

KLAMATH FALLS SHRINE CLUB annual dinner dance at the Klamath Falls Armory is scheduled for Saturday night November 5—and final plans were made by Mr. and Mrs. Robert O. Sproat, chairman for the event, and their committee at the meeting when the above picture was taken. From the left, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pernell (husbands directly back of wives), Mr. and Mrs. Sproat, Mr. and Mrs.

Dean Callas, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Cushman, Bill De Pew (Mrs. De Pew, also committee member, not in picture); and Dr. and Mrs. Seth M. Kerron.

The cocktail hour will be from 7 to 8 p.m., with background music by Kathy Halaas. Dinner at 8 p.m., and dancing from 9:30 p.m. until 2 a.m., to music by Baldy's Band.

NATIVE OF POLAND ADDRESSES KLAMATH FALLS LIBRARY CLUB

The October 10 meeting of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club got under way with the Flag salute led by Mrs. R. F. McLaren and group singing of "God Bless America."

Music chairman, Mrs. Don Zumwalt, presented Mrs. Earl Sheridan, vocal soloist, who sang three songs accompanied at the piano by the Rev. D. L. Proett.

Mrs. Loren Palmerton, chairman for the day, introduced guest speaker Ilsa Krebok, who recently came to the United States from Austria under the sponsorship of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Collier, through World Services.

The charming blonde young woman, a native of Poland, was dressed in an Austrian peasant summertime dress also worn in Bavaria. It was an authentic native costume—all handmade.

She spoke of her experiences in Poland, Germany and Austria from the time her family left their home in Poland until she arrived in the U.S. this summer.

Mrs. John Ashley and Mrs. Loren Palmerton arranged the display on the tea table in observance of the 10th anniversary of the United Nations. Sixty flags were included in the colorful collection—most of them from Mrs. George Merryman.

The autumn decorations about the club room, outstanding and artistic floral pictures in rich fall shades, were arranged by Mrs. Hugh O'Connor, decorations chairman, assisted by Mrs. Oliver Spiker.

The October 10th tea chairman, Mrs. James Thornton, was assisted by Mrs. L. F. Carter, Mrs. William Wales Jr., Mrs. Eugene O. Jackson and Mrs. L. A. Murphy.

Pouring during the tea hour were Mrs. Arch Proctor and Mrs. A. V. McVey; and hostesses were Mrs. L. D. Leslie and Mrs. Walter Wiesendanger.

Next meeting, November 14, will be at 2 p.m., in the KUHS Little Theater, where members and guests will view a play produced by the KUHS Dramatics Department under the direction of Mrs. B. B. Blomquist.

Food Editor Addresses AAUW On "Art Of Cooking In Print"

The American Association of University Women met at the Willard Hotel on October 15 for a luncheon meeting.

Tommy Fredrickson entertained with three vocal solos accompanied by Mrs. Don Zumwalt. Tommy's selections were "Somebody Bigger Than You and I," "Over the Rainbow," and "Billy Boy." Mrs. Frederick Ehlers, president of the Klamath Falls branch, introduced committee chairman for the year.

The following study groups are being held this year and it is stressed that anyone interested may attend these meetings whether or not they are a member of AAUW. For further information call the chairman: International relations, Mrs. K. Stordalen, 9956; social studies, Mrs. Len Surles, 8598; drama, Eva Burkhalter, 4359; creative arts, Mrs. Don Rice, 3401; interior decoration, Mrs. Melvin Miller, 3311 or Mrs. Robert Kent, 3533; finance, Mrs. Fred Poulson, 2-3259.

Mrs. Bill Jenkins, food editor of the Herald and News, gave a very entertaining talk on "The Art of Cooking in Print." Mrs. Jenkins illustrated her talk with a great variety of food samples and pictures that are sent to her as food editor of a newspaper. Mrs. Victor O'Neill, fellowship chairman and her committee composed of Mrs. Robert Thompson, Mrs. George Clark, Mrs. C. B. Larkin, and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland took over the remainder of the program, which consisted of a food sale and a book bazaar. Special prizes were given during the afternoon and a tempting assortment of food items were donated for the fellowship fund sale.

Mrs. Charles Johnson announced plans for the rummage sale slated for October 21 and 22 at the Pelican Theater building.

PINOCHLE PARTY

LANGELL VALLEY — Mrs. Kermit Keyser entertained at her home in Upper Langell Valley on the afternoon of October 11 with two tables of pinochle. Refreshments were served after cards.

Mrs. Charles Schmidt won high prize for the afternoon, Mrs. George Fernlund, low; and Mrs. Russell Walsh won the traveling prize. Others present were Mrs. Wesley Dearborn, Mrs. Lester Leavitt, Mrs. Eddie Galian and Mrs. Ed Scott.
