Police Probe Slaying Link

CHICAGO (UP)—Chicago police investigating the slaying of three young boys today checked the possibility that the crime was linked to the murder or disappearance of two other children in the Midwest.

One of the children, Peter Gorman, 14, of Evanston, Ill., was found dead in a Michigan forest Aug. 14 after disappearing from a boys' camp.

The other child, 3-year-old Ronnie Westkamp, vanished from the U.S. Naval Ammunition Depot at Crane, Ind., Oct. 11 and hasn't been seen since.

Cmdr. Richard C. Turner, head of the naval depot, said there were no leads in the search for Ronnie. Meanwhile, Indiana authorities planned to check with Chicago police to determine if there was any connection between the crimes.

Dewey Supporters Increase Push For GOP Nomination

WASHINGTON (UP)—Speculation increased today that former New York Gov. Thomas E. Dewey will be backed by his supporters for the 1956 Republican presidential nomination.

Chairman L. Judson Morhouse of the New York Republican Party intensified the speculation last night with a statement that any one of several men "in or out" of government could lead the party to victory if President Eisenhower does not run again.

Morhouse, speaking at a $50 a plate GOP dinner at Schenectady, N.Y., did not identify the potential candidates. But Dewey, now engaged in private law practice, and Dr. Milton Eisenhower, the President's brother, are the most frequently mentioned possibilities for the nomination among men outside federal or state government.

Morhouse, a New York Republican leader, would figure prominently in decisions by that state's important delegation to the GOP convention on whom to support for the nomination. Dewey could be a favorite son candidate.

In his speech, Morhouse attacked New York's present governor, Averell Harriman, a Democrat and also regarded as a presidential hopeful, for his part in the Truman Administration's decision that led to the Korean War and the discreditable dismissal of Gen. (Douglas) MacArthur.

At a news conference in Newark, N.J., meanwhile, California Republican Gov. Goodwin J. Knight said Republicans can win in 1956 with or without President Eisenhower. But he said the job would be easier with Mr. Eisenhower leading the ticket.

Knight said he would file for Mr. Eisenhower in California's presidential preference primary if the President himself does not. In California, the candidate winning the primary receives the support of the state delegation to the GOP convention.

Knight said the GOP candidate should be a "moderate" similar to Mr. Eisenhower if the President himself does not make the race. He declined to comment on whether two Californians mentioned for the Republican nomination, Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Senate Republican leader William F. Knowland, fitted the "moderate" label.

In other political developments: Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) confirmed he has been asked to enter the Nebraska state presi-

Congress Calls Hearing On Newsprint Price Hikes

WASHINGTON (UP)—A congressional group, fearing some U.S. newspapers may be forced out of business by an increase in Canadian newsprint prices, has called a meeting to find out what can be done about it.

The meeting of the subcommittee will be held in New York on Nov. 1. Concern about the newsprint price increase was also voiced elsewhere. In Canada Quebec Premier Maurice Duplessis warned his country's newsprint producers that they were not the sole owners of Canadian forests and should "play fair" with other partners, "the newspapers and the consumer."

In Honolulu, Richard W. Stocum, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Assn., denounced the price increase. He said the ANPA had reviewed the reported earnings of newsprint manufacturers and saw no economic necessity or long term advantage in any price increase at this time.

Chairman Arthur G. Klein (D-N.Y.) called the meeting of the House group after at least one Canadian newsprint supplier—St. Lawrence Paper Corp.—announced a $5-a-ton price boost.

Klein said the subcommittee is drafting plans to visit southern U.S. newsprint mills to get "on-the-spot information" on domestic newsprint production. The tour probably will begin in mid-November, Aldes said.

"We fear that any untoward increase in the price of newsprint may have the possible effect of reducing, or possibly eliminating entirely, the publication of some newspapers throughout the country and could easily result in further increases in prices of newspapers to the public," Klein said.

Stocum, who also is vice president and general manager of the Philadelphia Bulletin, said he felt the announced price rise would limit the paper company stockholders as much as the publishers.

"The price increase announced for St. Lawrence corporation newsprint, if followed by other manufacturers, will mean higher costs to most advertisers and in a very real sense," Stocum said, "it will do no long term good for newsprint company investors."

"Particularly we regret the short 12-day notice by St. Lawrence of its price increase," he said. "We thought that was a fast practice of the old days we had outlived," Stocum said.

Phone Strikers Await Talks

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Representatives of the striking CIO Communications Workers of America and the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company awaited a call today from Federal Conciliator Arthur Viat for another "exploratory" talk.

The talks are being carried out in the hope that participants will find some basis for reopening negotiations to end the 19-day-old strike of 22,000 telephone workers in Northern California and Nevada.

Both sides met with Viat from 9 p.m. until midnight yesterday, apparently without modifying their respective positions.

Meanwhile, a spokesman for the CWA charged that soldiers from the San Francisco Presidio are working for the strike-bound company.

A telephone company spokesman admitted the company is employing volunteers "who are willing to help out in keeping phone calls moving." He said the volunteers are "from all walks of life" and that some of them "may be soldiers."

"This of course, would mean individuals coming in on their own time to work and would have nothing to do with the military."

A spokesman at the Presidio said it is contrary to Army policy for its personnel to take jobs where a strike is in progress.
