Fort Klamath Nears UF Goal

FORT KLAMATH—This community was within $65 of reaching its $1,000 quota for the current United Fund-Red Cross drive Monday as a result of the contribution received from the Civic Improvement Club. As the woman's organization's 1955 contribution to the campaign, the members sponsored a benefit card party in the G.I. clubhouse Saturday evening, October 29. All prizes, refreshment items, etc., were donated and the entire proceeds of the evening were turned over to the drive. Winning prizes for high score in bridge, pinocle and other games were Mrs. Norman Van Iderstine, William Brewer, Helen Gay Hessecock and Lyle Brewer. The guest prize went to Wilbur B. Hessecock. A beautifully decorated cake, especially baked and donated by Mrs. Lloyd Nicholson for the benefit affair, was auctioned at the close of cards, with Rex Dye, executive secretary of the current UF-RC drive, being the successful bidder for the cake. Accompanying Dye from Klamath Falls to the card party was Paul O'Connor, news editor of radio station KFJI. Refreshments were served at the close of play by Mrs. Wilbur B. Hessecock and Mrs. William C. Mar-

(In charge of cards and tickets were Mrs. Joanna Taylor and Mrs. William A. Page. Mrs. William Brewer supervised games.
