

IF ONE PAIR OF SLACKS is your wardrobe quota, choose this Sanforlan woolen flannel version, tapered in the new ankle-slim line. Wash today; wear tomorrow and there is no need to worry they will shrink out of their original fit. Shown here in Black Watch plaid, but available, too, in charcoal and banker's gray editions. Isaacs slacks are also tailored in ankle zippers for especially slim look. Sweater is a Sanforlan wool turtle neck number available in a large range of colors. ANY AGE is the right age for a jumper this season. When they are 10 years old, like this young miss, it is especially desirable that the jumper be styled in Sanforlan wool so it can be washed repeatedly without shrinking out of its original fit. Gray flannel styles this torso-type jumper and Derby brightens the scalloped turn-up with scarlet cross-stitching in "love and kisses" formation.

"Conquest of Space" was a very exciting and educational National Assembly given by Robert T. Edgar on October 11. Mr. Edgar is an Australian who has a scientist father.

There are several committees this year. One of them is the social committee which will plan the school dances, parties, and any other social entertainment the student body may want. The committee members are: Lou Andrus, James Caldwell, Trenton Douglas, Allene Esselstrom, Betty Krueg, Dennis Johnson, Sylvia Massey, Shari Ramey, Robert Thompson, Pam Starr, and Vivian Wilbanks. The advisor is Mrs. Kennitzer.

The student council elected two new officers for the traffic court on October 11. They chose Robert Elliott as the judge and Pamela LaGrande as clerk. The traffic squad meets every Friday to give punishment to those who have received tickets.

The PTA is planning a Halloween carnival for October 20. There'll be a lot of exciting entertainment for all. Students are now selling the tickets. Adult tickets are 25 cents and student tickets are 10 cents. The student who sells the most tickets receives a prize from the PTA.

Selling of student body cards is quite successful this year. Three rooms already have a 100 per cent membership. They are Mrs. Kennitzer's Room 16, Mr. Munhall's Room 14, and Miss Phinney's Room 10.

On October 8 the football jamboree was held on Modoc Field. The Midgets scored a 27-14 victory over the grade schools.

The regulars on the football squad went to Ashland for a game on October 13. Student council members were invited to accompany the team.

The KPJH Regulars trampled the Allamont Junior High Regulars by a score of 26-0. The games were played October 7 on Modoc Field.

The Midgets have won their third game this season by defeating Pelican - Roosevelt 20-0, at Modoc Field October 12.
