Charge Brings New Strife

NEW CASTLE, Ind. (UP)—CIO President Walter P. Reuther's charge that Gov. George N. Craig pulled a "double-cross" by failing to end martial law stirred up new bitterness today in strife-torn New Castle.

New Castle was the scene of a gun battle between strikers and non-strikers at the Perfect Circle Corp. foundry Oct. 5, in which nine persons were wounded.

Reuther, in Detroit, charged that Craig promised several days ago to remove National Guardsmen and reinstate civil law at 10 a.m. Tuesday.

He telegraphed Craig: "The only assumption which I and my associates from the United Auto Workers and the Perfect Circle workers and CIO members generally can draw is that you suddenly have seen an opportunity to use to your own personal political advantage a collective bargaining dispute that exists only because a reactionary and recalcitrant management prefers violence and bloodshed to the peaceful and sensible procedures of industrial democracy."

Craig, who was in Chicago said he would not comment until he read Reuther's statement for himself. Meanwhile, 300 of 600 guardsmen stationed in the area prepared to go home by noon Thursday on Craig's orders. Craig acted after the troop commander said he "feels he can police the area properly with fewer men." There will be no relaxation in martial law regulations, however.

Whooping Crane Flock Sighted

AUSTWELL, Tex. — Three whooping cranes, vanguard of an expected flock, were sighted on Arkansas National Wildlife Refuge yesterday by refuge manager Julian Howard.

Howard said he saw the birds, two adults and a youngster, from a refuge patrol boat just before noon. He said the young whooper was hatched last June near Great Slave Lake in northwestern Canada.

Last fall, he said, 21 adults that had flown north in the spring came back with no young. The cranes are America's tallest waterfowl and scarcest species.

Canadian wild life officials spotted six young on the nesting range this summer.

"They're coming in on the CASCADE"

"They" being all the people who look like someone, who are someone, and who have a wonderful time seeing each other on the Cascade when they travel overnight to and from the Pacific Northwest and San Francisco.
Any of them will tell you that for fine accommodations, service, food, comfort, and fun, no other train in the world can surpass it. They choose the Cascade too, for its smooth-gliding ride (which means a good night's rest) and wide choice of private room accommodations. Social center of the train is the "Cascade Club" where the attractions include telephone service to or from anywhere.
