BOB PUCKETT, Klamath Falls attorney, has been named to head the professional phase of Operation Fair Share, this year's United Fund-Red Cross drive. Bob Beach, U.F.-R.C. drive commander, made the appointment.

Weekend Fires Hit Klamath

Three fires were reported over the weekend by Suburban and Klamath Falls fire departments.

The worst of the fires was at the Summers Lane auction market last night, when a blaze of unknown origin burned for about an hour until it was stopped by members of the Suburban department.

Considerable damage was caused to the building, firemen said, but there was no estimate of damage cost available at this time. An auction was held there yesterday, but when the owner, Ed Higley, and the tenant, Bill Stoner, had checked the premises at about 6 p.m., they found nothing wrong, firemen reported.

The alarm, turned in at 10:43 p.m., was answered by four pieces of equipment, leaving two for standby.

Two small blazes were reported Sunday evening by the city fire department. A sawdust bin at the Ellington Lumber Company caught fire at about 9:23, and caused some damage to the bin before it was controlled.

An oil stove owned by John Peterson, 607 Upham, became flooded and burned out of control, but no damage was caused.

Warren P. Cody Funeral Planned

Funeral services are pending at Ward's Klamath Funeral Home for Warren Pearl Cody, 52, who died October 16. He had been a resident of Klamath Falls for 25 years and was associated with the Pelican Lumber Company and the Shaw Lumber Company during his residence here.

Surviving are daughters, Mrs. Dolores Lewis, Nancy and Judy Cody, and a son, Warren, all of this city; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cody, Sacramento; brothers, Wayne Cody, Klamath Falls and Byron of Sacramento; a sister, Mrs. Fern Francis, Sacramento and a granddaughter, Linda Lewis, Klamath Falls.

Woman Injured In Road Mishap

A woman was injured yesterday when a pickup truck pulling a trailer skidded across the highway and overturned the trailer after the right rear tire blew out, Oregon State Police reported today.

The accident occurred at 4:55 p.m. yesterday on U.S. Highway 97 about four miles north of Kirk Junction.

The truck, driven by Malcolm Caldwell, 62, of Gold Hill, was headed south at the time of the accident. The blowout forced Caldwell to lose control of the vehicle, which skidded across the road and went into the barrow pit on the left hand side.

Mrs. Ethel Mae Caldwell was taken to Klamath Valley Hospital but there was no report on her condition or injuries at this time.

The other passenger, Earl Leroy Stuart, aged nine, was uninjured.

KF Garden Club Show Scheduled

School girl hostesses for the Klamath Falls Garden Club hobby show scheduled for Tuesday, October 18, will be Claudine Geist, Ronnie Owens, Ingrid Peterson, Heather Haymaker, Marys Martensen and Carol Taylor. The girls will assist senior hostesses from 2 to 8 p.m. hours for the show which is drawing an unprecedented number of entries.

Exhibits will be open in the city library. There is no charge.

Mrs. A. O. Proctor is chairman of the tea arrangements. Mrs. A. J. Doraque is general chairman of the show.

OPERATION FAIR SHARE WILL BLAST OFF tomorrow morning with a breakfast at the Willard Hotel at 7:20. To follow the motif of the job, age replicas of jet planes have been made by the Girl Scouts to mark the places of the workers who will attend the feast. The Girl Scouts, from left, who helped make the place cards are Marsha Hawley, Sharon Hahn and Sharon Jeschke. Bob Perkins is chairman of the breakfast.

Thief Strikes KF Grocery

A thirsty thief broke the door of Louie's Grocery, 147 East Main Street sometime Friday night and took two or three cases of beer, Klamath Falls police reported today.

The glass on the window front was apparently broken by hitting it with a bottle. Broken bottle glass was found in front of the door.

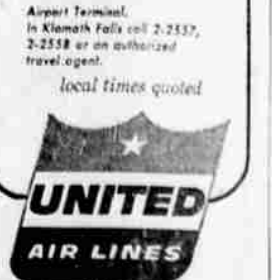

The burglary was not reported at once because the owner, Francis Durbin of Peonias City, thought that the damage had been merely malicious mischief. However, when he checked his stock, he found that the beer was missing.

Modoc Sheriff Lists Arrests

ALTURAS—Fifteen arrests were made by the Modoc County sheriff's office last week, according to the official report.

Five of the persons arrested were juveniles who were picked up by the sheriff's office and the California Highway Patrol for the theft of a car that was reported stolen at Canby on October 9. The car was found and returned by sheriff's deputies.

Investigation is being made of a charge that these boys also appropriated four other automobiles between Alturas and their home at Lamont, California.

The 15 arrests included six car thefts, two disturbing the peace, one petty theft, one drunk driving, four drunks and one bench warrant.

Woman Dies In Auto Accident

STEVENSON, Wash. (AP)—Beth Neilson, 64, a resident of Clatsop County, was injured in an auto accident Sunday night in an accident on the Evergreen Highway, about 3 miles east of here.
