Lane, Hutch Seeking To Improve Cardinals

By BOB PARKIN
United Press Sports Writer

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UP)—General Manager Frank Lane and field manager Fred Hutchinson, two new St. Louis Cardinals, today laid plans for improving the seventh-place club's status in 1956.

Hutchinson, signed Wednesday by Lane who has less than a week's seniority, said the Cardinals "cannot help but improve with so much young talent."

"We'll have a better team in 1956, one that will ultimately be a pennant contender," he said.

In fact, having been an American League with Detroit and on the Pacific Coast the past season, Hutchinson hasn't seen most of the team's young stars.

He said he wanted to reserve judgment until next spring "when I'll be working with the players" and sees what Lane turns up with trades.

However, Terry Moore, and Johnny Hopp, two former Redbird heroes, also were signed Wednesday as coaches, and Hutchinson said he considered his own work with youngsters at Seattle, where his team won the PCL title, as most helpful.

Lane, who signed Hutchinson's two-year contract calls for "about $30,000 a year," said, "He's the type of manager I feel will lead the Cardinals' fine young players into a higher position for two years and possibly more."

Hutchinson said his knowledge of the Cardinals roster mainly is confined to "Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst, fellows like that—considering there aren't too many fellows like that."

He expected to know more about the crop of young players after a trip to Havana with Lane next weekend when, among others, they will see Wilmer (Vinegar Bend) Mizell, who is pitching winter ball in Cuba.

The tactful Hutchinson said he will coach the younger pitchers and "suggest thing to the older fellows."

"The older fellows, the Musials, they can set their own pace." The new manager said he will teach the youngsters their lessons "the hard way, if necessary."

"The only way you can overcome mistakes by young players is by repeated corrections. If they repeat the mistakes, it's because you haven't corrected them enough."

Sooners Eye 23rd Grid Win

NORMAN, Okla. (UP)—Third-ranked Oklahoma, which hasn't lost a conference game in eight years, catches Kansas in its football web here Saturday with half-back Tommy McDonald expected to spin more touchdowns.

McDonald has threaded through the baffled tacklers of North Carolina, Pittsburgh and Texas to gain a reputation as Oklahoma's most likely All-American candidate.

The Albuquerque, N.M., junior, has evaded numerous non-conference tacklers while Oklahoma stretched her victory string to 22. He's likely to teach Kansas a thing or two as the Sooners open their Big Seven competition. They are solid favorites.

McDonald, a trim 5-foot-9 speedster, has tallied five of Oklahoma's nine touchdowns so far this season. He has averaged seven yards per carry in 35 trips with the ball.

Coach Bud Wilkinson of Oklahoma said McDonald's success can be attributed at least in part to the fact that scouts were scared of "right halfback" Robert Burris.

"Burris scared the scouts a lot. He probably got the defense drawn in a little for McDonald," he said.

Wilkinson has insisted the blocking of fullback Billy Pricer has been as important to Oklahoma's great grinders as anything else. And Pricer, another junior, has averaged 5.7 yards in 22 carries.

Burris, brother of two previous All-American players from Oklahoma, has scored three touchdowns while running up a 4.4-yard average in 31 carries.

Missouri plays at Iowa State and Colorado at Kansas State on Saturday. Nebraska goes to Pittsburgh for a non-conference meeting with the team Oklahoma squelched 26-14.

In the Missouri Valley, hapless Oklahoma A.M. Robert Burris, in the shadows at Stillwater, Okla., to engage Houston in a conference game.

Detroit plays at Boston College Friday night, and on Saturday Tulsa goes to Wyoming and Wichita to South Dakota State.

WASHINGTON (UP)—Herb Heft, former Washington and St. Louis sports writer, has been named public relations director of the Washington Senators baseball club, succeeding Howard T. Fox Jr., who has been promoted to traveling secretary of the club.

SAN JOSE, Calif. (UP)—The Boston Red Sox have sold their San Jose farm club of the California State League to a San Jose advertising agency executive and former publicist, financial terms not disclosed.

Coach Chuck Mallory, who bought the club, will take over Jan. 1, 1956.

LONDON (UP)—A track team from Prague defeated London's track team, 110 points to 108 Wednesday, but Emil Zatopek, the Czech's triple Olympic champion, lost the 10,000 meter race to Gordon Pirie, Ken Norris, also of Britain, finished second while Zatopek was third.

NWL Directors To Meet Saturday

YAKIMA, Wash. (UP)—Expanding the Northwest Baseball League to an 8-team circuit will be considered by directors at a meeting here Saturday, league president Babe Hollingbery said Wednesday night.

Hollingbery said the directors will wind up business of the 1955 season and make plans for 1956, including bringing an eighth team into the league.

He said several cities have shown an interest in joining the league, which had only seven teams in 1955.

The Saturday program will include division of the 1955 gate, adoption of a rookie rule, umpires and the league presidency.

Hockey Tactics Get Tough

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK (UP)—Ice hockey may not be your favorite sporting dish but a young man named Phil Watson is worthy of notice today as he tries to pump life into the long-recumbent New York Rangers with a training regimen that would do credit to the Marines.

The Rangers may be identified most brilliantly as a long-time member of the National Hockey League. They haven't been in the Stanley Cup playoffs in five years, haven't won them since 1939-40 and haven't taken a regular season title since the 1941-42 campaign.

Watson, taking over this season as coach, decided it was time to get tough.

His tactics make such dugout dictators as Joe McCarthy, Burt Shotton and Billy Southworth look like amiable evangelists.

First of all he instituted a set of training regulations that would do credit to the Vassar field hockey team, provided the girls would stand for them. As example, get a load of these rules:

1. In bed at 11:30 on nights before games and at midnight all other times.
2. No brew "at all" during the season and players are forbidden to enter a tavern even to make a phone call.
3. No butter on toast.
4. No water the afternoon before a game.
5. No oranges on the bench or soft drinks in the dressing room.
6. No smoking in the dressing room; not even by visitors.

Any infraction costs $100 with the additional stipulation that if a player gets overweight he is fined a dollar a pound per day for each day he remains overweight.

Needless to say, this has the players who once rode a lackadaisical gravy train jumpy than Mark Twain's famous frog.

They have become so keyed up that fist fights among their own numbers are not uncommon. When one breaks out, Watson sternly turns his back and lets them go at it.

"I want them fighting mad," he chuckles. "Maybe they'll take it out on the rest of the teams in the league."

He does everything possible to needle them. When they have a poor practice session, Phil, wearing the only watch on the ice, merely sets the hands back a half hour. When they complained about two-day workouts, Watson cut it down to one-a-day—but twice as long.

It got them so doggedly tense and ornery that they went out and flattened their first two opponents the Chicago Black Hawks and the seven-time champion Detroit Red Wings.

American League Improves At Gate

CHICAGO (UP)—The American League could thank a red-hot pennant race and the Kansas City Athletics today for an 11.3 per cent increase in attendance during the 1955 season.

The eight league teams drew 8,942,971 fans, an increase of 1,020,607 over 1954. President Will Harridge announced Wednesday.

Kansas City's increase actually amounted to more than the league total. The Athletics drew 1,393,034, a whopping 78.1 per cent increase over the 304,666 fans they drew in Philadelphia in 1954.

Three other clubs, New York, Detroit and Boston, also showed increases over 1954 and for the first time in history six clubs drew more than one-million fans at home. Only Washington and Baltimore failed to at least that many.
