

SOME 200 GUESTS came from all points in the Klamath Basin to Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church for the 8 p.m. wedding of Patricia Ann Burk, to Stanley Masten Jr., October 15. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Burk, Bonanza; and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Masten, Poe Valley. Patricia is also the granddaughter of Mrs. Birdie Burk, oldest living white woman to be born in Klamath County. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Pauline Dewey, lived in Merrill many years before moving to Bonanza. The Masten family is also well-known throughout the basin.

PROMINENT BASIN NAMES LINKED IN IMPRESSIVE CHURCH RITES

BONANZA — In an impressive wedding ceremony Saturday evening, October 15, in Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, Klamath Falls, Patricia Anne Burk of Bonanza became the bride of Stanley Masten Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Masten of Poe Valley.

The 8 p.m. candlelight service was read by the Rev. Dwayne Proett in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

Bronze chrysanthemums were used for decorating the church and altar.

The dark haired bride was lovely in a ballerina length dress of white nylon net over misted tulle. The bodice and peplum were lace with long sleeves coming to a point over her hands. Her pearl-encrusted lace halo held the brief veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade arrangement of pink rosebuds. Patricia wore the traditional blue garter, something old, something new and had a lucky penny in her shoe.

She was given in marriage by her father. Her sister, Virginia, was maid of honor. She wore a green lace with matching headband and flowers of bronze chrysanthemums. The bridegroom's sister, Jerry Masten, was her bridesmaid. She wore a coral lace dress with headband and bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums. Both dresses were ballerina length.

Forrest Lowe Jr. was best man, and ushers were Delmar Burk, cousin of the bride; and Ben Shepherd.

Elmer Armstrong played the wedding march and incidental music. He also accompanied Jerry Donlof Jr., who sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mrs. Burk wore a dark green faille suit with matching accessories, and her corsage was of pink rosebuds. The senior Mrs. Masten wore dark blue with lighter blue accessories, and her corsage was also pink rosebuds.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors with Mrs. William Bechold cutting and serving the four tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Lester Wilson poured coffee and Mrs. Merrill Stewart served punch.

Mrs. Neal Jones assisted and Mrs. Reginald Thomas and Mrs. Frank Toffel were at the gift table. Ruth Mary Thomas carried the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a black boxy suit with white accessories and pink rosebud corsage from her bouquet. After a week's honeymoon the young couple will be at home on the Masten ranch in Poe Valley.

Special guests at the wedding were Patricia's two grandmothers, Mrs. Pauline Dewey and Mrs. Birdie Burk, both of Bonanza.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Lowe Jr., Dick, Janice and Judy; Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Donlof Jr.; Mrs. Della Burk and Delmar Burk and Sylvia Sheldon all of Portland, La. and Mrs. Ben Kerns, Nancy and David, Alwater, California; Mr. and Mrs. John Simonson and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nelson all of Astoria.

Rainbow Girls Stage Hayride

MALIN — An evening hayride Friday, October 7, was a big event on the fall social calendar for members of the Order of Rainbow for Girls Assembly No. 49. They and the group of boys who were their guests met at the Masonic Temple where they were loaded into trucks at 7 p.m. for the ride to Malin Park.

After a feed of hot dogs, chocolate and candy bars, drivers Dick Kruger and Cecil Zeiders, reloaded their passengers for the return trip to the hall. The festive evening ended at 10 p.m., curfew hour for the football players in the group.

MR. AND MRS. JACK METLER, 4445 Broadman, announce the engagement of their daughter, Sheryl, to Albert G. Ready, son of Mrs. Jesse South, 2865 Bisbee. Both are graduates of KUHS. Albert is currently at OTI taking Diesel. His fiancée is employed at Klamath County Abstract Company. The wedding will be an event on the March social calendar.

CATHOLIC DAUGHTERS OF AMERICA annual card party is slated for November 3, at 8 p.m., in the Sacred Heart Gym, according to Chairman Lorraine Huettl, seated at the left in the picture. Standing with her is co-chairman, Carolyn Tennant. For reservations call Lorraine Huettl, 5947; Helen Wagner, 6947; or Azita Kennedy, 2-3668.

Elaborate plans are being made by the various committees to assure guests of a "better than ever" evening.

DANCING CLUB STARTS SEASON

WEED — Numbered autumn leaves were presented to each member of the Weed Dancing Club registering for the fall social event of the club Saturday night October 15, and corresponding numbers paired couples for the featured number dance of the evening.

Varied colors of autumn leaves decorated the banquet room and the ballroom of St. Michaels Hall for the occasion. Arrangements of colorful waxed grapes flanked by lighted yellow and orange candles complemented the lace cloth covered buffet tables for the mid-night supper. Orange colored paper streamers centered the social tables for the cocktail hour that began at 8:30 p.m. and dancing in the ballroom continued through the evening.

The four guest couples were Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Puls, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Kubli, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Silva and Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Kyle.

Committee for the evening was headed by Mr. and Mrs. Roland Riley, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Elvy Mazzoni, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Seitz, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Adams and Dr. and Mrs. Victor Thompson.

Twenty-three member couples attending included Mr. and Mrs. James Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin White, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Les Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Leale Ardill, Mr. and Mrs. Ervin Andrazza, Mr. and Mrs. Byron House, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Outler, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Andrazza, Mr. and Mrs. Mort Koser, Mr. and Mrs. Elson Hoy, Mr. and Mrs. Gino Michelson, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Solett, Mr. and Mrs. Aldo Rosello, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Linebarger, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bradshaw, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Runyan, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Beatty, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Graynor, Mr. and Mrs. Axel Grandstrom, Mr. and Mrs. David Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Bales.

A HOME WEDDING—Mr. and Mrs. William Andrew Down are pictured in front of the fireplace after the 1 p.m. wedding in the home of the bride's parents. She is the former Suzanne Hough, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Len Hough, 701 Division, and her father gave her in marriage. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn T. Down, 4220 Frieda Avenue.

The Rev. G. W. Bigby of the Altamont Tabernacle officiated at the September 17 nuptials in the presence of a small gathering of close friends and members of the families. Darlene Thomas and Don Rustine attended the couple. For her informal wedding and home reception, the bride wore a blue print afternoon dress and a corsage of red roses and white carnations. Her accessories were white.

The couple has been at home, 218 Mortimer Street, since their brief honeymoon.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Andy Schmirski, Lakeview; Mrs. Loma Watkins, Mrs. Marion Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Robert Crawford and Mrs. Joe Watkins, all of Malin.
