

BASIN BRIEFS

Artifacts—Ben Brandon and his son, Mike, of Portland, came to explore and hunt for arrowheads on his father's old homestead southeast of Fort Rock over the weekend.

Visit—Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Miles left Fort Rock Monday to visit with several of his children, including James Miles at Gude, Mrs. Carl Starbuck at Myrtle Creek and Mrs. Potter Fueston at Roseburg.

Silver Lake—Hunting guests for the weekend included Mr. and Mrs. Claude Jessup, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Riley and A. Tate. The men are members of the Multnomah County Sheriff's posse and Riley was the man who found the two women last recently above Multnomah Falls.

Duck Hunters—visiting at the Jess Miles home at Fort Rock over the weekend were her brother, Malcolm Buick, and Bill Roscoe, both of Salem.

Silver Lake—Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Crane of Eugene are guests this week of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Duane Crane. During their stay, Crane will assist his son in wiring their house.

LaPine—Mr. and Mrs. Mark Ferns of LaPine attended the achievement program at Fort Rock Saturday night and were overnight guests of their daughter, Mrs. Leonard Pitcher, and family. Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Dawson of LaPine were visitors at the Pitcher ranch Sunday. The women are sisters.

Bly—Mr. and Mrs. John R. Chronister returned to Bly last weekend from a combined bus and auto trip that took them to DeQueen Arkansas, and a visit with the E. A. Williamson family and other friends and relatives. At Las Vegas they were joined by their son, Charles, and his wife in whose car they made the remainder of the trip.

Fort Klamath—Mrs. Loren L. Miller has moved to their winter home at Red Bluff and her husband will join her there as soon as the Loren Miller Company cattle have been shipped out. Their son and family, the Junior Millers, will go south early in November.

Attend Funeral—Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hazzi of Bly went to Portland Sunday to attend the funeral of the late Mrs. J. P. Matthews which was held Monday afternoon. They returned Monday evening to Bly.

Sherman Seastrong—was home over the weekend to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Seastrong at Bly. He attends the University of Oregon.

Jack McBride—who has been at the Klamath nursing home was taken to Lakeview Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. John Baxter of Eastside. He will stay at the Mautz Nursing Home where he can be near his son, Riley McBride.

Eastside—Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Bradley spent the weekend at Klamath Falls where she attended the district Seropintist Club convention (she is president of the Lakeview chapter) and Bradley attended business matters.

Treatments—Mr. and Mrs. Lee O'Neil of Eastside consulted her eye specialist in Klamath Falls Saturday and learned that an operation will not be necessary but she will continue treatments.

Visitors—Mr. and Mrs. Rodger Allard and daughters of Grants Pass came to Eastside over the weekend to pick up the truck his father, Rocky Allard, had overhauled.

Guests—at the home of Mrs. John O'Neil at Eastside last week included her sister, Mrs. Guy McKune of Paisley and son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin McKune, of The Dalles.

CITY BRIEFS

Annual Party—Royal Neighbors of America will hold their annual Harvest Festival and party Friday at 8 p.m. in the K.C. Hall. The public is invited.

Party Plans—The Merry Mixers will hold their Halloween costume party at 8 p.m. Friday. Members and their guests are welcome.

Woodcraft—The Neighbors of Woodcraft will hold their annual Halloween party Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the K.C. Hall. All members and friends are invited. Costumes will be worn.

Glenn Harvey—and Mr. and Mrs. George Carlson, all of Summer Lake, attended Homecoming at Oregon State College, last weekend.

Visiting—Mrs. Bertha Hahner of Ashland is visiting this week in Lakeview with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Vic Hahner and her former Lakeview friends.

Leaves—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lehman left Lakeview last week for their former home in Lead, South Dakota where Lehman will be inducted into the U.S. Army. Lehman has served as a forester on the Fremont National Forest since last spring.

Newcomers—Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hickman of Georgetown, California have recently moved to Lakeview. Hickman, formerly of Portland and a graduate of Oregon State College, is employed as a Junior forester with Fremont National Forest, and will work with Forrest Jones, forester, on the inventory of the Klamath Working Circle.

Dance—The annual Catholic dance will be held on Saturday night, October 29 at the Adel Community Hall at Adel. Supper will be served.

From Medford—Mrs. William Lee and her small son of Medford visited last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duke of Lakeview.

Vacation—Mr. and Mrs. Ross Duke of Lakeview, recently vacationed in Nevada and visited former friends in Gold Field, Nevada.

Regular Meeting—The Lakeview Rebekah Lodge No. 22 will hold a regular meeting at 8 p.m. on October 27 at the IOOF Hall.

Meeting—of Prosperity Social Club, Malin, at the home of Mrs. Warren Fruits, Merrill, Thursday, October 27, 8 p.m.

Donates Beef—E. M. Carlson of Summer Lake is donating a quarter of beef to the Silver Lake barbecue which will be held Friday, October 28, as part of the celebration observing the advent of rural electrification to north Lake County.

Hunters—have come to the Summer Lake area by the hundreds since the opening of the migratory waterfowl season on October 22. Birds were reported not too plentiful on opening day but the majority of the hunters have been able to get limits.

John Seeland—of Fort Rock has returned home after his release from St. Charles Memorial Hospital at Bend where he was a patient for two weeks.

DAVID FULLERTON, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton of Bly, will be long remembered by the nurses at St. Vincent's Hospital in Portland. Because of the fine treatment he received, the boy's father, who has operated the Arch Theater for eight years, gave the hospital a new piece of equipment which was needed for the hospital projection room. The equipment was replaced by Cinemascope in the Bly theater, installation being done by Jake Pollanz and the B. F. Shearer Company of Portland.

Woolery Takes Calf Roping

MERRILL—A record crowd of approximately 500 people attended the rodeo Sunday, October 23, at the Hill Brothers Ranch north of Merrill, which completed the three day Potato Festival activities. Total monies awarded in the jackpot rodeo was $625. Bull riding, 7 entries, winners were: first, Billy Jessoperson, Montague, California; second, Don Heaton, Merrill.

Lynch To Sing At Lakeview

LAKEVIEW—Christopher Lynch, Irish tenor, will appear in concert at Lakeview on Monday, November 7, at 8 p.m. at the Lakeview High School Auditorium. The concert will be sponsored by the Lake County Council No. 3417, Knights of Columbus.

Appearing with Lynch will be Norma Holmes, pianist, and Joan Walker, soprano. All three artists have appeared in radio, television and stage productions and in 1951 Lynch sang at Lakeview when he was on tour with the community concert series.

Proceeds of the concert will benefit St. Mary's Boys' Home at Beaverton, Oregon.

Tulelake Women Hear Teacher

TULELAKE—Harry Santos, of the Tulelake High School faculty, spoke before a meeting of the Tulelake Business and Professional Women's Club, Monday, October 24 on "How Journalism Is Taught in the High School."

Beatrice Willard, of the high school faculty, gave an account of a newspaper strike which took place while she was in England last year. Lucille Coyner reviewed a recent magazine article giving information on the international convention of the National Federation of Women's Clubs held in Geneva, Switzerland this year. A film, "Freedom To Learn," was shown.

The program was arranged by Hazel Baker, chairman of the BPW Public Relations Committee.

Merrill High Plans Circus

MERRILL—The annual Merrill High School Carnival will be Saturday evening, October 29, at 7:45 p.m. in the high school gymnasium. Proceeds will be used for student activities. A liberal number of prizes have been donated by Merrill merchants.

King and queen of the carnival will be chosen by ticket sales. Couples representing each class are: Seventh grade, Treeca Collins and Wayne Hill; eighth grade, Bernie Wolfram and Phyllis Daniel; ninth grade, Roger Ferguson and Billy Harding; tenth grade, Kathryn Barnes and John Reed; 12th grade, Darjeen Frisvold and Larry Everston.

The Merrill-Malin football game will be played on the Merrill field Friday night, October 28.

Medford Square Dance Planned

The Rogue River Valley Square Dance Callers' Association is sponsoring a square dance in Medford, Saturday night, October 29, in cooperation with the Jackson County Disaster Car Committee to raise funds to apply on purchase of a disaster car for that area.

Callers from Southern Oregon and Northern California will contribute their time, including B. M. Antle of Klamath Falls.

The dance will start at 8:30 p.m. at the F. H. Hedrich Junior High School, East Jackson Street. All square dancers from this

WATCH FOR the GRAND OPENING! Coming Soon LOW COST SUPER MARKET

PUT YOUR Comfort In Our Hands CALL YOUR HOUSE WARMER FOR STANDARD HEATING OILS FRED H. HEILBRONNER FUELS THAT SATISFY—PLUS SERVICE 821 Spring Since 1919 Ph. 4153

Standard Heating Oils advertisement featuring a man in a cap and a housewarmer unit. Text includes 'Standard Heating Oils', 'call your Housewarmer', and 'Your Housewarmer keeps track of the oil you use—makes sure the tank is kept filled with clean, economical Standard Furnace Oil.'

ations department of the Shasta and Portland divisions of the Southern Pacific Railroad attended the 42nd National Council and Safety Exposition. They were met in Chicago by Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Nugent, who have visited Mr. and Mrs. Miller at their home here. Nugent is superintendent of safety for the S.P. The Millers saw "Holiday" in cinema and lunched at the Conrad Hilton.

Meeting—of the GIA to the B of LE at the home of Mrs. Willard Dodge, 245 Pacific Terrace at 7:30 p.m. Friday, October 28.

Meeting—of the Christian Women's Fellowship of the First Christian Church, Thursday, October 27 in the church. The business meeting at 11 a.m. will be followed by a potluck at noon. The lesson will be on "Live Thy Creed." Devotions will be at 1 p.m. All members and friends of the church are invited.

Klamath Pomona—grange officers will meet Thursday, October 27, 8 p.m. at the Lost River Grange Hall. All officers are urged to be present so pictures can be taken.

Klamath Falls—Lioness Club will hold a cooked food sale and Halloween treats sale, Saturday, October 29 at the Oregon Food Store, 4450 South Sixth Street. Funds from the sale are to be used for the club's eye conservation program. Members unable to deliver contributions to the store, please call 7081 or 2-3123.

Complete Chiropactic Care DR. J. W. LOWE Ph. Off. 2-1131 - Res. 2-0182 111 So. 4th, Stevens Hotel Bldg.

Wanta Buy a Home? Short of Money? SEE COMMERCIAL FINANCE CORP. 107 No. 9th Phone 7711

GAME BIRD PLUMAGE COLORS advertisement for Stradivari Viscose and Silk shirts. Features an image of a shirt and a game bird. Text includes 'Stradivari', 'AMERICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL SPORT SHIRT', and 'Dick Reeder is Always Glad to Cash Your Pay Check'.

fall eyewear magic advertisement for Dr. Wm. T. Hodson. Features an image of a woman's face wearing glasses. Text includes 'fall eyewear magic', 'Now you can dress your eyes with the same fashion flattery you look for when choosing your wardrobe.', 'DR. WM. T. HODSON Registered Optometrist', 'Standard Optical Company', '715 MAIN STREET KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON', 'NO APPOINTMENT NECESSARY Pay Nothing Down Just $1 A Week', and 'complete satisfaction guaranteed... or your money refunded!'.