Gail Russell's Comeback New Hollywood Heart Story

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—Portrait of a woman starting life over: Gail Russell, her hands clasped in her lap, talked shyly today of her movie "comeback" that has become the Hollywood heart story of the year.

The beautiful brunette is playing a western heroine with Randolph Scott in "Seven Men From Now," a Batjac production at Warner's studio.

When Gail put on her old-fashioned bonnet, it was the first time she had faced a camera in 4½ years.

Gail during that period starred in some real-life scenes that were more dramatic than in the movies—a night in jail, a day weeping in court, near death in a sanitarium.

The shapely actress, who shot to stardom in "The Uninvited" and "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," married cowboy star Guy Madison. But the marriage was an unhappy one.

"I quit acting because I wanted to make a marriage and a home life," she explained today. "But, well, it was one of those things..."

After a stormy life, Gail and the young actor separated. Then came other headlines. She was named in the fiery John Wayne-

Esperanza Bauer divorce suit. She and Wayne denied the allegations. Later Gail was arrested on drunk driving charges. At her trial nearly two years ago she was fined, put on probation and ordered to take "medical treatment."

For more than a year she was under treatment for hepatitis. Her lawyer later revealed she entered the hospital in a coma and near death.

"I was in the hospital five months," she said today. "I needed a good rest, a long one."

While she was in a sanitarium Madison divorced her because she was too "emotionally upset" to appear in court herself.

Last April she was in court again when she was fined on a hit-run charge. But today Gail indictated the unhappiness is behind her.

Last month Wayne tested her for the starring role in "Seven Men From Now," which he is producing. When the movie company went on location to nearby Lone Pine, a huge sign decorated the town "Gail Russell is Back." "It's been so long since I acted it took a lot of grinding to get the rust out of the wheels," she said. "It's wonderful to be back at work."

Uncle Milty Explains Deal

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Comedian Milton Berle says he turned down the television deal which later led to Jackie Gleason's 11-million-dollar Buick contract, TV Guide said Tuesday.

The Berle statement, carried by the television magazine in a copyrighted article, promptly was denied by the Kudner advertising agency which handled the Gleason contract for Buick.

TV Guide quoted Berle as saying that after his second show last season he lunched with Myron Kirk, vice president of the Kudner advertising agency. Berle said the big hitch in the proceedings was that he had cut his season to 20 shows last year and planned a further cut to 13 this year. Buick, he said, wanted 39 shows in their planned series.

TV Guide quoted Kirk as saying, "Jackie Gleason was the first and only man approached to do a weekly series of shows for Buick. As for ever offering Berle a job or a

LINDLEY HEIGHTS
By Evelyn Loomis

"Dry Cleaning at Home" was demonstrated by Hope Holbrook to the members of the Lindley Heights Home Extension Unit at the regular meeting Wednesday, October 12, at Joan's Kitchen. Miss Holbrook also showed samples of many items made from cloth that would make interesting gifts for the holiday season.

Twenty members answered roll call by telling briefly of their vacation trips.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Mayme Cammock, who announced the following chairmen to serve for the year-membership, Vi Barrett; hospitality, Helen Owens; luncheon, Ruth Johnson; recreation, Mary Schlegel; 4-H Club, Kathryn Billings; AGWW, Maggie Sample; publicity, Evelyn Loomis.

The next meeting will be a joint meeting with the Keno Unit at Joan's Kitchen Wednesday, November 9. The demonstration will be "Picture Framing and Selection" by Hope Holbrook.

"Bright girl, my Betsy!"

I just can't get over the marvelous way my Betsy outsmarts her housework. Take wood floors for instance. I hear other wives complain about all the scrubbing and waxing they have to do. But not my Betsy! She cleans and waxes them in one easy operation with Bruce Cleaning Wax. Why, she's through in half the time and fresh as a daisy! And our beautiful wood floors are always getting compliments. My Betsy and her Bruce Cleaning Wax sure make small work of a big job. I'm mighty proud of both of them.

P.S. For lighter staining on linoleum and wood, Betsy uses Bruce Floor Cleaner.
