Uncle Miltie Moves TV Show From New York To Filmland

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Milton Berle, Mr. Television himself, left a gap in the New York scene when he moved his show to Hollywood this week to start his eighth TV season as another "New Berle."

Uncle Miltie is one of the few TV stars who have been around long enough to reminisce about the "good old days" eight years ago when he put on a show with a $12,000 budget for his viewers.

Now his budget is eight times that, and the one-time brass pusher of seltzer bottles is a subdued 47-year-old who has settled down to "a country life" in the California sun. He is producing, directing and appearing on 13 color shows from NBC here, and he speaks loftily of contributing to "the progress of television."

"I changed my format last year, and now I've changed again to a variety show," explained the comedian as he relaxed, or tried to, after his strenuous hour-long program.

"As I'm going on every third week, I can't use continued stock characters or situations."

"I've always had the urge," he continued, waving his cigar, "to further the progress of television, I try to create something for the future."

Down the years Berle has withstood an onslaught by the critics. He's been accused of borrowing his material and hogging the show. But his philosophy remains: "I do

Rain Predicted For Midwest

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rain was in prospect for sections of the Midwest and South but pleasant autumn weather prevailed in most of the nation today.

Sunny and mild weather was forecast for the second game of the World Series in New York.

Warm, southerly winds from Texas northward to the Dakotas sent temperatures into the 60s this morning in the central and northern plains states and western parts of the Midwest. The moisture-laden southerly winds from the Gulf northward brought showers and thundershowers into the area. Rainfall, however, generally was light.

It was a little cooler in the Northwest, and in the Ohio Valley eastward to southern New England, where readings were in the 50s.

Warm weather continued over most of the southern parts of the country.

State Lands Open To Entry

SALEM (AP)—All state and private forests will be open to entry without permits Thursday, except for lands protected by the Klamath Forest Protective Assn.

In the Klamath district, there still are a few small fires.

The opening will aid deer hunters for the Saturday season start.

The State Forestry Department announced that at midnight Wednesday, it is opening these areas to entry without permits: Linn County, Eastern Lane County, and parts of Crook, Wheeler and Deschutes counties.

All forest areas of Clackamas and Marion counties were cleared of entry closures on Wednesday.

The U.S. Forest Service still maintains closures in the high Cascades and the Silver Lake Rim area in Eastern Oregon.

Typhoon Heads For Japan Coast

TOKYO (AP)—A mighty typhoon rolled toward Japan's southern island of Kyushu tonight as the rice-ripening area batted down in a fearful wait.

Sixteen persons were already reported injured by advance winds with two small vessels sunk and several houses smashed.

The typhoon's heart, with winds up to 125 miles an hour, was expected to hit in the early morning.
