THE QUIET, TRANQUIL ROOM

The decor of a room should always be suitable to the room's purpose. This is particularly true of the bedroom. As quiet restfulness is the desired effect here, it naturally follows that colors should be chosen that produce a feeling of tranquility, and the wallpaper pattern should be a flowing, all-over design, preferably, without sharp or abrupt lines or breaks.

An all-over foliage pattern with green leaves on a shell pink ground forms an attractive and appropriate wall treatment for the bedroom sketched. The flowing pattern introduces enough movement into the room, yet there is no busy, jarring effect. Woodwork and ceiling have been painted the exact shade of the shell pink background of the paper.

Naturally, you want the decor in all your rooms to be suitable to purpose, to be easy on the eyes, and easy on your budget, too. We'll help you plan appropriate, attractive, inexpensive color schemes, if you'll come in and talk over your plans with us. We are always glad to serve you in any way that we can.
