Church Units Sponsor Meet

TULELAKE—"Parcels for Peace in Building Lasting Peace" was the theme of the meeting of the Lower Klamath Basin Council of Church Women in the Merrill Presbyterian Church, November 4. The meeting was in observance of World Community Day.

Speakers were Mrs. George Milne, Merrill, whose topic was "Let Us Forget," and Mrs. Frank Howard, Merrill, who spoke on the purpose, needs and use of money collected during World Community Day meetings.

The group donated approximately $40 and 200 pounds of warm clothing for children and men which will be distributed to the overseas needy. Last year clothing was collected for infants.

Money collected is used to pay the postage for sending the clothing to its destination. Any part of the fund left over is sent to the United Nations fund to help the needy anywhere in the world.

Mrs. George Rankin, Merrill, sang "An Evening Prayer," during the meeting. Mrs. Marvis Kyringer, Tulelake, general chairman, read the invocation and led the responsive readings and prayers. Mrs. George Milne arranged the program.

The next important Church Women's Council Day to be observed will be the World Day of Prayer, February 17, 1956. The Tulelake Community Presbyterian Church will be host for that meeting.

Refreshments were served by the Merrill Church women.
