchild and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Zarosinski, respectively.

Ringbearer was Scott Fairchild, Kristi Ann's brother.

The best man and three ushers were all brothers of the bridegroom, Louis, Joseph, Raymond and Donald Zarosinski.

The reception, after the ceremony, was held in the apartment of the young couple, 907 NE Sixth Street, Portland.

Mrs. Joseph Zarosinski and Mrs. Raymond Zarosinski poured; and Mrs. Clifford Carlson, Portland, and Mrs. Evan Gheen, Roseburg, both aunts of the bride, cut and served the cake.

The couple left the reception for their Canadian honeymoon trip to Lake Louise and Banff—and to hasten their departure—she wore her wedding dress complemented with a corsage of ranunculus.

The new Mrs. Zarosinski is employed as secretary in the planning department of Iron Fireman Manufacturing Company, Portland and her husband will continue his studies as a junior in the University of Oregon Dental school this fall.

Before the nuptial event, during late August, when the then-bride-elect, Darlene Skinner, was visiting in Klamath Falls—a party was planned by Mrs. Raymond (Ray) Zarosinski and Mrs. Lowell Morrison for local friends to meet the future Mrs. Ed Zarosinski. It developed into a combination "to meet" and shower party, when friends arrived at the Ray Zarosinski home, 1718 Crescent Avenue with gifts for the honoree.

Guest list included Mrs. Everett Jackson, Joan Busman, Mrs. A. H. Busman, Mrs. Joe Huck, Mrs. Beattie Bourne, Mrs. Joseph Toole, Mrs. Jim Ramsey, Mrs. Willard E. Turner, Mrs. Roger Beck, Mrs. Dale Cogdill, Mrs. Leonard Putnam, Mrs. Jerry Overen, Mrs. Erwin Helms, Mrs. Martin Parsons and Mrs. Joe Zarosinski, Medford.

Mrs. Don Zarosinski, Corvallis; Mrs. Monette Zarosinski, Keno; Mrs. Tom Calmes, Mrs. W. Frain, Mrs. R. Hurlbut, Mrs. J. R. Wagner, Mrs. Bob Caldwell Sr., and Mrs. Ronnie Wilkerson, Games, were the diversion during the early evening before gifts were

Harsey was released from active duty September 1. Until that date he was executive officer of the 2nd FA (Honest John) Rocket Battery, Fort Sill, Oklahoma.

The visit with his parents was sandwiched in between his release from service—and his return to forestry engineering school at Corvallis for one more year.

Food and Decor at Reception For the B.D. (Ben) Malones Adheres to Wedding Theme

Over 300 friends and relatives of the Hillis and Malone families were received at Reames Golf and Country Club Sunday afternoon, September 11, at a beautifully planned reception for newly married couple, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin David (Ben) Malone. The bride is the former Sylvia Hillis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hillis, 310 Eldorado Avenue, and her parents were hosts.

Although there was a receiving line, the "party" was delightfully informal—and invitations all were for the same hour—4 p.m.

Especially outstanding was the floral wedding cake centerpiece—and the interesting party food in cream molds—also symbolic of the nuptial event which took place about a month before the reception—as mentioned on the first page of today's society section.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Hillis during the gala afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. Guy Barton, Mr. and Mrs. William DePew, Mr. and Mrs. John Jeffries, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wiggins, Mrs. Louis Ser-opened and refreshments were served.

Darlene was graduated from Redmond High School in 1951. She attended Lewis and Clark College in Portland for two and one-half years, where she was affiliated with Delta Phi Gamma Sorority, Amicus, Junior Womens' Honorary and the college choir.

Ed was graduated from KUHS—also in 1951. He went to Oregon State College for two years, where he was affiliated with Sigma Chi fraternity. He is president of the junior class at the University of Oregon Dental school, which he enters October 3. He is also a member of the national dental fraternity, Psi Omega.

Contemporary friends of Sylvia's and Ben's who also assisted were Mary Malone, Ben's sister, who registered the guests; Beverly Lasseit, Sue Ramsby and Cyrille Rickbeil.

Out of town guests were aunts and uncles of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Hillis, Bend; and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Z. Hillis, The Dalles.
