Prowler Admits Breaking Into Woodward Estate

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—A prowler has reappeared on a Long Island estate the two intrusions that Mrs. William Woodward says had her upset and nervous on the night she shot her wealthy sportsman husband to death.

Police took Paul W. Wirths, a convicted burglar, to the sprawling Woodward home at dusk yesterday. They said he had admitted breaking into the garage and bathroom of the estate on two occasions several days before the shooting.

Mrs. Woodward had told police that evidence of these break-ins caused her and her husband to arm themselves with shotguns before going to bed early last Sunday morning. An hour or so later, the statement to police continued, she fired at what she thought was the prowler on a return visit. Instead she hit and killed her husband.

After questioning Wirths for hours, Inspector Stuyvesant Pinnell, chief of Nassau County detectives, said he was convinced the 22-year-old German refugee was "not on the Woodward property" at the time of the shooting. Pinnell said Wirths at that time was raiding a golf course snack bar at a nearby country club.

While Nassau authorities continued their investigation, Mrs. Woodward remained in Doctors Hospital in New York City. She was taken there in what her doctor called a state of deep shock and under sedatives for hysteria on the day of the shooting.

Although her doctor's reports have indicated steady improvement in her condition, he said yesterday he would forbid the striking blonde widow to leave her bed to attend her husband's funeral in New York City.

The 35-year-old Woodward, owner of this year's outstanding racehorse, Nashua, was a member of one of New York's most socially prominent families. From his banker father he inherited the famous Belair Stud Farm at Bowie, Md. In addition he had a fashionable town house in New York City and his Long Island estate at Cyster Bay.

The Woodwards, parents of two young sons, were spending the weekend at Oyster Bay when the shooting occurred. They moved in top level social circles and that evening had attended a party given on a nearby estate for the Duchess of Windsor.

A former model and radio performer, Mrs. Woodward married her husband 12 years ago. She became recognized as one of society's most attractive young matrons.

The Woodward investigation includes a check on whether the couple's marriage was harmonious. There have been reports from various sources of discord.

but so far police have not reported any such findings. There also were reports the two were quite happy together.

Among persons whom Pinnell said authorities would probably talk to in connection with the case is Woodward's mother, Mrs. William Woodward Sr.

Pinnell said he also intended to continue interviewing the socially prominent group who were with the Woodwards at the party for the Duchess Saturday night.

Even before the Woodward shooting, he was not questioned the Duchess, but added, "if we believe she can help us we will attempt to interview her."

The investigation yesterday was largely confined to Wirths. Police had been seeking him in connection with a number of housebreaking charges even before the Woodward shooting. He was held on a burglary charge not directly related to the Woodward case.

Pinnell said Wirths told police he did not hear any dog bark when he was prowling around the estate on the two occasions prior to the shooting.

Interest in the dog stemmed from Mrs. Woodward's statement to police that the noise that woke her could have been her dog barking. Pinnell said Mrs. Woodward answered "yes" when he specifically asked her: "Does the dog bark usually on the first strange noise it hears?"
