Feller, conference secretary of missionary education; Mrs. L. B. Pierce, district secretary of spiritual life, and Mrs. J. Brisbow, secretary of Christian social relations and local church activities. Standing are Mrs. Larry Watson, district vice president; Mrs. Frank Alexander, secretary of missionary education and service; Mrs. Joe Bramhall, sub district president; Mrs. John Westrum, sub-district vice president, and Mrs. E. B. Redman, secretary of status of women.

Assembly Of God Sets Services

"October has been set aside as 'Enlargement Month' in all the Assemblies of God Sunday Schools and the emphasis this Sunday is placed on Rally Day, according to Pastor C. E. Lebeck, of the Assembly of God Church, Eighth and Oak streets.

The Sunday School superintendent, Mrs. Margaret Lebeck, has arranged an excellent program and Rally Day souvenirs will be given to each one present. Parents and friends of the church are cordially invited to be present at 9:45 a.m.

At the morning worship service, 11 a.m., Pastor Lebeck is speaking on the theme, "Christ's Memorial." The Lord's Supper will be observed at the close of the service. The women's quartet will sing a special number and there also will be music by the choir.

The youth group meets at 6:30 p.m. Musical night will be featured at this service.

"What It Costs Not To Be A Christian" is the sermon-subject for the evening service, 7:30 p.m. Kay Parker will play an accordion number and Vera May will sing a soprano solo. The choir will sing a selected number at the evening service.

Modoc Bloodmobile To Appear Oct. 6-7

ALTURAS — The Modoc County blood donor car will be in Alturas again October 6 and 7 to receive blood donations to be kept in reserve at the Irwin Memorial blood bank in San Francisco for people of Modoc County in case of need.

The car will be in Alturas from 1 to 7 p.m. on October 6 and from 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on October 7.

The car will be stationed at the Seventh and Main streets siding.

Fall Seminar Held Monday

The annual Eugene Eastern Sub-District Fall seminar of the Women's Society for Christian Service was held at the First Methodist Church in Klamath Falls last Monday with Bly, Lakeview, Klamath Falls societies participating.

Presiding over the meetings was Mrs. Joe Bramhall, sub-district president. Mrs. Fred Wade and Mr. A. W. Cowman were in charge of registration.

Dr. Dallas McNeil of Klamath Falls gave the opening devotions, and Mrs. McNeil accompanied by Mrs. E. B. Redman sang.

Mrs. A. S. Feller, conference secretary of missionary education, of Camp White, gave a talk on missionary education work.

District officers participating in the workshop were Mrs. Larry Watson, vice president, of Eugene; Mrs. Frank Alexander, secretary of missionary education and service, of Eugene; Mrs. L. B. Pierce, spiritual life secretary, of Medford; and Mrs. J. Brisbow, secretary of Christian social relations and local church activities, of Eugene. Also present were Mrs. E. B. Redman, secretary of the status of women, and Mrs. Bramhall, Klamath Falls.

Mrs. Watson discussed methods of arousing interest in programs. Mrs. Pierce outlined the study of "The Christian Mission in a Revolutionary World" and led a discussion on the worship period.

Mrs. Alexander discussed the study of Indian Americans and the duties of the local missionary education and service duties. Mrs. Bramhall reviewed "To Combine Our Efforts for Lasting Peace," and discussed local church activities and Christian social relations.

Sub-district presidents, including Mrs. James Dixon, Bly; Mrs. P. Herron, Chiloquin; Mrs. A. Herbert, Lakeview, and Mrs. J. Brewer were introduced. Mrs. John Yaden of Klamath Falls was unable to attend the meetings.

Mrs. John Westrum, sub-district vice president of Lakeview, gave the grace before the noon luncheon, which was held at the church dining room with the Bly and Klamath Falls societies acting as co-hostesses. Chairman of the luncheon committee was Mrs. E. B. Macabee, and service was by members of Naomi circle. Mrs. Howard Hanks, pianist, provided music during the program.

The afternoon worship service was led by Mrs. Redman, who used the seminar theme, "Crown Thy Good with Brotherhood." Members of the Klamath Falls and Chiloquin Societies led the closing devotions.
