Anniversary Couple Tours Eastern States

The 45th wedding anniversary year of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Switzler, 3023 Bartlett Avenue, was marked with a month's travel trip — leisurely touring the eastern states.

On their way east, they stopped for visits with their son, Jerry, stationed at Scott Air Force Base, Illinois; and daughter, Mrs. Earl Welsh Jr., and family, New Waterford, Ohio.

Later they were met by their son and daughter in St. Louis, Missouri — and after a short sightseeing tour, left by auto with the Welsh's for the east — where the itinerary covered historical or tourist spots in Washington, D.C., Pennsylvania, Virginia, etc.

They traveled 10,000 miles in all; and toured 20 states and parts of Canada. The couple went to and from St. Louis by train — the central route from the west; and the northern route on the return trip.

Pocahontas Wabeno Council

WEED—The election of a new member, Mrs. Esther Aquila, and the acceptance of an affiliate, Mrs. Russell Thorpe, into the degree of Pocahontas, was conducted at the regular meeting of Wabeno Council 231, held Friday night October 21. Plans for their initiation November 4 were arranged by the council with Mrs. Al Cook presiding.

A correction announcement was made to include the name of Mrs. Urala Dooley, Yreka, who assisted with the local drill team performance at the official visit of the great Pocahontas to the Wabeno Council, October 7.

Ray Holder was awarded the delegate prize for the evening meeting.

Halloween was the theme of the evening social after the adjournment and secret pal gifts were exchanged by the members. Games of cards provided the entertainment.

Halloween decor was used on the refreshment tables; and the hostesses, Mrs. Orville Renning, Mrs. Ace Hildreth and Mrs. Holder served refreshments.

MRS. ANGELINA PASTEGA finds it easy to smile at the recent shower given in her honor by hostesses Mrs. Otto Sari, Mrs. Pat Ryan (Mrs. Sari's daughter); Eva Green and Carmella Ongaro.

Mrs. Pastega, who is known for her ready smile, is holding one of the many shower gifts brought by the 60 guests who came to fete their friend, whose marriage to John Vogel is planned for the near future in Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Vogel has been with the Klamath Forest Protective Association for about 20 years; wintering in Klamath Falls as fire warden out of the KFFA office; and during the summers he's head man for KFFA at King's Cabin, approximately 30 miles northeast of Chiloquin.

The gifts, food and decor were lavish at the shower for Mrs. Pastega, who has lived in Klamath Falls for some 30 years where she and her family have been identified in the grocery business.

Mrs. Johnnie Pastega, her daughter-in-law, registered the gift cards; and the buffet table was as varied in color as it was in choice range of unusual exotic dishes and dressed-up domestic baked ham, etc.

The symbolic cake, frosted in white, and topped with gold inter-locked wedding rings of frosting set with candy jewels, was made by Eva Green—who also included on the cake, at opposite sides, the names—"Johnny" and "Angelina."

The outstanding centerpiece on the buffet table was a low arrangement of fall flowers, illuminated with candlelight.

SOJOURNERS

Over 60 Sojourners and guests met last Wednesday in the Willard Hotel for the regular no-host luncheon meeting and card session.

The meeting was conducted by president Mrs. Don Groves; and reports on the dinner-dance were given; the fall tea was discussed, and Mrs. A. J. Dorlaque, chairman called for a meeting of the committee.

The annual event is scheduled for Saturday afternoon, November 12, in the Willard Hotel — and anyone interested is invited to reserve a table for the afternoon.

Mrs. Claude Chase and Mrs. Jack Rhodes were hostesses during the card playing — and prizes were won by Mrs. A. E. Smith, bridge; Mrs. A. Cook, canasta; and Mrs. E. G. Cleary, pinochle.

New members welcomed into the club were Mrs. A. Cyr, Mrs. C. W. Minner and Mrs. A. Ivan Thompson. Guests for the day included Mrs. L. Palmer; Mrs. R. Clark; Mrs. D. Ziegler; Mrs. L. G. Pratt and Mrs. M. Sidel.

The Saturday prior to the Wednesday meeting was the night by chairman, Mrs. Berger Alm, of the semi-annual dinner dance and her committee members, Mrs. Grant Bailey, Mrs. Ron Fisher, Mrs. Walter Hong, Mrs. S. a m arranged for 82 members and guests; Jones and Sadie Libby.

Take it from me girls... stay Smart and Healthy

By Bessy, the Bessy Bossy

In the fashion world, the experts take note of what is worn by the better "wearers" at special events. And a special event which caught the eye recently—flooded with better finery—was a big race day at Belmont.

The "winnah"—going away—was the casual coat.

Here are a few samples of what the experts in one of the nation's top retail papers reported:

A smart casual coat with a cape collar, triple marring a les down the back in brown and blue checks on white background.

A huge gold key hanging from a belt (leather) on a beige herringbone wool dress.

A notched fitted jacket topping a full skirt, in gray wool. Worn with pale blue hat made of felt disks that are shaped to a point.

A violet tweed box jacket suit—worn by a younger.

Try doing this same thing right on the streets of Klamath Falls some time. You can almost make a game out of it.

Just notice the better dressers and what they're wearing. Note the general trends in what you can see — casual coats, smaller hats, etc. And window shopping in our nice Klamath stores will give you an idea too, of just where this season's ideas are heading.

And do Bessy, your old bovine buddy, a real big favor. Take care of yourself this season. One of the best ways is to be re-prepared. Drink plenty of milk. At least three glasses every day.
