UAL Changes 'Family Days'

Starting today, "family plan fares" which enable a passenger's family to fly at half the regular ticket costs are in effect Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday rather than on Mondays, Tuesdays and Wednesdays on flights of United Air Lines.

Introduced in 1948, the plan makes it possible for the purchaser of a full fare, first-class ticket to take his or her spouse and all children under 22 years of age at half the regular one-way fare.

Cy Palmer, Klamath Falls manager, said the substitution of Thursday for Monday is the result of changes in mid-week travel patterns since the plan's adoption. He noted that approximately 280,000 persons used the plan last year.

Malin High Names New Publication

MALIN — Pony Tales was the name chosen for the Malin High School paper for this year.

The first edition was distributed Wednesday, October 5. The new and returning teachers were introduced and coming events announced.

The school's public speaking contest has been set for Thursday, October 27, to name winners to participate in the Leadership Conference to be held in Malin on November 5.

Pony Tales will be published every six weeks.

Squeaky Window Foils Burglar

DUNSMUIR — Leland Roy Schnee 18, transient, is serving 60 days in the Siskiyou County Jail at Judge A. A. Smith's court here on a charge of petty theft.

According to Dunsmuir police, Schnee was apprehended while attempting to steal groceries from the kitchen of Hotel Dunsmuir. A squeaky window alerted hotel employees who called the officers.

Farrow Prepares Church Theme

"The World Wide Mission of the Church" will be the theme of guest Minister Apostle Percy E. Farrow, a member of the Council of Twelve of "The Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints," when he speaks Thursday night, October 13, at the local Branch of the church located at Ninth and Plum streets.

Apostle Farrow comes to Klamath Falls from his home in Independence, Missouri, world headquarters of the church. He is apostle in charge of the Northwest Mission which includes seven states and the four prairie provinces of Canada and the Hawaiian Islands, where he visited last year.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting, opening with a song service at 7:30 p.m. and preaching at 7:45 p.m.

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS
Margaret Truman when asked if it was true that she planned to announce her engagement soon: "I'm sorry, but it isn't."

University of Connecticut sociologist Walter C. McKain speaking to chamber of commerce executives as Michigan State University: "The suburbanite thrives on duplicated scenery. His life is one long series of 200-yard dashes."

Gambler Micky Cohen explaining upon his release from the penitentiary why he planned to go into private business: "I don't think anybody would hire me."

Canada's Paul Martin, discussing progress toward establishment of an international atomic energy agency in the United Nations: "Slower than hoped for but much better than expected."

Henry H. Green of Atlanta, who withdrew as a candidate for commander of the 40 and 8 on the dispute with the American Legion over activities of the 40 and 8: "We're men. We all love the legion. Let's stop taking our light to the newspapers or the public and settle this among ourselves."

Dr. Wesley Wiksell, Louisiana State University speech professor, speaking at the convention of the Systems and Procedures Association of America in Detroit: "Our schools have courses in reading, in writing and in speaking. But it's seldom that you find a course in listening."

Mayor Richard J. Daley of Chicago on Adlai E. Stevenson's presidential chances: "I'm still for Adlai and I believe Ave (Gov. Averell Harriman of New York) will be, too. I believe that in the next few weeks we'll see powerful figures from all parts of the country coming out for Adlai."
