Operation Fair Share On OTI Campus 'Successful'

"First attempts are seldom as successful as has been the United Fund-Red Cross campaign on the Oregon Technical Institute campus," Wing Commander Bob Beach said Monday.

Beach, who heads Operation Fair Share, made this statement following a review of UFRC divisions which showed OTI, printers and publishers and city schools over the top of their individual targets.

"This was OTI's first attempt at a separate fund drive on its campus, and it is the first time also that an amount ($500) has been approved by the fund board for on-campus YMCA activities," Beach added.

Jack Douglas, business manager, at OTI, took command of the campaign, assisted by Al Smith, assistant business manager; John Vail, manager of auxiliary enterprises; John Howard, supervisor of technical education; R. L. Smith, dean of students and Charles Dougherty, personnel representative for the physical plant.

Douglas explained that each man had far more than the traditional five contacts — usually 20 to 30. Students were contacted through dormitory meetings at which Douglas supplied information on United Fund and its agencies, assisted by Walter Hogue, dean of men.

Vail contacted married students on the campus through the students' housing managers. All drive workers assisted in contacting the same 120 faculty and staff members on the campus.

"So far, we have experienced 100 per cent results without interrupting classwork," Douglas said.

OTI conducted its own campaign instead of being included under schools because college officials felt that in view of its recent growth, it could operate as a separate division. Reciprocally, plans are being made for on-campus YMCA facilities, to assist OTI students to participate in club work, develop leadership, cooperate and participate with the Air Force and the YMCA. The inclusion of a separate amount for OTI by the United Fund board was made at the request of many students.

Ben Youssef May Return To Throne In Morocco As Madagascar Exile Ends

NICE, France (AP)—Former Sultan Sidi Mohammed Ben Youssef, who has become a symbol of flaming nationalism for Moroccans, returned to France from exile in Madagascar today amid strong signs he shortly will be returned to his throne.

The 41-year-old Moslem deposed two years ago by the French arrived on a four-engined plane with his two wives, seven concubines, two sons, four daughters and 23 servants and was greeted by a stream of French and Arab nobles.

His aging uncle, Mohammed Ben Moulay Arafat, who succeeded him as Sultan in August, 1953, already had renounced his rights to the throne and a bandwagon movement appeared in full swing in Moroccan cities to bring back the former ruler.

The French government itself appeared in diplomatic retreat from its position of two years ago when it exiled the sovereign for his Nationalist sympathies.

Ben Youssef's overthrow two years ago was largely engineered with the backing of Thami El Glaoui, powerful Berber chieftain who disapproved of the extreme Nationalists in the cities who were getting increasing sympathy from the Sultan.

Last week, however, the Berber leader abruptly reversed himself and declared the Sultan should be restored. The declaration set off enthusiastic celebrations throughout Morocco which have not yet died down. Lender after lender followed El Glaoui's example.

Nationalists were not pleased with the politically experienced Ben Arafat's elevation to the throne and made two attempts on his life.

Faced with increasing terrorism and rebel activity, the French government of Premier Edgar Faure undertook negotiations with the Nationalists and reached an agreement that included the dethronement of Ben Arafat, creation of a regency and a new government which would include Nationalists, and concessions by which the pro-temerate would enjoy more self government. The French agreed that Ben Youssef would be returned to France but not to his throne.

Ben Youssef ascended the throne in 1927 on the death of his father.

Harry L. Nelson Death Learned

TULELAKE — Harry Leslie Nelson, 66, resident of Cedarville, died Sunday, October 30 as he drove toward Medicine Lake to visit friends.

Deputy sheriff-coroner, F. A. Dobson, Tulelake, who investigated, stated that Nelson slumped into his wife's lap and was dead upon arrival at the lake. Death apparently followed a heart attack. He had suffered from a heart condition about a month ago.

Nelson had been a resident of Siskiyou County for 25 years and of Modoc County for 10 years. He was a retired railroad engineer.

He is survived by his widow Mrs. Winifred Nelson, Cedarville, and other relatives.

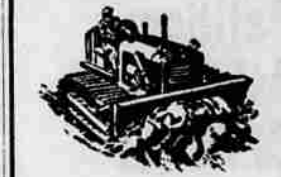

The body was taken to Upton's Mortuary in Weed and will be transferred to Kerr's Funeral Home in Alturas.
