Midwife Sherlock Does It Again

CHICAGO (AP)—For a policeman, officer Leo Sherlock does all right as a midwife.

Nicknamed "Midwife Sherlock" by his station house companions, Sherlock helped deliver his 103rd baby over the weekend.

He had only to step across the street from the station house to help deliver a seven-pound girl to Mrs. Helen Farmer, 28. Mother and daughter are reported doing fine.

Sherlock has compiled his record over a 20-year span.

"DENNIS THE MENACE"

Klamath Junior High News

By KENNETH HENRY

The magazine drive is now going strong. The students were taught the way to sell the many various magazine subscriptions and how to fill out the order blanks. Prizes will be awarded to the students who sell the most subscriptions. A certain percentage of the money taken in will go to various student activities.

Monday, October 31 was Hick Day, the day the students were supposed to dress like anything except themselves. Prizes were awarded to Joe Pynes, Judy Gregory, Stuart Maxwell, Jimmy Boyd, Gary Zumwalt, and Jerry Waddell for their humorous costumes. Refreshments were served and the students were then dismissed. Hick Day was planned by the Social Committee.

An assembly concerning conservation was presented by Mr. Hamer of the Oregon State Game Commission on November 2. He showed illustrations about conservation, and he showed a film called "Yours Is The Land."

The Fisher Body Craftsman Guild was the topic of an assembly presented to the boys of KFJH by Mr. Beebe on November 3. Mr. Beebe was from Detroit. He told about experimental cars and how to design them. He then showed a movie titled "Model Builders." When leaving the auditorium the boys received pamphlits explaining the guild. There is to be a contest for all boys in the United States who have built model cars.

The school year is divided into four terms. The term first ended Friday, November 4. From November 2 to November 4 the students were given tests to help determine grades for report cards. Report grades will be put on the cards Tuesday, November 8, and report cards will go home on Wednesday.

Open House Night at KFJH will be on Thursday, November 10. The Boys' Glee Club will provide part of the entertainment. Rooms will be open for visitation. Refreshments will be served by the PTA. All parents are requested to come and meet their children's teachers.

Civil Service Lists Jobs

The United States Civil Service Commission has announced examinations for the following positions: engineering draftsman, $2,960 to $6,390, and statistical draftsman, $2,960 to $4,525, for duty in various federal agencies in Washington, D.C., and vicinity; and nursing consultant in maternal and child health, $7,570 a year, for duty in the Children's Bureau, in Washington, D.C., and throughout the United States.

To qualify for draftsman positions, applicants must have had appropriate experience and-or education. A sample of their work must be furnished. Persons applying for nursing consultant in maternal and child health must have had appropriate nursing training and experience and must be registered as graduate professional nurses in a state, territory, or the District of Columbia. No written tests will be given.

Further information and application forms may be obtained from Civil Service Clerk located at Post Office or from the U.S. Civil Service Commission, Washington 25, D.C. Persons interested in draftsman positions should file their applications with the commission's office in Washington. For nursing consultant positions, applications must be filed with the Board of U.S. Civil Service Examiners, Children's Bureau, Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Washington 25, D.C. Applications will be accepted until further notice.

Bioff Slaying Probe Slated

PHOENIX, Ariz. (AP)—An inquest into the mystery bomb-slaying of retired racketeer Willie Bioff was scheduled for today with his widow as a witness.

Officers said a weekend of intensive detective work has failed to turn up any new clues, and the few they have to go on are meager.

Mrs. Bioff, who has refused to give anything but the most brief statements to newsmen since her husband died in a tremendous explosion as he stepped on the starter of his truck Friday, will be called to confirm his identification.

Most of Bioff's fingers were blown off or mutilated in the blast. Finger-print charts were scheduled to arrive today.

Officers eliminated one angle in the gangster-style killing when they found Bioff's seven-carat diamond ring on his lawn. He wore it on his right hand, which was blown off in the explosion.

Jury To Be Chosen For Southern Kidnap Trial

GREENWOD, Miss. (AP)— Dist. Atty. Stanny Sanders said Negroes may be on the panel from which a grand jury was to be drawn today in the Emmett Till kidnap case.

"We've had them before . . . There may be some on there this time," Sanders told reporters last night.

A 20-member grand jury chosen from the panel will decide whether white half-brothers Roy Bryant and J. W. Milam will stand trial for kidnaping Till, a 14-year-old Chicago boy who disappeared while vacationing in Mississippi.

An all-white criminal court jury in neighboring Tallahatchie County found Bryant and Milam innocent of murdering Till. Both are free on $10,000 bail in the kidnap charge.

The jury decided there was "reasonable doubt" about identification of the battered, bullet-pierced body pulled from the Tallahatchie River Aug. 31. Mrs. Mamie Bradley, Till's mother, said the body was her son. Several defense witnesses however, including an undertaker and a sheriff, testified the body had been in the water too long to be Till's.

Sanders said most of the local witnesses who testified for the state in the murder trial will be summoned before the grand jury, including Mose Wright, the boy's uncle, and Willie Reed, an 18-year-old Negro farm hand who worked for Milam's brother. Both have since left the state to live in Chicago.

At the murder trial, Wright testified that two white men who closely resembled Bryant and Milam came to his sharecropper cabin for the "Chicago boy who did the smart talk at Money."

Bryant operates a general store at Money, Miss. In testimony that was withheld from the jury, his pretty brunette wife told how a Negro put his arms around her and boasted of being "with white women before." She did not identify the Negro.

The sheriff of Leflore County and a deputy testified Bryant and Milam admitted taking the boy from Mose Wright's cabin but claimed they released him when he turned out to be the wrong one.

Reed's testimony, which Jury Foreman J. A. Shaw Jr. said was disregarded, attempted to cast doubt on the claim by placing "a bald headed man who looked like Milam" with Till several hours after the men said they released him.

Mississippi has two kidnaping statutes; one provides a death penalty, the other a maximum penitentiary term of 10 years.

FIRE

CHESTER, Vt. (AP) — The main mill of the Vermont Mineral Products, Inc., was destroyed by fire last night while the town's brand new fire engine sat on a railroad flat-car in nearby Gassetts.

Fire chief Albert Damore said the new engine was not ready for delivery while fire swept the mill with a loss estimated unofficially at $50,000.
