It was near summerlike weather in much of the nation yesterday, with record temperatures for the date in many cities. It was 92 in Glasgow, Mont., and 90 at Williston, N. D. The day's high reading was 101 at Gila Bend, Ariz.

The cool air today was confined to the Northern Plateau and northern Rockies. Temperatures dropped to the 40s and upper 30s. Snow fell at Mullen Pass, Idaho, which reported 29 above.

Nurses To Hold Annual Convention

With the challenge ahead of its second 50 years of service to the people of Oregon and to the nursing profession, the Oregon State Nurses Association is holdings its 51st annual convention in Portland, October 11, 12 and 13 at the Multnomah Hotel. The theme of the convention is "Quo Vadis?"

Concurrently, the Oregon State Student Nurses Association is scheduling its 14th annual convention on October 11 and 12. Programs of each group are planned so that nurses and student nurses may attend each other's sessions.

Every phase of nursing will be covered in section meetings—general duty, private duty, public health, industrial, office, surgical, educational and institutional administrators and special groups.

Important business to be presented will include the proposal that the existing professional nurse practice act be repealed in the 1957 session of the Oregon legislature and that a new law be drafted which will insure among other things that it shall be mandatory for any person practicing professional nursing in Oregon for compensation be qualified and licensed, that grounds for revocation, suspension, or disciplinary action by the board be more clearly defined, and that a section on the nursing education program be added to the law to define the powers of the board to survey and accredit schools or professional and practical nursing.

A growing awareness of their citizenship responsibility in other fields than nursing has led to the scheduling of a talk on "The Professional Woman's Responsibility in Government" by Edith Green, Oregon Congresswoman from Washington, D.C.

Guest speaker from the American Nurses Association in New York City will be Mrs. Bertha Byrne, associate executive secretary, in charge of professional counseling and placement.

Other speakers include: Arthur Gravatt of Willamette University on "Our Changing Cultural Patterns;" Dr. Harold Lillywhite of the Crippled Children's Division, University of Oregon on "Interpersonal Communications;" and Dr. Richard M. Steiner, Pastor of the First Unitarian Church, Portland. Greetings will be extended the convention by the Honorable Paul Patterson, governor; Honorable Fred Peterson, mayor of Portland, and Miss Elizabeth Kenyon, president of the Oregon State Nurses Association, District No. 1 of Portland.

Attending the convention from Klamath Falls are Mrs. Margaret Strode, president of District 8, Mrs. Lillian Shaw and Mrs. Dorothy Crosby, general duty section, and Mrs. Esther Hunt, private duty.

Canada Expected To Urge A-Ties

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Diplomats looked today for Canada to urge closer U.N. ties for the proposed atoms-for-peace agency than those suggested by the United States.

They predicted Canadian Delegate Paul Martin would take this stand in his appearance in the atomic energy debate before the U.N. Assembly's top Political Committee this afternoon.

The United States, with British support, has insisted that the body should be similar to a specialized agency and not too closely linked to the U.N.

Observers recalled that Canada's Foreign Secretary Leater B. Pearson and other Ottawa government leaders have stressed repeatedly that the U.N. should not be bypassed when the proposed atomic agency is finally set up.

The United States, Canada and seven other powers have drawn up a draft statute for the agency and distributed it to all governments for comment. The draft has left open the question of U.N. ties.

India and a number of smaller countries want the agency subject to recommendations of the U.N. Assembly.

TYPING ERROR

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Four boys escaped from Kentucky Village stole a car last March 13 and wrecked it. The village superintendent did his duty and swore to warrants against them. The April grand jury did its duty and returned a grand larceny indictment. The superintendent didn't know—possibly isn't aware yet—that he was "indicted". Embarrassed court officials said yesterday the typing error will be corrected.
