

LaPointe's

THE SIREN LOOK

Memory-making dresses contrived by Suzy Perette to make you irresistible. Shirred taffeta in black only... satin sheath with scoop neck in black, mint periwinkle. Sizes 8 to 16. 35.95

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE

(1) PLANNED TO COINCIDE with the Oregon State division board meeting in Klamath Falls was the first meeting of the season of the local AAUW branch. Some 150 Klamath Falls members, who were host to state board officers, joined them in lunch Saturday noon, September 17, at the Willard Hotel.

AAUW State Division Board Meets in Klamath Falls on 17th

The Klamath Falls branch of American Association of University Women was host to the State Board and branch presidents at their first regular meeting held September 17 at the Willard Hotel. Members and guests were welcomed by Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, local president and Mrs. Willard Duncan, state president of AAUW. Mrs. Philip Blohm, program chairman, presented Mrs. Percy Collier, professor emeritus of Reed College, Portland, who talked on the subject "Liberal Arts—the Keystone of Our Culture."

John Carter, vocalist, was accompanied by Mrs. Don Zumwalt. Mrs. George Clark made an interesting announcement concerning the October meeting which will take the place of the Fellowship Tea which will not be held this year. Mrs. Charles Johnson announced dates for the rummage sale to be held October 21 and 22 at the

(2) THE FASCINATION OF EDUCATION was renewed by Mrs. Percy Collier, (left) professor emeritus of Reed College in Portland who captivated AAUW members with her convincing "Liberal Arts—the Keystone of our Culture" address at the Saturday luncheon. Mrs. Collier is the aunt of Mrs. Frederick Ehlers (center), president of the Klamath Falls branch which was host to the state board meeting called by Mrs. Willard Duncan (right), state president, last weekend.

Pelican Theater building.

The tables very effectively carried out the fall theme with cat-tails and duck decoy decor arranged by Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Buford Hargus.

Officers serving with Mrs. Ehlers for the coming year are: Mrs. George Nelson, vice president; Marilou O'Connor, secretary; and Mrs. Eugene Pavell, treasurer.

Mrs. Ehlers has named the following committee chairmen: international relations, Mrs. K. N. Stordalen; fellowship, Mrs. Victor O'Neill; education, Mrs. Grant Gosgrove; membership, Mrs. George Nelson; program, Mrs. Philip Blohm; music, Mrs. Don Zumwalt; publicity, Mrs. John Heyden; social studies, Mrs. Leonard Surles; telephone, Mrs. Terence Boyer, historian, Mrs. George Chin, creative arts, Mrs. Don Rice, legislative program, Mrs. William Wales Jr., social, Mrs. Dick B. Miller Jr., economic and legal status of women, Mrs. Fred Foulon; roster of qualified women, Mrs. James Kerns; recent graduates, Patti O'Connor; meeting arrangements and decorations, Mrs. H. O. Juckeland; finance, Mrs. Charles Johnson; bulletin, Josephine Reitano; interior decoration, Mrs. Robert Kent and Mrs. Melvin Miller; afternoon book group, Mrs. A. V. McVey; drama, Eva Burkhalter.

Following the luncheon meeting the group adjourned to the county library building for the final meeting of the session.

round the clock

and spanning the seasons

The Petite VELVET PILLBOX

So much fashion for 3⁹⁸

... All the charm, the dash you need to accent your current wardrobe. Then use it as a magic spark for your winter costumes.

LaPointe's
IT'S A WONDERFUL STORE

MILLINERY SALON

Barbara Hale
Co-Starring in
"THE FAR HORIZONS"
A Paramount Picture
in VISTAVISION
CREATED FOR YOU
Hollywood
BREAD
SPECIAL FORMULA

Lovely Slenderness can be yours with proper dieting. Eat and enjoy two slices of Hollywood Bread in place of a starchy, fattening food. Your weight-control diet will taste so much better with Toasted CAL-ORIE-CONTROLLED Hollywood Bread. NO FATS added. Why not try a loaf today and really enjoy a flavorful diet.

BAKED FOR YOU EXCLUSIVELY BY Fluhrer's

Small Text: Sold exclusively by Fluhrer's Bakery, Portland, Ore. ©1955