

Federal Agencies To Relate Public Information Policies

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Five big federal agencies whose activities affect almost every American will act a change next week to tell Congress how they deal with the public through information policies.

Their public information specialists will testify starting next Tuesday before a House committee probing reported "censorship" cases and government information practices in general.

Before the agency spokesmen testify, the committee will listen Monday to a roundtable discussion by a panel of 15 leaders in the field of news dissemination.

The committee has set aside the following four days to give the federal agencies a chance to answer any complaints they make and others already received concerning difficulty in getting information.

Tentatively scheduled to be heard next week are the Post Office Department, the Civil Service Commission, the Treasury Department, the Agriculture Department and perhaps the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

They are among 63 agencies and boards which have answered committee questionnaires dealing with public information policies. In answering the questionnaires, the five agencies said:

Agriculture Department: "A major function of the department's public service is the supplying of information to those who want or need it."

Post Office Department: "It is . . . an established and necessary policy to make available to the press, the Congress, other federal agencies, interested groups, and the public generally, the widest possible information on the department."

Treasury Department: "There is no question in our minds that the American people are entitled to complete information about all Treasury activities except in a few completely understandable categories."

Department of Health: "The people who pay for our services have every right to know how we carry out our responsibilities."

Civil Service Commission: "The commission tries to be as helpful as possible in the case of legitimate inquiries."

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK, designated for November 6 through 12, was off to a flying start this week as 24 Klamath County schools laid preliminary plans for the six day affair which will feature an exhibit and a parents' visitation in Klamath Union High's Pelican Court, November 9, for the "Klamath County Open House." Local educators supervising the county's roll in the national event are (pointing to the blackboard) Charles Woodhouse, chairman for the executive committee, and left to right, Howard Hall, Andrew Loney Jr., Mrs. B. B. Blomquist and Marianne Kerr, Mabel Hanson, chairman ex-officio, was not available for the picture. —Photo by Prather

College Women Arrange Meeting

LAKEVIEW—The American Association of University Women are arranging an evening meeting on Dr. Hugh Wood of the University of Oregon department of education, as guest speaker.

Mrs. Rodney Harlan, president of the Lakeview branch, announces the meeting will be open to the public and will be at 8 p.m. at the Presbyterian educational hall.

Dr. Wood, who has just returned from a two year visit in India and Nepal, where he conducted teacher training workshop, will tell of his experiences in India.

LAST OF SLOTS

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—The last of 669 slot machines, valued at $200,000, was reduced to rubble yesterday and sold to a scrap dealer for $832.30. City jail prisoners hammered the machines into junk after a court ordered them destroyed as gambling devices. The prisoners found $85.54 inside the "one-armed bandits."

Quotes From The News

By UNITED PRESS

HOLLYWOOD — Comedian George Burns on writing a book of his memoirs: "The first thing in writing a book is never learn to read or write."

NEW ORLEANS — Dr. Alberto Gainza Paz, former publisher of the Argentine newspaper La Prensa which was confiscated by the Peron government in 1951, on the announcement that the new government of Argentina may take over the paper: "It means we won't see the continuation of the situation where Peron's henchmen were still running the paper. It is a step in the right direction that could not be delayed."

SCARSDALE, N.Y. — Dr. Vincent du Vigneaud, head of the biochemistry department at Cornell University Medical School, on receiving the Nobel Prize for chemistry: "Oh boy, oh boy, oh boy—if it's true."

WASHINGTON — Fashion Editor Robert L. Green on a black raincoat designed for fashionable men of 1956: "The raincoat is for evening wear—and possibly funerals and asking your boss for a raise."

CLEVELAND — Cleveland Indian pitcher Bob Feller on his 37th birthday: "All I'd like to have now is a World Series game before I call it quits. I've gotten just about everything else out of baseball a man could ask."

SEA GIRT, N.J. — Sen. Clifford P. Case (R-N.J.) on the pressure on President Eisenhower to declare if he will seek reelection: "As long as the possibility exists that the President will run again we owe it to the country and to the man to withhold unnecessary pressures."

GENEVA — U. S. Secretary of State John Foster Dulles on the possibility of reaching agreement on German unification: "I am optimistic and I do not think optimism is a crime."

"PRINCESS" DRESS

9319

by Marian Martin

Every fashion-conscious Miss will want to "court" this princess frock! It's so-o-o slenderizing, so flattering to your figure — it's bound to be a beau-catcher! Back closing, spells fit-perfection. If you wish—contrast collar. Sew it now—love it all season!

Pattern 9319: Misses' Sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20. Size 18 takes 4 1/2 yards 36-inch fabric.

This easy-to-use pattern gives perfect fit. Complete, illustrated Sew Chart shows you every step. Send thirty-five cents in coins for this pattern—add 5 cents for each pattern for 1st-class mailing. Send to Marian Martin, care of Herald and News, Pattern Dept., 232 West 18th St., New York 11, N.Y. Print plainly name, address with zone, size and style number.

Cold Weather Hits Pacific

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS There was a touch of wintry weather, snow and cold, over broad areas of the midcontinent and Northwest areas today.

The first snow of the season fell in many parts of the Midwest, with three inches reported in northern Illinois, and from one to two inches in Chicago. The blowing snow and slippery streets were blamed by police for five deaths in traffic accidents in Chicago in seven hours last night.

Temperatures edged to near zero in some northern Midwest areas. Readings in the teens extended southward over the Dakotas into Nebraska. The freezing line covered sections from the eastern part of Lake Superior southward to northwest Indiana and south-west into central Oklahoma, across the Rockies, over most of Nevada and northeastward into central Montana. Brisk northerly winds were reported in many areas.

The wet belt during the night extended from the central Gulf Coast up the Mississippi Valley and over the eastern Great Lakes region. Snow fell southward to Indianapolis and rain mixed with snow fell in Michigan. The snow was reported as far south as Springfield, Ill.

A new storm from the Pacific spread rain and snow over the Northwest States. Two to four inches of snow fell in the mountain regions of Washington.

Wet and cooler weather was in prospect for wide sections in the Northeastern part of the country. Early morning temperatures ranged from 73 degrees at Bronsville, Tex., to 8 above in Dickinson, N. D.

Here tomorrow and ready to roll!

THE '56 CHEVROLET BEL AIR SPORT SEDAN—above is a beautiful example of Chevrolet's bigger, bolder look. Four doors and no sideposts in this one—did you notice?

The hot one's even hotter!

the '56 Chevrolet

New models—all with bold new Motoramic Styling. More models—including two new 4-door hardtops and two new 9-passenger station wagons. New excitement under the hood—up to 205 horsepower and 9.25 to 1 compression ratio. This—remember—is the car that broke the Pikes Peak record in a history-making, pre-production trial. Come on in, look it over and try it out!

They're sitting in our showroom right now championing at the bit. For these '56 Chevrolets were born with an urge to go places! But look 'em over first. Look at that bigger, wider, more massive grille. Follow that lower speedline of chrome back to those sassy, high-set taillights (the one on the left swings down to uncover the gas cap!).

V8 or 6—19 Models in 3 Series

Any kind of model anyone could want! Your choice of the new "Blue-Flame" 6 with 140 h.p. and new higher compression or Chevrolet's record-breaking V8 power ranging up to a new high of 205 h.p. and 9.25 to 1 compression ratio! Automatic, and comfort and safety features? If Chevrolet doesn't offer them, it's only because they haven't been invented yet.

We can hardly wait to have you see and drive this '56 Chevrolet. Come in real soon, won't you?

DUGAN-MEST CHEVROLET CO.

410 So. 6th St.

Phone 4113

● People Read SPOT ADS —you are.