

OF LOCAL INTEREST is the wedding of John James Gillfillan to Nedra Beau Hirling in McMinnville Trinity Lutheran Church. The Rev. Getzendaner, officiant at the late summer nuptials, read the double-ring evening service before a background of pink and white floral arrangements.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hirling, McMinnville. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillfillan, Klamath Falls, and his father attended him as best man. Both are pictured above with the nuptial couple. —Photo by Gilliam

GILFILLAN-HIRNING VOWS SAID IN McMINNVILLE CHURCH RITES

GREAT POCOHONTAS, state of California, Mrs. Mamie Bodenhammer, Redondo Beach, was honored during her recent week of official visits in the Weed area. Her visit to Iola Council, McCloud was October 6; and to Wabeno Council, Weed, on the 7th. She is a member of Winnebago Council, Redondo Beach.

John James Gillfillan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Gillfillan, 1919 Melrose, claimed Nedra Beau Hirling as his bride in a late summer wedding which took place in McMinnville Trinity Lutheran Church. The evening double-ring service was read by the Rev. Getzendaner.

Pink and white was chosen as the color scheme for the church and reception decor by the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Hirling, McMinnville. Her father gave her in marriage.

Her channel length gown of nylon net and lace was styled with an Elizabethan collar and elbow sleeves, she carried a large cascade of pink and white roses for her bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Roscoe Williams, Portland, matron of honor, and bridesmaid, Shirley Anderson, bride's cousin from Woodburn, both wore waist-length emerald green dresses of crystalite and their bouquets were cascades of pink roses.

The bridegroom's father was best man; and ushering were Del Woodcock, Medford; and Russell Anderson, cousin of the bride, Woodburn.

The reception was in the Fire-place Room of the First Presbyterian Church.

Six year old cousins of the bride, David Whitaker and Jana Engle, passed the bridegroom's cake.

The couple honeymooned in Seattle and British Columbia—and are now at home, 1946 1/2 Villard, Eugene, where the new Mrs. Gillfillan teaches at Howard School in the city school system. Gillfillan will continue his studies

BABY SHOWER

KLAMATH AGENCY—A series of entertaining games in the "baby" theme highlighted an evening shower recently given for Mrs. Bennett Foster by co-hostesses Mrs. Joseph Jackson and Mrs. F. D. Wilder at the Wilder residence.

Prizes were awarded for all games at the party with the exception of one—which was reserved by the hostesses for the winning guess submitted at the shower—naming the date and hour closest to the actual arrival time of the "expected" new member of the Foster family.

Friends who attended or sent gifts were Mrs. Bob Mezger and Mrs. John Hall, Klamath Falls; Mrs. Frank DiUlio, Mrs. George Hobbs, Mrs. Friedman Kirk, Mrs. Edmund Stanton, Mrs. Paul Heron, Mrs. John Mathis, Mrs. Don Clark and Mrs. Frank Bell, Chiloquin; Mrs. Henry Spicer, Modoc Point; Mrs. W. Palmer, Mrs. Conrad Sheiland, Mrs. Joseph Brewer, Mrs. Victor Sisson, Mrs. Alice Spencer, Sharon Wilder, Barbara and Phyllis Sisson, Mrs. Rollo Moore, Mrs. Van Kleeck, Mrs. John Vannetti and Mrs. Billie Crawford.

Walter Smiths To Spend Month In Nova Scotia

LANGELL VALLEY — Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith left Klamath Falls by plane October 10 at 5:10 p.m. to spend a month visiting at her former home in Nova Scotia with her sister, three brothers and many relatives and friends. Their last trip was by auto in July 1923—and took 11 days from here to Nova Scotia. This time they arrived on October 12, about 5 days less travel time.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith met in France during World War I. He was in the Army, and she was a nurse in the Harvard Surgical Unit. They were married in Bishop, California, July 20, 1921, and lived there until moving to Langell Valley in the spring of 1928.

Son Walter, Jr., his wife and four children live in Langell Valley; son Dick and wife are at Fort Knox, Kentucky; and daughter, Mary Ann, her husband, Lewis Parsons, and daughter Deanna, live at Red Rock.

On the return trip the Smiths will stop at Boston with friends and will also meet with other members of their overseas units for a reunion. She plans to visit the two hospitals where she trained—the Boston General—and the Mental Hospital at Waverley.

Shower Fetes Recent Bride

BLY—Recent bride, Mrs. David Clemens, was feted at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening September 28, at the home of Mrs. Lewis Cobb.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Lewis Cobb, Mrs. Carl Chase, Mrs. James Briley, Mrs. Lawrence Little and Mrs. Jim Harter.

Senior girls of Bly High, assistant hostesses, served refreshments and conducted the game session. Winners in games were Barbara Polson, Klamath Falls; and Mrs. Thomas Thompson.

The guest list included over 100 names with a large percentage attending. Out of town guests were Mrs. Bill Jones, Lila Nission and Barbara Polson, Klamath Falls; and an aunt of the honoree, Mrs. Frank Gabriel, Olene.

Shower Honors Mrs. B. Skelton

Mrs. Boyd Skelton was honored guest at a layette shower, September 16, at the home of Mrs. Florence Fanning, 2301 Eberlein.

Approximately 25 friends and relatives were invited to arrive at 7 p.m., and as they were greeted at the door, each was given an artificial flower holding a number for the special prize drawing. Bonnie Thompson's flower carried the lucky number. Other prizes were won by Charlotte Carr and Rose Smith.

The honoree was presented with a natural corsage of baby roses—buds early in the evening. After she opened her gifts, refreshments were served.

MR. AND MRS. RONALD HAWKINS, who were married in England, March 20, 1954, have bought a home in Malin, which they will occupy after the first of the year.

Mrs. Hawkins arrived in Klamath Falls by plane September 17, 1955, from Nottingham, England, where she was born and reared. She is the former Joan Pearson, daughter of Mrs. L. Pearson, Nottingham.

Hawkins returned to the states in October 1954, after four years with the U.S. armed forces in England. He received his discharge a month later. His old job with the Lovaness Lumber Company in Malin was waiting for him when he returned; and he is presently employed by that firm.

He is the son of Mrs. Jack Story, who also lives in Malin.

SOJOURNERS

A large number of Sojourners and their guests met for a no-hostess luncheon at the Willard Hotel on Wednesday, October 12, following the luncheon a short business meeting was held and plans for the fall dinner-dance were announced by chairman, Mrs. Mary Alm.

It will be held at Club Cal-Ore on October 22 and all members and associate members of Sojourners and newcomers to Klamath Falls are invited to attend. For reservations call Mrs. Ron Fisher at 8970. Additional members of the committee are Mrs. Grant Bailey, Mrs. Sain Jones, Mrs. Sayde Libby and Mrs. H. G. Day.

President, Mrs. Don Groves, welcomed new members: Mrs. John McNamara, Mrs. George Nicholson, Mrs. Margaret Halliday, Mrs. Art Haskins, Mrs. Wilbur Roush and Mrs. Violet Rauch. Guests greeted were Mrs. Alice Cyr, Mrs. Martha Sidel, Mrs. William Cui-
