

Grandmother—

MRS. ARABELLE GILLUM BAKER, whose love of children is generally known in this vicinity—poses with her own grandson, Steven Paul Ootegham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Van Ootegham, 604 Mt. Whitney Street. Steven is three—"going on four." And he had a ready smile for the camera when the above picture was taken. His paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Louie Van Ootegham, Seattle. —Photo by Milly Ramsby

Great-Grandmother—

MRS. CAREY M. (Elizabeth) RAMSBY holds her great-granddaughter, Carol Elizabeth, for the first time, in the picture above. Carol and her brother, Michael Alton, arrived in Klamath Falls with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Leroy Chamberlain, from Salem just at the time that their "Nanno" was well on the mend after a summer and part of early fall commuting between home and hospital. The youngsters' mother, the former Ann Gillenwaters, was born in Klamath Falls. Their maternal grandmother also was born here. She was Betty Ramsby before her marriage to Theodore R. (Ted) Gillenwaters, who was Klamath County District Attorney in the early '30s.

Elizabeth Ramsby has lived here for over 70 years. She came here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Martin, who pioneered the flour milling business in the Klamath Basin.

Paternal grandparents of the children, Mr. and Mrs. John P. Chamberlain, live in Salem, where both of the children were born; Michael in September '52; and Carol in late August '55. They have another great-grandmother, Mrs. J. W. (Annie) Gillenwaters, Goldendale, Washington.

Engaged

Society By Milly Ramsby

A CABLE FROM FRANKFORT, GERMANY, from Mrs. Louis (Joy) Mueller told friends of her arrival in Europe to join her husband, a liaison officer for USAREUR. Joy has been in Klamath Falls for the last four months with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Helen Mueller, 1040 Eldorado; and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Simons in Portland. She reported a most pleasant flight from Klamath Falls to New York—and from there to Europe. —Photo by Otto Ellis

MR. AND MRS. WARREN BENNET, 1142 Crescent Avenue, announce the engagement of their youngest daughter, Betty, to William L. Gordon, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Max Gordon, Salinas, California.

Betty, a graduate of Stanford University, did graduate work at the University of California—where she received her California state teaching certificate. She is now teaching in the high school at Pacific Grove, California.

Bill was graduated from the University of California, where he was affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega social fraternity and Pi Sigma Alpha, political science honorary. He is presently a second year student at the U of C law school. He is also a member of Phi Delta Phi legal fraternity. Their wedding will be an event of next summer. —Photo by Monterey Studio

In Europe

83rd Birthday Anniversary—

MRS. CLARA SHAW, who is locally noted as a party-giver, was on the receiving end, October 30, when she was feted on her 83rd birthday anniversary, at a party given by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. J. Frank Adams, 2015 Huron.

Guest list included members of the TNT Club and their husbands; and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Stoner assisted the hosts during the evening.

In the picture, Mrs. Shaw is at the right; Mrs. Adams, far left; and Mrs. Adams' daughter, Mrs. Allen Priest, center, was here from Susanville, to help celebrate her grandmother's birthday. (Story on inside page.)

—Photo by Otto Ellis