

Oregon Tech Swamped by EOCe Mountaineers

Webfoots Lose, 19-7 To U of W

By MATT KRAMER
 PORTLAND, Ore. — Hard charging Washington wore Oregon down and battered to a 19-7 victory here Saturday night for its third consecutive win of the season.

Oregon put up a battle for the first half of the Pacific Coast Conference game but then the visitors' power asserted itself and Washington drove to scores in each of the last two quarters.

Oregon gave Washington trouble only for a few minutes in the closing half. A passing attack carrying Oregon 53 yards to a touchdown cut Washington's lead to 12-7 just before the end of the third quarter.

But Oregon never threatened again and Washington's bulky line kept Oregon pressed back in its own territory. There center Bert Watson finally picked up an Oregon fumble in the fourth quarter and the visitors put over the clinching touchdown, driving 24 yards in seven plays.

Halback Credell Green punched over the two second half touchdowns. The first one was by halfback Jim Jones on a two-yard plunge culminating a 28-yard march in the second quarter. The first score was set up through a short 23-yard punt by Oregon.

Oregon's lone touchdown came on a 15-yard pass from quarterback Jack Crabtree to end George Sieder.

The first half was even. Washington managed a 60-yard march but failed to score on that one and Oregon drove 54 yards once and then 76 yards later without tallying.

Washington got a 6-0 lead, however, early in the second quarter after the weak Oregon kick.

The second half was a different story as Washington, fresh from a win over Minnesota, took the kickoff and ground out six consecutive first downs in marching 77 yards to a 12-0 lead.

Then came Oregon's brief flurry as the unrelated quarterbacks, Tom and Jack Crabtree, passed Oregon downfield to a score. Washington, which previously had defeated Idaho, killed Oregon's hopes for an upset within a few minutes.

Tackle Dick Day picked up an Oregon fumble on the Oregon 41 at the start of the fourth quarter and Washington controlled the ball through most of the remaining time.

The winners' used passes only sparingly and seldom needed to take to the air as the line opened big holes. Bell carriers charged through for 16 first downs, driving 100 yards in 10 plays and added three first downs and a penalty netted one more.

A crowd of 39,113 turned out for the game between the traditional rivals.

Washington scoring—touchdowns: Slender (13, pass-run from Jack Crabtree), Conversion: Morris.

Bylines from the SIDELINES

NOT MUCH DOING IN THE BYLINE FILE, spending most of our spare time out beating the brush now that deer season has finally rolled around. Before we go any further BE CAREFUL if you plan on doing any buck hunting. Let's keep Klamath County an accident free county this year.

Had a short talk with Bob Thompson, former mayor of Klamath Falls and strong booster for the Oregon State College Beavers, this past week, and Bob relays information pertaining to an ex-Klamath Union grifter.

Thompson witnessed last weekend's Oregon State 10-0 win over Stanford and big John Witte, 1951 graduate of KUHS and Shrine All-Star standout the same year, proved to be a spark in the OSC surprise victory. Which was the first time an Oregon State team had beaten a California team since 1947, when they dumped the same school from Palo Alto.

Witte, according to Thompson and other OSC backers who saw the upset, has taken over as a team's leader. And rightfully so. Big John, home after two years with Uncle Sam, is a few years older than the average teammate, and what's more important, Witte is one of the best linemen on the entire Pacific Coast. According to coach Tommy Prothro, Witte is THE BEST tackle on the coast.

We will be watching the rest of the football season for Witte's progress, and are expecting an outstanding showing from the OSC junior.

RECEIVED A LETTER from a recent sports personality of the Klamath Basin the other morning that may be of interest to many OTI fans.

Art Kirkland, former assistant football, basketball and head baseball coach for the Mile High Campus writes from Washington, D.C. where he is now working and taking on some added schooling on the side.

Kirkland is teaching at Sultland High School, where he is assisting in varsity football and head of the junior varsity squad. The school has an enrollment of 1500 students.

The former OTI coach mentioned he will be undertaking night courses at George Washington University starting September 28. (Last Wednesday).

His wife, Mary Frances, who was a member of the Roosevelt Grade School faculty while in Klamath, is teaching on the staff at Surrattville Elementary School.

THIS COMING WEEKEND'S football agenda for the Oregon Tech Owls will be a big one for the local sports scene. Compton Junior College, the nation's "it" for small college football will play here under the Modoc lights.

Several people have accused Athletic Director-Head Coach Rex Hunsaker of going way out of bounds in scheduling competition to "out class" the locals, but the Tech headman figures it this way: His club may very well get taken by this caliber of play, but where else are his footballers going to learn better football? And where else are the sport fans of the Klamath Basin going to see this first-rate team of the entire United States demonstrate its goods?

Compton is called by many the "farm club" of University of Southern California. This may well be because they have one of USC's greats heading the coaching staff in Tay Brown. Three former Southern Cal graduates are assistants with Ken Carpenter, Chuck Williams and Frank McDaniel all working behind Brown.

The Targets were voted the nation's number two college by a leading football poll last fall, but many agrarians experts gave the top spot in junior college competition to the Compton squad.

Stanford Upends Buckeyes

By CHRIS EDMONDS
 PALO ALTO, Calif. — Stanford's upstart Indians living up to their chief's blithe midweek prediction, clamped the shackles on All America Hopalong Cassidy Saturday and made a first period touchdown stand up for a 6-0 upset victory over eighth-ranked Ohio State in an intercollegiate football game.

It was nationally televised. A slim crowd of 28,000 saw the Indians score the first time they had the ball. A sneaker pass from Jerry Gustafson to Paul Camera climaxed a 72-yard drive.

Stanford completely outplayed the bewildered Buckeyes throughout the first half.

Chunky Chuck Taylor, the optimistic Stanford coach and himself a former All America guard for the Indians, said early in the week he felt Cassady "could be had," and that he had devised a "gambling" defense which he figured would turn the trick. It did.

Cassady, an All America halfback as a junior last year, was held to only 11 yards in the first half and 26 in the second. The Indians hamstring him virtually every time he had the ball.

Showing nothing in the first half, the Buckeyes came to life in the second with four scoring threats, but lacked the punch to cross the lightning Indians' goal line.

Jerry Hafkrader and Don Vico were unable to make up the Cassidy slack although Ohio State controlled the ball most of the second half. The Indians were tough in the clutch and stopped all threats.

The Stanford touchdown came from the opening kickoff on a 12-play 73-yard march. Gustafson, sharp as a razor with his passes, was masterful in his team direction.

He used the bull-like rushes of fullback Bill Tarr, last year's Pacific Coast Conference running champion, to complement his aerial game with outstanding success.

Tarr, stocky 190-pound senior, ripped the Buckeye tackles and tumbled and Gustafson passed as though equipped with a bomb-sight throughout the drive.

The payoff was a perfectly executed deceptive pass to Camera, all alone in the corner of the end zone. For the Buckeyes, the drive slipped through the middle of the line without the football, completely fooling the Bucks. The nearest defender was a good 15 yards away when camera caught the ball.

Bill Rafferty's conversion try was blocked.

Stanford scoring: Touchdown—Camera (1, pass from Gustafson).

Herald and News Sports

Football Scoreboard

COLLEGE FOOTBALL
 By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
 (Friday night)

Detroit 41, Wichita 0
 Washburn 19, Omaha 13
 Missouri Valley 33, Milliken 21
 Iowa Teachers 21, Drake 14
 Miami (Fla.) 34, Florida State 0
 Chattanooga 10, Mississippi Southern 0
 Southern California 19, Texas 7

LAST
 Army 35, Pennsylvania State 6
 Princeton 20, Columbia 7
 Colgate 21, Cornell 6
 Holy Cross 29, Dartmouth 21
 Harvard 60, Massachusetts 6
 Yale 27, Brown 20
 Vermont 34, Maine 0
 Scranton 20, Temple 6
 Main 34, Vermont 0
 Holy Cross 29, Dartmouth 21
 West Virginia 46, Wake Forest 0
 Tufts 33, Wesleyan 25

SOUTH
 Duke 21, Tennessee 0
 West Virginia 46, Wake Forest 0
 No. Carolina 25, North Carolina 18
 George Washington 13, Virginia 0
 Tulane 21, Northwestern 0
 Richmond 21, VMI 0
 Miss 33, North Texas 0
 Georgia Tech 20, SMU 7
 Va Tech 14, Wm&Mary 7
 Clemson 26, Georgia 7
 Miss State 33, Memphis State 0
 Navy 20, So. Carolina 0
 Maryland 20, Baylor 0
 Duke 21, Tennessee 0
 North Carolina 25, North Carolina State 18
 Virginia Tech 14, William and Mary 7
 Clemson 26, Georgia 7
 George Washington 13, Virginia 0

MIDWEST
 Purdue 7, Minnesota 14
 Wisconsin 37, Iowa 16
 Nebraska 16, Kan State 0
 Utah 20, Missouri 14
 Texas Tech 24, Okla A&M 6
 Illinois 40, Iowa State 7
 Michigan 14, Michigan State 7
 Notre Dame 19, Indiana 0
 Miami (Ohio) 13, Xavier 12
 Miami (Ohio) 13, Xavier 12

SOUTHWEST
 TCU 26, Arkansas 0
 Texas A&M 21, Houston 3
 La. State 20, Rice 20 (tie)
 Colorado 12, Kansas 0
 Vanderbilt 21, Alabama 6
 Kentucky 28, Villanova 0

FAR WEST
 Washington 19, Oregon 7
 Wyoming 21, Utah State 13
 Stanford 6, Ohio State 0
 Idaho 12, Kansas 0
 UCLA 55, Wash State 0
 California 27, Penn 7
 Southern Oregon 20, Portland State 6
 Lewis and Clark 41, Central Washington 13
 Idaho State 28, Mont State 14
 Montana 27, Brigham Young 13
 Colo A&M 20, Denver 19
 Davidson 6, Citadel 2
 Eastern Oregon 27, Oregon Tech 6
 Washington 28, Dayton 13
 NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE
 Washn 31, Philadelphia 30
 Baltimore 28, Detroit 13

CANADIAN PRO
 Winnipeg 12, Edmonton 0
 Montreal 30, Toronto 28

Eastern Oregon Wins First Fray From OTI

The number seven proved "lucky" for Coach Archie Dunsmoor's Eastern Oregon College of Education football machine Saturday night, as the hard-hitting Mountaineers swamped Rex Hunsaker's Owls, 27-6, on Modoc Field in the first Oregon Collegiate Conference action for both teams. OTI had dumped EOCE in six previous meetings. Last night's loss also marks the first time that a Tech team has been held to a single touchdown by the La Grande school.

A blistering running attack, sparked by Dick Quinn, Bill West, Arlen Smith and Terry Ziegenhagen, left the Owl defenses reeling. Conversely, OTI backs were thwarted all evening by an impregnable EOCE forward wall.

Neither club could score in the first quarter, and most action centered near the mid-field stripe. The Mountaineers broke into the scoring column early in the second quarter for their initial score, added two more touchdowns in the third frame, and capped off their offensive efforts in the fourth quarter with a single TD. OTI's lone six points came in the waning minutes of the final frame.

EOCE's first score came with 11:25 remaining in the second quarter, after Terry Ziegenhagen's first entry into paydirt had been nullified by a 15-yard holding penalty six plays earlier. The Mountaineers, penalized back to the Owl 36 sprang Dick Quinn loose on a pitchout around right end which was good for 21. The drive played later on a cutback over center. Ziegenhagen scampered 12 yards for the first score of the game. Dick Quinn's place kick was good, and EOCE led 7-0. The first half ended with Ziegenhagen intercepting a Thomas pass on the OTI 21.

The Mountaineers struck swiftly for their second touchdown early in the third quarter. The Mile High Campus team failed to gain on three plays after the second half kickoff, and Dave Thompson punted to the EOCE 34. Seven plays later, fullback Bill West bulldozed his way through the willing Tech line from the 11-yard line into paydirt. The drive was good for 66 yards with Dick Quinn, Ziegenhagen and West packing the mail. Longest run in the drive was a 20-yard cutback effort by Ziegenhagen. Again in halfback Quinn's placement split the uprights, and the La Grande contingent led, 14-0. The EOCE score came with 10:45 remaining in the third quarter.

Oregon Tech's efforts after the ensuing kickoff again were to no avail, and Hunsaker's crew punted to the EOCE 15, where the swivel-hipped Quinn returned the leather to the 34. The Mountaineers racked up a quick first down on the following series of downs were forced to punt to the Owl nine. Again OTI's offensive efforts were in vain, and Stonehill's punt was gathered in by another EOCE speedster. Arlen Smith, who ripped and spun his way from the Owl 32 for the Mountaineer's third TD with 3:25 remaining in the third quarter. Quinn's placement was true, and EOCE enjoyed their widest lead of the night, 21-0.

The Mountaineers' final touchdown came with 11:40 remaining in the fourth quarter. Dick Quinn, on the first play following a punt exchange, took the ball on a pitchout from quarterback Bob Brown and romped 64 yards around right end through the entire OTI crew for the La Grande team's lastudent into paydirt. Quinn's try-for-punt was blocked by Cal Smith.

The fighting spirit of the Owls revived in the final quarter. Following Quinn's TD jump, Lowell Komba kicked off to the Tech 15, where Frank Radford returned to the 25. Three plays gained OTI five yards, and Dave Thomas lofted a 40-yard punt to the EOCE 30. Quinn, on another sparkling display of broken field running, returned the pigskin to the OTI 43. On the next play, the Mountaineers fumbled, and alert Charles Hopman, Tech center, recovered on the OTI 49. Eleven plays later, Frank Dunn crunched over from the three for the final score of the game. The drive saw Dave Thomas, Harry Jul and Dunn smashing the EOCE line for three consecutive first downs, and a successful 12-yard aerial effort. Thomas' kick fell short.

OTI's only touchdown came with 3:25 remaining in the final quarter. In defeat the Owls were a fighting ball club, but could not cope with speedy ground attack launched by Dunsmoor's team. Dick Quinn, whose individual efforts for the night totaled 140 yards, was the spark-plug for the La Grande team. His rump around end and delayed bucks through the line broke the Owl's back. Another sophomore, Terry Ziegenhagen, was an unstoppable dynamo when once through the line.

The Mountaineers' potential for the next three years will be felt when considering that Quinn, Smith and Ziegenhagen are only sophomores. Bill West and Elvin Daggert are juniors in this year. Both performed well in last night's contest. Coach Dunsmoor's offense, designed to spring his speedsters through the center and around the ends, will definitely be seen in OCC action this season.

Linemen who gave good account of themselves in the EOCE week-end contest, Coach Dunsmoor's offense, designed to spring his speedsters through the center and around the ends, will definitely be seen in OCC action this season.

"Sugar Jet" Smith, who usually enjoys a good evening at the expense of opposing linemen, found his total efforts in three tries ending with a minus nine yards.

The Mountaineers' linemen were a hard-charging crew who stopped all of the OTI backs, with the exception of Willie Stinson, who totalled 104 yards in 12 efforts.

	OTI	EOCE
First downs rushing	5	12
First downs passing	4	0
First downs penalty	1	0
Total first downs	10	12
Yards gained rushing	201	326
Yards lost rushing	47	61
Net yards rushing	154	265
Yards gained passing	97	26
Yards lost passing	0	0
Net yards passing	97	26
Total net yardage	251	291
Passes completed	11	10
Passes intercepted	4	4
Passes incomplete	11	10
Yards gained by punts	30	23
Fumbles lost	1	4
Touchdowns	0	2
Conversions	1	0
Points	6	27

Herb Score, Bill Virdon Lead Rookies

ST. LOUIS — Herb Score, southpaw strikeout specialist of the Cleveland Indians, and Bill Virdon, respected outfielder of the St. Louis Cardinals, Saturday were named as the major league's rookies of the year in a poll of sports writers conducted by the Sporting News.

The national baseball weekly reported that Score received the votes of 71 of 103 writers in the American League while Virdon was favored in the National League on 57 of 82 ballots.

The 22-year-old Score set a new strikeout record for a rookie with 214 this season to top the old mark of 221 set by Grover Cleveland Alexander in 1911. He had a 16-10 record. Virdon, 24, had a .281 batting average with 18 doubles, six triples and 17 homers. He drove in 69 runs.

Redskins Post Win Over Eagles

PHILADELPHIA — The Washington Redskins scored four touchdowns—three in the first half and 17 seconds in a fanatical third period—to upset the highly-favored Philadelphia Eagles 31-30 in a bitterly fought National Football League game before 31,891 fans at Connie Mack Stadium Saturday night.

The Redskins, who last weekend upset the defending champion Cleveland Browns, trailed 16-0 in the third quarter before they came to life.

Henley Wins Over Panthers

Henley returned to the victory trail after last week's 6-0 loss to Merrill by dumping a county B-league power, Chiloquin's Panthers Saturday afternoon at Henley by a 14-0 margin.

Joe Arant scored the first touchdown for the Hornets on an off tackle slant from 10 yards out, and Dale Searcy tallied the other with an end sweep from the nine yard line. The Henley extra points came on a pass from Gary Cunningham to BEI Miller, and a kick by Arant.

Jasper Strunk and Lee Roberts led the defensive game for Al Fairchild's Hornets, while Arant and Searcy paved the offensive thrusts. For Chiloquin Dick Siemens led both the offense and defense charges.

Malin Mustangs Top Bonanza '11'

Malin, the pre-season favorite to win the County B-League football championship this year opened their counting schedule Friday on their home field by dumping Bonanza's Mustangs by a 21-6 margin.

The Mustangs were in complete control all the way, but the electrifying play of the game came in the second quarter when Bonanza's halfback Dick Burnett hauled in a Malin punt on his own 16 yard line and rambled 90 yards for a touchdown.

Shaw, Ameche Pave Way For Baltimore Win

BALTIMORE — Rookie quarterback George Shaw passed and fullback Alan Ameche ran like old pros Saturday night for the Baltimore Colts to spring their second straight upset in the National Football League by a 28-13 score over the Detroit Lions.

Shaw, the bonus pick of the Colts from Oregon, passed for two touchdowns, and Ameche, the first draft choice from Wisconsin, wheeled along the turf for two more to the delight of 40,030, the biggest home crowd in four seasons of NFL play in Baltimore.

It was the first time in six games that Baltimore had beaten Detroit. The defending winners of the Western Division were absorbing their second straight setback in the young season, the first time it has happened in six campaigns of coaching by Buddy Parker.

The Lions were behind from the beginning when Ameche rambled over for two yards at the end of an 81-yard drive, and the new star got off the deck, particularly in the second half.

Ameche also sprinted 58 yards through the core of the Detroit line in the second period and wound up gaining 152 yards. Last week in his pro debut he ran 78 yards the first time he carried the ball and rushed for totals of 194 yards to be averaging more than eight yards per carry in two games.

Detroit scoring: Touchdowns—Dibble 2 (44, pass; 2, pass). Conversion: Walker.
 Baltimore scoring: Touchdowns—Ameche 2 (1/2, run; 55, run); Mutscheller (15, pass); Colteryan (3, pass). Conversions: Rechichar 4.

Meeting Called For Owl Hooters

All Owl Hooters are reminded of a very important meeting Monday evening at the Winema Hotel starting at 6:30 according to president John Schubert.

Terps Roar To 20-6 Win Over Baylor

WACO, Tex. — Maryland's hard-bitten Terrapins, with stocky Frank Tamburello cleaving Baylor with shotgun passing and backed by a defense as tough as a Texas steer, showed why it was No. 1 in the nation Saturday night as it roared to a 20-6 victory.

Tamburello passed for two touchdowns and quarterbacked the Terps in a way reminiscent of the great field generals of the immediate past.

The first Terrapin score was on a 27-yard throw by Tamburello which plant wingman Russ Dennis snared on the Baylor three and stepped across.

The next one was on an 18-yard pass by Dave Nuz, who took over briefly for Tamburello. Howard Darr snagged the pass and scored without being touched.

Maryland got its final touchdown in the fourth period on a 4-yard pitch by Tamburello to Don Healy, standing in the end zone.

Teena Off

WOMEN'S CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP
 Donna Sproat made a successful defense of her Women's Club Championship title Friday at Reames Golf and Country Club by beating Luster Neresh 3 and 2 in their 36 hole match.

Other results found Ellen Farnes winning the first flight honors from Anne Horne 4 and 3; Margie Hemmrich defeating Murel Hosper in the second flight and Ethyl Merkin downing Eve Ashley in the third flight. Consolation round winner was Mildred Soukup in Class A with Ruth Higgins in the Class B champion.

More Sports On Pages 10-11-12

ATTENTION HUNTERS!
 The Order of DEMOLAY
 Needs Your Deer Hides for a Worthy Cause!
 PHONE 3517
 for PICK-UP or Leave at Sealer's, Inc.

SAVE 3 WAYS ON NEW 1955 Pontiacs
 By Making Your Purchase Now

SAVE 1. We've reduced the prices on our present 1955 models. You save the 1st years depreciation that you normally take in buying a new car.

SAVE 2. Your present car will never be worth as much in trade as it is now. Lower prices plus more for your car makes a deal you can't turn down.

SAVE 3. The prices of all 1956 Pontiacs will be higher. Due to the guaranteed wage in the steel industry and other factors.

We've A Complete Line IN STOCK - CALL FOR A DEMONSTRATION
 ALSO: We have several 1955 company owned cars, at very attractive prices.

PARKER PONTIAC
 606 So. 6th Ph. 8124

The Big Beat of BUDDY MORROW and His Orchestra
 Oct. 5 - ARMORY