PRETTY LOU ANN KANDRA, Queen of the 1955 Klamath Basin Potato Festival at Merrill, knows her potatoes. Lou Ann is the daughter of one of the Klamath Country's pioneer ranch families. Her grandparents were among the first settlers in the Merrill country and the blonde, queen with violet eyes was raised on a local ranch. She will be vested with her jeweled crown and robe of ruby red velvet during the annual banquet in the Merrill grade school gymnasium, Friday evening, October 21, first day of the three-day fete, October 21-22-23. Dinner will be served at 7 p.m.
