

New York Ready For 'Kill'

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK (AP) — Crafty old Casey Stengel led his high and mighty but crippled New York Yankees into Ebbets Field today poised and prepared to polish off the frustrated Brooklyn Dodgers in quick order.

Despite the disability of Mickey Vernon and Hank Bauer, two of his leading guns, the grizzled manager was confident his American League "champions" would sweep the World Series in four straight or, at worst, in five games.

The odds-makers apparently agree. They made the Yankees a prohibitive 2-2 favorite to win their 14th series, and sixth straight against the Dodgers.

Not since 1921 has a team, after losing the first two games, gone on to win the title. That year the New York Giants did it against the Yankees. But that was in best five-of-nine games series. Never has it been achieved since the present four-of-seven system was restored the following year.

"I know those fellows have a good club," Stengel said last night, several hours after the Yankees had whipped the Dodgers 4-2. "But we got a better one. I also know that two of my power guys will be missing—maybe for the rest of the series—but I've got some pretty good fellows on the bench too."

Having turned back the winless Brooks with two left-handers in the Stadium, Stengel gave the third-game assignment to Bullet Bob Turley, the right-handed ace who never before has appeared in a series game.

Walter Alston, who saw his two top right-handers blasted off the hill on successive days, switched to a left-hander, Johnny Podres, who has made one World Series appearance, in 1953.

Occasional showers were forecast in the morning with clearing during the early afternoon. A sellout crowd of some 34,000 was expected.

The injury to Bauer forced Stengel to make a change in his lineup today. Bob Cerv, who replaced Bauer yesterday, was the new starting center fielder with Elston Howard in Bauer's place in right and Irv Noren in left. Against a left-hander, Bill Skowron replaced Joe Collins at first. Alston also made a change, starting Sandy Amoros in left and shifting Junior Gilliam to second base supplanting Don Zimmer because the Yank started a right-hander.

Bauer's injury came during a double play in the first inning. Roy Campanella tossed him out at second as Gil McDougald fanned. Bauer, trying to evade the tag, pulled a muscle in his right thigh which forced his exit two innings later. Mantle, still plagued by the torn muscle in his right thigh, is not hopeful of seeing action in the series, except perhaps as a pinch hitter.

In contrast to Wednesday's defeat at the hands of Whitey Ford, yesterday's loss to Tommy Byrne left the Dodgers stunned.

They could understand losing to one left-hander but to be beaten by two southpaws in succession was more than they could take. It was something that hadn't happened all year.

To make matters worse, Byrne held their fearsome right-handed power to five hits as he became the first left-hander to go the distance and beat the Dodgers in more than a year.

Byrne, a 35-year-old Baltimore native who now makes his home in Wake Forest, N.C., fanned six, including the dangerous Duke Snider with a man on base in the eighth and Gil Hodges for the last out in the ninth.

EIGHT HITS
The Bronx Bombers collected only eight hits off four pitchers, but they put together four singles after two were out in the big fourth to score all their runs.

Billy Loes was shelved from the mound in this big inning, going the way of Don Newcombe the day before. And as in the first game, the bullpen came through in fine style, not permitting a run after that Don Bessent. Karl Spooner and Clem Labine allowed only one hit through the last 4 1-3 innings.

The Dodgers had gained a 1-0 advantage when Pee Wee Reese doubled and scored on a single by Duke Snider. The Dodgers' chance for a hit in the ninth faded when Elston Howard threw out Snider trying to stretch the hit into a double.

Loes, who had pitched a strong three innings with the help of two double plays, appeared out of the woods in the fourth when the Dodgers pulled off another twin killing following a single by Gil McDougald.

Rut Yogi Berra singled to left and Joe Collins walked. Howard drove in the tying run with a single and Billy Martin put the Yankees ahead 2-1 with another one-bagger. The bases were filled when Eddie Robinson, batting for Phil Rizzuto, was hit with a pitched ball. Byrne, a good hitting pitcher, then drove in the winning runs with a two-run single to center.

At this point Manager Alston replaced Loes, a move many second guessers among the crowd of 64,701 thought should have been made earlier in the inning.

Weekend Angling Outlook

PORTLAND (AP) — Those out-of-doorsmen who plan to fish this weekend despite the chance to take to the woods for the deer season opening, can find waters in every part of the state offering fair to good prospects.

The State Game Commission gave this summary by districts:

Northwest
Continuing rain should improve salmon fishing in the Tillamook, Nestucca and Salmon rivers where it has been a little slow. Offshore salmon trolling has been fair. Most areas continue fairly good for trout although the Clackamas has been poor. The McKenzie and the Middle fork of the Willamette has been fair to good. Lookout Point Reservoir, Dexter Reservoir and Clear Lake have been good while Dorena Reservoir and McKenzie Pass lakes have been poor to fair.

Southwest
Coquille River salmon fishing between Bullards Bridge and Parkersburg have been fair and good. Lots of jack have been jumping there. When weather permits, Coos Bay salmon fishing has been good. Angling has been fair for sea-run cutthroat at the head of tidewater on the Millicoma. Despite evidence of much striped bass activity in Isthmus Slough, angling has been only fair in East Divide area up to Shingle House Slough. In the vicinity of Umpqua and the forks, silver salmon angling has been good for small trout.

Central
Wickup Reservoir has been good. Crane Prairie Reservoir also has been giving up good catches and Big Lava Lake has improved. The Deschute River above Bend is low and fishing has been good. The Metolius River, too, has been good. In the lakes, Crescent has been good for rainbow, Davis has been fair to good. Odell has produced good catches of small lake trout. Suttle has been excellent and both East and Paulina have been good.

Northeast
Steelhead fishing below McNary Dam has been slow. The Imnaha River has been producing some good trout catches while the Willamette and Lostine rivers have been fair. Wallawa Lake has been poor, but some fish have been taken from the bank. The Wallawa area's high lakes have been very good but snow and freezing temperatures are there. At Troy on the lower Grande Ronde a few summer steelhead are being taken. The Snake River is good for channel catfish and sturgeon. In Baker County, Eagle Creek has been good for small trout.

Southeast
Malheur County: Owyhee Reservoir fair to excellent for bass, poor to fair for crappies; Owyhee River fair for rainbow; Snake River fair to good for catfish, good to excellent for smallmouth bass. Harney County: Fish Lake fair for trout.

Army May Find Penn Staters With Insider

UNIVERSITY PARK (UP)—The Lions of Penn State may hunt Army with the Cadets' own great past Saturday when they spring loose their version of "Mr. Inside."

Sophomore fullback Joe Sabol scored two touchdowns against Boston University last week in much the same fashion that the Army's storied Doc Blanchard cut inside his own tackle for gains a decade ago.

The authority for Sabol's "inside" stuff? None other than Blanchard himself, who had his binoculars trained on the Shamokin, Pa., speedster while scouting the Lions last week.

Blanchard confided "that young Sabol likes to run on the inside just like I used to." A casual remark, but a mighty tribute to a sophomore who wasn't sure of seeing much action this season.

Sabol switched from quarterback to fullback but did not appear to have any claim on the post until it was thrown open because of an injury to first stringer Bill Straub.

Jim Lockerman served notice to Sabol that he was after the job and both shared the duty in the Boston game.

Otherwise, Engle will stand pat on the lineup that started against Boston University. State edged Army 6-0 in the first meeting of the teams 36 years ago, but has failed to duplicate the triumph in four other meetings.

The Cadets beat the Lions in the last two meetings by nearly identical scores. The Lions fell under a 42-7 barrage in 1919 and the following year came out on the short end of a 41-7 count, the worst defeat suffered by Engle in his six-year regime at Penn State.

KF Hardtoppers Schedule Meeting
Klamath Racing Association President Benny Morrison has called a very important meeting for Monday evening, October 3, in the former Kaiser Auto Parts building 2043 Radcliffe starting at 7:30.

Morrison said all hardtoppers interested in racing next year and prospective car-builders are requested to be present. The motor qualifications for the 1956 season will be discussed and voted on.
