JOAN ESTES — majoring in merchandising at Stephens College, Columbia, Missouri — is lovin' it back there — even if it HAS been hotter than Needles, California — (she says) — Also her parents the Hush Estes are pleasantly surprised by the steady flow of letters from Joan — who reports a VERY adequate social life is taking care of spare time.

A SHORT DRIVE down Main (or any other) Street in K Falls has me convinced that there is a fortune awaiting the enterprising character who goes into mass production in the manufacture of those false arms to hold the tops of cars down so the drivers can have two hands on the wheel.

THE FALL SOCIAL WHIRL has me spinning like a top! Everything seems to be happening at once — After the summer lull this sudden bustle of teas, receptions, luncheons, card parties etc., this desk is piled higher than THAT with pictures and copy.

ONE OF THE largest social events was a tea given on the first official day of fall — September 21, at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Paul Sharp at their beautiful and spacious Crystal Springs home. Co-hostesses with Betty Sharp were Mrs. A. Ivan (Nita) Thompson and Mrs. F. Cecil (Gladys) Adams — The ambitious gals and their assistants greeted some 400

Middaugh-Walker Nuptial Vows Said in Sacred Heart Church

In a double-ring wedding ceremony in Sacred Heart Catholic Church, LaRae Walker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Walker, 526 North Eighth Street recently became the bride of Claudis Middaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otis Middaugh of Dorris.

The Rev. Timothy Collins, read the service before an altar banked with gladioli.

The bride, escorted by her father, wore a white length gown of white lace, with a high neckline, and fitted long lace sleeves. Her fingertip veil of fine net was held in place by a crown of tiny seed pearls, and she carried a white Bible on which rested a white orchid and a white rosary.

Her new, old, borrowed, and blue were her gown; an old penny which was also borrowed and carried in her shoe; and a traditional blue sash.

LaRae Walker, maid of honor for her sister, wore a frock of pale pink with matching headband, and carried a colonial bouquet.

The three bridesmaids wore identical gowns of pale blue with matching headbands, and carried colonial bouquets. They were Jo Ann Schmitt, Virginia Middaugh, sister of the bridegroom, Joyce Pretari and Kathleen Carrier.

Bill Comer, Dorris, was best man; and ushers were Jim Miller, Arthur Westhouse, Joel Roark and Ralph Beard. Willie Manning and Eddie May served as altar boys.

Soloist was Janette Rochon, classmate of the bride and John Ely was organist.

Flower girl was little Joan Marie Middaugh, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a pale green gown, with matching headband and carried a basket of pink rose petals, which she scattered down the aisle.

The bride's mother wore a light beige summer suit with orchid and white accessories; the bridegroom's mother chose a yellow summer frock with matching accessories. Each mother wore a corsage of tiny rosebuds.

The bride is a graduate of Sacred Heart Academy class of 1955 and her husband is a graduate of Butte Valley High School class of 1955.

The reception was held in the parish hall. The three-tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and silver leaves, was topped with a vase of tiny rosebuds. The traditional first cut was made by the bride and groom.

Mrs. Roy Huggins and Mrs. Howard Bradbury presided at the silver coffee service. Mrs. Mike May cut the wedding cake. Lila Gervais and Joan Brady served it. Karen Paup, cousin of the bride, was at the punchbowl, assisted by Mrs. Carl Schmitt. June Middaugh, sister of the bridegroom and Dolores Gervais registered the guests. Eva Casey was at the gift table.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Arthur Stallcop, Mrs. James Gilson, aunt of the bride, Mrs. Louis Ward, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Francis Manning, close friend of the bride's family; and the mothers of the nuptial couple. After a short trip the newlyweds are at home at 123 North Second Street.
