

NOTICE

Carelessly written and/or illegible copy will not be accepted for publication. If submitted by mail it will be kept on file—and the author may call the Society Desk for explanation or suggestions as to corrections or rewriting.

I have no quarrel with handwritten copy if it is readable. Of course, typewritten double-spaced items are preferred—but the Society Desk recognizes that this is not always possible.

So...

Write neatly with a reasonably soft lead pencil, or, if a pen is used avoid light-hued inks.

Check your facts.

Check your spelling.

Always use initials or given (first) name before a surname (last name). "Mrs. John Jones"—never "Mrs. Jones," unless the full name has been used previously in the copy.

Your copy is YOUR brainchild... if you don't respect it no one else should be expected to.

When in doubt, call or write the Society Desk... all help possible will be given.

Randall-Elliott Wedding Is Social Event Of Autumn

Candlelight from a large wide inverted vee shaped arch of tapers in candelabra illuminated the setting and was the background for the arrangements of orchid and white gladioli and carnations in First Methodist Church September 25, when Emilie Elizabeth Elliott became the bride of Charles Herbert Randall. The Rev. Dallas McNeil read the service at 2:30 p.m., before a gathering of about 150 friends and relatives.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Sidney (Sid) Elliott, 103 Washington Street, and her father gave her in marriage. Bridesmaids' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Randall, were here from Ventura, California, for their son's wedding.

Mrs. William A. Hatzl was matron of honor for her sister. The two bridesmaids were Elise Nilsch and Carol Michels, and Penelope Hatzl, bride's niece, was flower girl.

The bride's gown was designed with a bodice of Chantilly lace with scallops of lace applique in an off-the-shoulder-effect on the nylon tulle yoke and hand clipped medallions marked the high round neckline. A diagonal panel of Chantilly lace across the front of the full skirt of nylon tulle extended down the sides and back of the sweeping chapel train.

A queen's crown of shirred silk illusion edged in tiny seed pearls and embroidered with iridescent sequins held her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a single white orchid with streamers of white satin ribbon and stephanotis atop a white Bible.

The matron of honor wore a nylon chiffon frock in autumn violet with a full skirt over hoops. The dress was styled with a long draped torso bodice and cap sleeves. She carried a muff of lilac satin with white and purple flowers.

Bridesmaids' gowns were lilac and they carried autumn violet muffs. All of the attendants wore hats of lilac horsehair braid with fresh flowers in purple and white. The flower girl wore a full length dress of white net over lilac tulle—and the same type headpiece as the senior attendants. She carried a purple basket with a white satin handle.

Donald S. Randall, Ruth, Nevada, attended his brother as best man; and William A. Hatzl and Almon L. Geiss, ughers.

Mrs. Earl Sheridan, vocal soloist, was accompanied by Ruth Lobaugh, organist.

The couple honeymooned at Lake Tahoe and other points in California and Nevada. They are now at home in Mountain View, California. For travel, the new Mrs. Randall wore a cinnamon and black soft tweed suit, small white hat, alligator shoes and bag—and she wore her bridal bouquet orchid as a shoulder corsage.

For the wedding both mothers wore lace. Mrs. Elliott chose rose beige Chantilly lace for her frock made with a fitted bodice, long sleeves and a Peter Pan collar. Her corsage was an orchid. The senior Mrs. Randall wore gray lace over rose tulle topped with a brief bolero and her corsage was the same as Mrs. Elliott's.

Emilie attended school in Klamath Falls until her junior year in high school, when she entered Annie Wright Seminary in Tacoma. She was graduated in 1953, and then fell enrolled at Lewis and Clark College. She was there one year and the next year attended Behnke Secretarial school—both in Portland.

The bridegroom was graduated from OIT in June this year, as a student in surveying.

The reception was in the Pelican Party Room immediately after the ceremony. Pouring were Mrs. Victor Melton, aunt of the bride; and Mrs. J. Paul Matthews. Mrs. John W. Merryman and Mrs. Harry Bolvin cut the cake; Mrs. Richard Stark and Mary McConnell were at the punch bowl; and Hope Holbrook carried the guest book.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Carter, Prosser, Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Randall, Ruth, Nevada; Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Randall, Ventura; Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Elliott, Roseburg; Byron Page, Medford; Mrs. Dave Campbell and daughter Jo; Mrs. J. M. Kendall and daughters, Kathleen and Deborah; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Dillavou and Mrs. Herbert Hadley, all of Bly.

DORCAS CIRCLE

WEED—The birthday of Mrs. Chester Kimrey was celebrated at the Thursday afternoon meeting of the Dorcas Circle held at the Weed Community Church parlor.

Various articles of business were discussed and planned at the session with Mrs. Ray Bullis, chairman presiding. "Women in the Church" was the topic of devotionals led by the chairman, following the opening hymn of "One Foundation."

Business included the reports of the Presbyterian meeting held Wednesday at the church; plans for a new circle budget; nomination and election of officers slated for the November meeting; and discussion of the harvest Festival plans, with fancy work accepted at the meeting for the circle participation in the fall event to be held November 4 in the Weed church.

EASY-TO-USE DuBarry Color Creme Rinses add new glamour to gray hair. Silverette for luminous sparkle in gray hair. Platinette for removing every trace of yellow in white or light gray hair. After shampooing, just shake directly on hair and comb through. No mixing, no waiting, no rinsing out. And Silverette and Platinette are good for the hair because they condition it as they rinse to leave hair soft and wonderfully manageable. Now you can be frankly gray and enhance your appearance at the same time.

WOM At Merrill

MERRILL—Chapter night for Merrill Women of the Moose, Chapter No. 18, was Tuesday evening, October 4, when the following new members were initiated—May McMahon, Helen Sasser, May McCain, Nellie Schultz and Mildred Takacs.

Mooseheart chairman, Marjorie Frazier introduced the guest speaker, Ray VanMeter, who gave some very enlightening facts and figures on Mooseheart. He drew special attention to the educational advantages offered all the children at Mooseheart—from which 2,000 boys and girls have been graduated since 1913. This year there were 27 girls and 25 boys in the graduating class.
