

LAYERED Mince-meat-Pumpkin Pie is the answer to the query: Pumpkin or mince pie? Here's a convenient compromise on that familiar dessert option for pie-lovers to top off the holiday dinner. Photograph and recipe are courtesy S&W Fine Foods, Inc.

NEW MATERIALS add low cost elegance to the home. Dining areas, for example, get the luxury look with curtains of new rayon shantung. Make a small area larger and give it high elegance by ceiling to floor sheers made of Avisco-rayon. Fabric like Waverly's Golden Glow Shantung is easy on the pocket book and easy to sew and harmonize equally well with both traditional and contemporary furniture.

Curtain Elegance
The luxury look for today's small dining areas is now well within any budget. Airy sheers, such as the new Avisco rayon shantung, can convert that corner with the small window into an elegant dining space. Hang the curtains from floor to ceiling, or even from wall to wall, and you have an exciting setting either for dinner parties or family meals. Designs in a delicately etched pattern of gold and white, made by Waverly from Avisco rayon, are ideal for this purpose and all of them will harmonize equally well with both traditional and contemporary furniture.

Draw-type curtains admit more light and sunshine during the day. When they are completely closed, they make a formal setting for dinner parties. Although the curtains look expensive, you can make them yourself and add yet another feather to your budgeting cap, because these Avisco rayon fabrics are simple to sew. Local sewing center experts will offer you helpful advice but here are some general rules to follow:
For length, measure from ceiling to floor and add 1/2" seam-allowance for top, and 6" for bottom hems. (Sheer fabrics should have double hems at the bottom so this gives you a hem 3" deep.) For width, allow double the width of the window. If you skimp on this, you will spoil the elegant look. Again, for sheer fabric, place double hems in side seams.
Draw curtains should hang straight with the grain of the fabric, so pull a crosswise thread and cut on this line.

BAKING MUFFINS
You can bake a small batch of muffins without burning or warping the unused cups in the muffin tin by partially filling the empty cups with water before placing in the oven.

This extensive eight-week promotion will feature holiday specialty items such as Grace Cake Mix, Maraschino Cherries, Branded Mince-meat, Pumpkin, Yams and Mixed Nuts.
Every homemaker knows that the best buys are found during the periods of promotion by the manufacturer. New merchandise from the S&W Fine Foods holiday line has been received by local stores in anticipation of festive eating in Klamath Falls homes for the next week.
The test kitchen of S&W Fine Foods has developed this recipe for layered mince-meat - pumpkin pie as a compromise on that familiar dessert option for lovers of holiday dinner pie. The rich, dark base of S&W Branded Mince-meat is topped with a smooth, golden layer of S&W Pumpkin, making it a particularly appealing dessert to follow a heavy meal.

Beat egg yolks slightly; add spices, pumpkin and cream. Stir until well mixed. Beat egg whites until frothy, then add sugar gradually, beating until stiff. Stir in pumpkin mixture, blending thoroughly. Spread mince-meat evenly over bottom of pastry-lined pan. Then pour pumpkin mixture over mince-meat. Bake in a moderately hot oven (400 degrees) for 35 to 45 minutes, until crust is nicely brown and a silver knife inserted into side of pumpkin layer comes out clean. Serve warm to eight.
