Patsy Nicholson Feted With Pre-Nuptial Shower

FORT KLAMATH—Patsy Nicholson, daughter of Mrs. Theodore R. (Lucille) Nicholson of Fort Klamath and Ashland, was the inspiration for a beautifully arranged miscellaneous bridal shower given in her honor Friday evening, October 14, in the C. I. Clubhouse, Fort Klamath. Patsy will become the bride of Norman Ottoman, Malin, in a 3:30 p.m. ceremony Saturday, November 5, in the Methodist Church, Klamath Falls.

The theme of autumn was carried out in room decor, appointments and table decorations, with a profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums carrying out the predominant color scheme of yellow and white—which was repeated in a large yellow and white umbrella and bouquet of mums on the gift table.

The guest of honor was assisted in opening the packages by her mother; her sister, Mrs. Carroll Pittman, Ashland, recorded the gift list.

Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Ira F. Orem, Mrs. Joanna Taylor, Mrs. William A. Page, Mrs. Loren L. Miller Jr. and Mrs. William Zumbrun.

Nearly 60 names were on the guest list for the pre-nuptial party for Patsy.

WOMEN OF MOOSE CHAPTER NIGHT

WEED—Mrs. Ray Hanks, senior regent, presided at the October 13 meeting of the Women of the Moose, Weed Chapter, and presented the chapter night program in the absence of Mrs. Bertha Aldrich, Mooseheart chairman.

The attending group voted to contribute a donation from the chapter to the College of Regents at Mooseheart. Special awards went to Mrs. Otis Laney.

Thirteen members attended the meeting and hostesses Mrs. John Toms and Mrs. Winston Williams served refreshments following the meeting adjournment.

The regular meeting of October 22 will be followed by a Halloween party.

Aloha Past Matrons Club First Fall Meeting

Aloha Past Matrons Club met for its first fall meeting Friday afternoon September 30, in the parlors of the Masonic Hall.

A potluck luncheon was served from a table decorated with asters and Oregon grape.

A short business meeting was conducted by the president, Alma Getz, during which election of officers was held. Grace Cole was elected president; Charlotte Martin, vice president; Claire Alice Epperson, secretary; and Clara DeWitt was appointed publicity chairman.

The members presented Mrs. Getz with a dainty cup and saucer as a memento of her year as president. Mrs. Getz remembered her officers Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Epperson and Mrs. DeWitt with gifts of appreciation.

Members present were Alma Getz, Grace Cole, Claire Alice Epperson, Ella McMillan, Jean Porter, Charlotte Martin, Letha Murphy, Alina Cofer, Dorothea Worley, Ida Moretz, Betty Hunter, Rena Oldham, Kate Peyton, Helen Spiker, Jennie Hurn, Louise O'Brien and Clara DeWitt.

Olive Johnson of Zillah Chapter OES, Newport, Washington, was welcomed as a guest of the afternoon.

The next regular meeting will be Friday, October 28, with hostesses Kate Peyton, Charlotte Martin and Clara DeWitt.

Rebekah Lodge

MERRILL—Witches, black cats, ghosts, skeletons, cobwebs, spiders and even the devil—held sway in the basement of the Odd Fellows Hall the night of October 17.

After the regular meeting of Merrill Rebekah Lodge the members went to the basement for a Halloween party and refreshments.

At the business meeting a letter was read from Prosperity Lodge of Klamath Falls, inviting the Lodge to a reception for Vera Fritsch, conductor, Rebekah Assembly of Oregon, and also asking a number be provided on the program.

Hazel McNeil was installed as warden for the remainder of the year. Pearl Harris, district deputy president acting as installing officer and Sylvia Jones as installing marshal.

'56 Ford breaks new car sales records!

18 new Thunderbird-inspired models

All 18 new Fords have the look of the Thunderbird about them—the same long, low lines and exciting silhouette which made the Thunderbird everybody's darling.
