

NEW STEAK BROILER was installed recently in the Chuck Wagon Cafe, 630 Main Street. Arturo, left, of the Miracle Broiler Company, Seattle, was in Klamath Falls to supervise installation and to instruct the cafe's new chef Vince Clapp, right. Charles Schuss, operator of the Chuck Wagon and the Klamath Billiards, said the new broiler increases the capacity of the cafe and produces fine quality steaks.

Brown Declines 1956 Contest

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Edmund G. Brown's decision to stay out of the 1956 race for the U.S. Senate posed a big question for fellow Democrats today: What other, if any, political plans does Pat Brown have for the future? Would he rather be governor? Or even possibly vice president?

Enthusiastic supporters have begun to mention his name as a good bet for the Democratic vice presidential nomination next year.

The attorney general said he was too busy with his state job and with organizing a California delegation pledged to Adlai Stevenson for president to make the Senate race. His early jump on the Stevenson bandwagon has touched off fresh speculation of a possible Stevenson-Brown ticket.

His withdrawal from the senatorial contest confronted Democratic leaders with the job of shopping for someone without his campaign experience to take on Republican Sen. Thomas H. Kuchel.
