

RECEPTION AT WINEMA HOTEL HONORS MR. AND MRS. ROGER W. KLAHN

OVER 300 GUESTS were received between the hours of 7 to 10 p.m. at the reception honoring Mr. and Mrs. Roger W. Klahn September 13 in the Winema Hotel.

The couple was married July 10 in the First Brethren Church of Long Beach. Dr. Charles W. Mayes read the 1 p.m. double-ring service in the presence of close friends and immediate family. The bride is the former Audrey Lathrom, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Lathrom, Long Beach; and Roger is the son of Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Klahn, 1955 Huron, who, with their other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Larry G. Klahn, were reception hosts.

In the pictures, upper left, the bride and bridegroom propose the traditional toast; lower left, Eleanor Jackson, Mrs. Leroy Aserlind (who assisted); Mr. and Mrs. Eugene H. Favell and Mr. and Mrs. Philip G. Blohm.

Upper right, in the receiving line, are the honored couple, Mr. and Mrs. K. G. Klahn and Mr. and Mrs. Larry G. Klahn. Lower right, the senior Mrs. Klahn, Roger and Audrey, Mrs. W. L. Bullard (who also assisted); and Mrs. Larry Klahn. (See story on inside page.)

—Photos by Wes Guderian

SOCIETY by Milly Ramsby

CROWD OF 275 WOMEN

PATRONIZES

LIBRARY CLUB ANNUAL EVENT

"AUTUMN HIGHLIGHTS" at the Willard Hotel, September 19, was the opening event of the Klamath Falls Women's Library Club's new calendar year. Fall floral decorations and background organ music set the tempo for the luncheon and the outstanding preview of seasonal styles by Miller's.

Mrs. Gus Vlahos, luncheon chairman, was assisted by her co-chairman, Mrs. O. H. Hamilton and committee members, Mrs. Harry Glesin and Mrs. Fred Hoagland.

The Klamath Falls Garden Club president, Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, her co-chairman, Mrs. Leo Huls and Mrs. Arch Proctor and other committee members planned and arranged the luncheon table and room decor.

At the table in the group of seven, left to right, Mrs. Merton Ferebee, new Library Club president; Mrs. Clarence P. Ward, second vice president; Mrs. Oliver Spiker, treasurer; Mrs. Jack Schulze, membership chairman; Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, Mrs. Arch Proctor and Mrs. Leo Huls.

In the group of six, same order, Mrs. Fred Hoagland, Mrs. Harry Glesin, Mrs. O. H. Hamilton, Mrs. Gus Vlahos, Mrs. George Proctor, secretary; and Mrs. Elmer Harnden, vice president.

On the ramp during the style show, Mrs. John O'Neill models one of the first showings in the fashion panorama which varied from the simple daytime ensemble to glittering and lavish evening gowns.

Marion Cronon competently emceed the show and Mrs. Arthur Denison at the electric organ, played incidental music as the models displayed the new fall and winter fashion trends. (See story on inside page.)

—Photos by Don Kottler

