

THIS IS A PRETTY WRATHY LOOKING CREW—no matter what the vintage—or what vine they stem from. From their general appearance, it is certainly doubtful that there is anything that approximates a family tree in the background of the lot of 'em.

The characters drove the ancient vehicle from Malin to Klamath Falls and through town on their way to the Womens Auxiliary Halloween costume party at Reames Golf and Country Club, October 28.

Props included all sorts of miscellaneous and delapidated household equipment—and even some live chickens (also delapidated we assume)—and they were a maniacal riot when they chugged up to the clubhouse that afternoon.

To carry on with the spirit of Halloween—the identities of the "out-of-this-world" group will remain temporarily a secret.

"SOLD OUT" has no snide meaning in reference to the above picture. The subjects were actually sold out of merchandise when the photographer came by.

It seems that they really had some sort of wares to sell at the beginning of the Halloween costume party at Reames October 28—when the Womens Auxiliary staged their annual dress up event.

Purloined or purchased—the stock is gone—no customers—they are alone—and there they sit. Ugh! Pretty sad isn't it?—aren't THEY?

WEED—Halloween costumes were in order for all members who attended the social meeting of the Shasta Lily Circle, Companions of the Foresters of America, Thursday night, October 20, in the Foresters Hall.

Mrs. Mario Marchi was given the special award of the evening and Halloween games provided the entertainment.

Refreshments were served by the party hostesses, Mrs. Frank Paletta, Mrs. Gino Michelson, Mrs. Mario Marchi and Mrs. N. Sotana. Mrs. Paletta, chief companion, presided at the short business session held following the party.

NEW CHAPTER OF BETA SIGMA PHI MARKS BSP 25TH ANNIVERSARY

At the Beta Sigma Phi formal preferential tea in the Pelican Party Room October 23, members from Kappa, Xi Delta and Tau Chapters greeted new BSP members who will form the fourth chapter in Klamath Falls. As each was greeted she was presented with a yellow daisy corsage. The new chapter will be named Beta Phi in honor of national Beta Sigma Phi's silver anniversary.

Autumnal decor prevailed throughout the room—An arrangement of colorful fruit centered the table; and yellow mums and colorful fall leaves were predominant in the background. In the receiving line, and pouring, were Juanita Goode, Kappa Chapter, general chairman of the tea; Paula Fletcher, president of Tau Chapter; Mae Phillips, vice president; Luella Murphy, president of Kappa Chapter; Dorothy Skeel, president city council; Evilo Saunders, president of Xi Delta Chapter; Phyllis McCnee, vice president; Ethel Nichols, adviser, Tau Chapter; and Isabelle Braxner, adviser, Kappa Chapter.

ZULEIMA NILE CLUB

Striking autumn arrangements decorated the tables for the 1 p.m. luncheon meeting of Zuleima Nile Club of Klamath Falls, November 2, in the Willard Hotel. Responsible for the outstanding and colorful fall setting were committee members, Pearl Gisvold, Edith Palmerton, Phyllis Poole and Rhoda Harnden, who were introduced by Dorothy Ellis, chairman of the day.

She also introduced other committee members, Viola Gouldin, Effie Frain, Hazel Hagelstein, Lillian Hillis, Cora McDonald, Eleanor Hogland, Ruth Marks, Arthur Stone, Omega Peak, Ora Reading, Florence Steinseifer and Marie Pike. Gladys Halousek, entertainment chairman, was assisted by Katherine Stonycypher.

Ruby Kujac, dancing teacher, introduced by Chairman Halousek, presented several of her young girl students in a group of clever dance routines.

Door prizes were won by Thelma Leonard, Ruth Marks and Blanche Schulze; and birthday prizes were awarded to Kathleen Ward and Lynne Martin.

President Florence West thanked members for their donations for the Thanksgiving box to be sent to the Portland Shrine Hospital. Members who were unable to attend the luncheon may leave their packages at the Unique Market, 129 South Ninth Street, before November 10.

GRAND GUARDIAN OFFICIAL GUEST

Neighbors of Woodcraft, Ewauna Circle No. 647, were honored at the regular meeting October 17, an official visit of grand guardian neighbor, Minerva Coddington, from Portland. Mrs. Coddington is head of nine western states and her appearance at the recent meeting in the KC Hall was her first visit in five years.

The guard executed a short drill, during which, the grand guardian was presented with a token gift and corsage by Guardian Neighbor Rainona Marks; and other entertainment for the official guest included a piano solo by Shirley Burkhardt; and two vocal solos by Mary McDermott.

Mrs. Coddington, in her short talk, thanked the local circle—and said that she was planning to be here in 1957—when Klamath Falls will host the Neighbors of Woodcraft Convention.

After the meeting, refreshments were served in the dining room.

HAZBINS

The Hazbins met Monday evening, October 24, at the home of Peggy Long, 2468 Oregon Avenue.

Refreshments were served before the card session, after which, high score was awarded to Fannie May Thompson; second to Stella Pennell; low to Sara Kirby; and guest prize to May Eck. The place and date for the November meeting will be announced later.

Martha Shops and Shops ... LOOKING TOWARD THANKSGIVING ...

When you are invited to a party don't ask your hostess who else has been invited. If she wants to mention some or all of the other guests, she will. But some hostesses like an element of surprise in their parties. They like to keep all their plans to themselves until the evening of the party rolls around. So why try to pin them down with questions?

For a cheery kitchen would be the canister sets at Roberts Hardware in a new color combination of turquoise, white and copper. The four containers included in each set are coordinated with bread boxes and step-on cans—these last much too attractive to be called garbage or trash cans! Pink, white and copper, black and copper, or chrome are among other eye-catching color schemes available. These containers combine practicality and beauty, for gifts that are different. They'll blend with new kitchen color schemes, too. Brand new coffee warmers and lots of other gift merchandise is coming in daily at 3890 South Sixth. can be vanquished with the aid of Tussy Wind and Weather lotion. Currin's for Drugs is featuring the annual special on this re-designed product. Both hand cream and lotion are half price. This skillfully blended preparation takes advantage of new healing and protective agents. The allantoin which it contains helps heal cracked and chapped hands. The addition of silicone protects against detergent damage. Use of the lotion fights infection with hexachlorophene which inhibits harmful skin bacteria. The folks at Ninth and Main advise its use regularly before exposing hands to housekeeping tasks, or to cold, heat and wind. The two-dollar size is now a dollar, and the dollar size, 50 cents, plus tax, of course, at with all the goodies you'll serve Thanksgiving day, but you'll want the best china and crystal to do justice to it all. Your Store can supply you, be it big family reunion or honeymoon tete-a-tete. Smart Syracuse china, which has a glaze harder than steel, is here in a variety of patterns. "Evening Star," in modern, "California" shape, and "Baroque," more traditional in style, are equally beautiful. All Vernon dinnerware from Your Store can be put in the oven. This semi-porcelain carries a 25-year guarantee against crazing. "Imperial" is one of Vernon's latest patterns, a decidedly different design in black and off-white. Eva Zeisel designed the three patterns of china by Hallerati to be seen in the balcony at 721 Main. Famous English Woods Burslem platters, and service plates for the succulent turkey come in the well-known blue, rose and brown scenes patterns. A big turkey gobbler is painted in the center of each. Cambridge and Imperial glassware in goblets, sherberts and wines are available for those whose crystal need replenishing, and water and milk tumblers are in ample stock. if Payless doesn't have the cutest gadget Martha's seen in many a day. It's a charm bracelet that's both fashionable and functional—the charms are five miniature Cutex lipsticks. The colors range from "Slightly Scarlet" through Cutex's famous "Strike Me Pink" to a pale pink. So you no longer need be caught short with the wrong shade of lipstick, or none at all. The bracelet itself is of gold-finished curb-links with a firm, fold-over clasp that really holds. The dangling lipstick-charms are spaced to leave room for any of your own special charms. It's pretty, and practical if you use lipstick, and what gal doesn't? The price is right at 808 Main, of course, 1.50 plus tax.
