A FAMILY REUNION at the Mt. Laki home of Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Chambers, was a gathering of three sisters, their brother and members of their families. For one sister, Mrs. Eula Mae Arnold, from Sapulpa, Oklahoma, it was the first time in almost 20 years that she had seen her brother, Homer Williams, from Grants Pass; and a sister, Mrs. Vernon L. Webb, Edmonds, Washington. Mrs. Arnold arrived by plane September 6 and left on the 25th to return to her position at Wright's nursing home in Sapulpa — of which she is supervisor. Mrs. Chambers is the third sister, and hostess for the get-together. In the picture, from the left, are Mrs. Chambers, Mrs. Arnold and Homer Williams. —Photo by Floyd

"Rainbow Dreams" Is Theme For RFG No. 57 Installation

"Rainbow Dreams" was the theme used by Emilee Ann Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Z. Carter, 421 Alameda, Klamath Falls, when she was installed worthy adviser of Klamath Falls Assembly No. 57, Order of Rainbow for Girls. The recent ceremony took place in the Klamath Masonic Temple.

Installing officers were Nancy Hopson, retiring worthy adviser; Linda Williams, marshal; Roberta Wade, chaplain; Edith Wallin, recorder; and Mrs. R. C. Hopson, musician.

Other officers installed were: Peggy Wicks, worthy associate adviser; Shirley Barleen, charity; Jackie Peugh, hope; Wanda West, faith; Jean Morgan, treasurer; Corinne Ackerman, chaplain; Sandra Stone, drill leader; Sue Lund, love; Mona Chenoweth, religion; Patty Wicks, nature; Rosalind Keller, immortality; Doris Hodges, fidelity; Ronnie Owens, patriotism; Carole Horn, service; Donna Lee Carter, confidential observer; Rita Carr, outer observer; Betty Clifford, choir director; and Sally Brown, musician.

Each color station carried a fan in the color of her station—other officers carried fans in all the colors of the rainbow. Line officers carried white Bibles topped with yellow carnations.

Choir members are: Karen Storm, Judy Lenninger, Helen Carlson, Nancy Leutz, Judy Cross, Joyce Lubke, Linda Hall, Pamela Starr, Carole Herman, Sandra Wicker, Marilyn Hubbard, Shirley Leppart, Linda Yuen, Madelyn Meador, Starla Trippett, Glenda Chapman, Sharon Kellow, Judy Gregory and Sharon O'Brien. The choir members carried cardboard cutouts representing silver music notes.

Soloist, Terry Hanson, accompanied by Mrs. R. C. Hopson, sang "Over the Rainbow" as the officers and choir formed a double rainbow in the East. Corinne Ackerman and Karen Storm accompanied by Sally Brown, sang "Nearer My God to Thee" after the crowning ceremony. Taking part in the crowning ceremony were the following DeMolay members: David Montgomery, Fred Williams, Robert Faulkner, Richard Seideman, Brian Arnold, Mike O'Hair and Orin Ormsbee. Mrs. V. H. Barleen, associate mother adviser of the assembly gave the welcome address. Barbara Pyle gave the tribute to the American flag and Ruth Rindall, the tribute to the Rainbow flag. For the occasion Emilee chose a white net formal. She carried a nosegay given to her by her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Gradinger, Kansas City, Missouri. Distinguished guests present for the evening were, Mrs. Maxime Newcome, past mother adviser of Marysville Assembly No. 10, Marysville, California; Mrs. Theilma Fink and Mr. Ray Grams, worthy matron and worthy patron of Manzanita Chapter, Order of the Eastern Star; Mrs. Vera Fritsch and Mr. R. C. Hopson, worthy high priestess and watchman of shepherds, White Shrine of Jerusalem; Jack Rhodes, worthy patron of Aloha Chapter, OES; Joe Lake, worshipful master, Klamath Lodge No. 77; Louis Fritsch, worshipful master, Crater Lake Lodge, No. 211, Charles Carlsson, venerable master of the Lodge of Perfections; and Charles Yorkeland, Rainbow Dad.
