

BASIN BRIEFS

Women of Moose-Academy of Friendship... Merril will meet at the home of Blanche Pies in Tulake on Friday, November 11, at 8 p.m. All members are asked to attend.

Merril-The Merril Home Extension unit will hold a joint meeting with the Henley unit on Friday, November 11, at 10:30 a.m. in the Merril recreation hall. Subject will be picture framing and selection, led by Hope Holbrook. Potluck at noon. All interested are welcome.

Meeting-The Tulake Garden Club will hold a workshop on Tuesday, November 15, at the Ted Fish home. Bring sack lunch and dry materials (cones, seedpods, etc.) to make corsages and arrangements for the Christmas sale to be held December 9 in Tulake.

Lakeview-All Lake County veterans are invited to a Veterans Day dinner at the Legion Hall, Friday, November 11 at 7 p.m. The dinner replaces the usual Veterans Day breakfast.

Dunsuir-City policemen are selling tickets for their annual Policemen's Ball to be held at the Civic Auditorium on November 26. Proceeds go into the policemen's emergency fund.

Women Only-An American Cancer Society film will be shown to women at the Dunsuir Elementary School auditorium at 7:30 p.m., Tuesday, November 16. A doctor will be present to discuss the film.

Houseguests-at the Errol Beughan home at Dunsuir over the weekend were Mrs. Lucille P. Evans, Beughan's sister, and Mr. and Mrs. James G. Standley, all of Sacramento. The Standleys lived in Dunsuir 31 years ago when he worked for the State Highway Department. Joining them Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Given of Redding.

Eastside-Mr. and Mrs. Alfred McGuffin entertained relatives recently including her parents and brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Neubel of Yuba City and Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Stohln of Sutter, California.

Overnight-guests at the Merle O'Neil home at Eastside Thursday were her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Maharry of Tulake on their way home from Sale Lake City.

Clayton Bradley - of Eastside brought home a Land Plane last week which he purchased at Gilroy.

Freddie Baldwin-son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Baldwin of the Idaho district west of Lakeview, has been visiting at the Bill Kelson home at Eastside while his parents were away on a trip.

Neil Friday - and family have moved to Lakeview where he is night policeman. Mrs. Friday is the niece of Mr. and Mrs. Roche Allard of Eastside.

Eik Hunters-Norman Wells and son James of Eastside and Wade

MOSCOW VISIT

MOSCOW, U.S.S.R. - Prime Minister Einar Gerhardsen of Norway arrived in Moscow Thursday for a 12-day state visit at the invitation of the Kremlin.

lock and Merle O'Neil were using ditching powder this week to blow out willow stumps and making ditches to drain the swamp to increase next year's hay crops.

Alturas-A baby girl was born Monday at the Modoc Medical Center at 1:05 p.m., weighing 8 lbs. 3 oz., to Mr. and Mrs. Bill Cockerel of Eagleville.

Married - Pearl Courtney and Don Guhranson of Alturas were married Saturday at Reno. They will make their home in Alturas where he is employed with the Southern Pacific and the bride with Farmer's Exchange.

Football-The Modoc Union High School Braves will wind up the 1955 football season Friday afternoon at Lakeview in the traditional big game against the Honkers. Game time is 2 p.m. The Braves are seeking a revenge from last year and will also try to chalk up their second win of the season. Station KONO, Alturas, will carry game highlights.

Sad News-Mrs. Arthur Monroe of Langeil Valley, in Klamath Valley Hospital recovering from major surgery, received word of the death of her stepmother, Mrs. Walter (Evadne) Null at Boise, Idaho November 7.

SOME PERSONS in Girl Scout activities in Klamath Falls were caught by the cameraman in the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco while attending the 33rd annual national Girl Scout convention, November 1-4. Left to right are Mrs. Fred Goeller, leader training chairman; Mrs. Art Moore, first vice president of the board and organizer of the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council; Mrs. Elmer Harnden, president of the council; Mrs. W. W. Dewing, board member and Mrs. R. P. Ellingson, second vice chairman of the Northwest Regional Committee. Also at the convention were Mrs. Quincy Moore, Mrs. Glen Johnck, Sharon Jeschke, senior Girl Scout and Mrs. Keith Cobo, local executive director.

CITY BRIEFS

First Aid Classes-A Red Cross standard first aid class will begin at Roosevelt School November 15 at 7 p.m. Any interested persons are invited to attend. For further information call 5977 afternoons or evenings or call the Red Cross office, 4125.

Veterans Day-Voiture 222 of 40 et 8 will hold their annual Veterans Day breakfast in the American Legion Club rooms 7 a.m. Friday, November 11.

Royal Neighbors - The Royal Neighbors of America will meet Friday at 8 p.m. in the KC Hall. Initiation and a business meeting will be held. All officers are asked to wear formals.

Harvest Dinner-The women of the Congregational Church will serve the annual harvest dinner at 1 p.m. Sunday at the church, 2154 Garden Avenue. The dinner will be open to the public.

Meeting - Navy Mother's Club No. 104 will have their regular business meeting tonight in the Veterans Memorial building at 7:30.

Basketball League-The YMCA church basketball league will meet at the Y, 722 Pine Street, tonight at 7:30. All interested churches are invited. Junior high school through men's division are to be organized.

Klamath Pomona - Grange is sponsoring a radio program over KPLW, Thursday, November 10 at 8:30 p.m. A. R. "Major" Dickson, Klamath County Assessor will answer pertinent questions on personal property taxes. Also on the program will be Floyd Meeker, William Novotny, Roy Anderson, Fred Lewis and Francis Flowers.

Meeting - of the Great Books group, tonight, 8 o'clock in the city library. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jensen will discuss two plays of Sophocles.

Annual Dinner - Turkey dinner and bazaar of the Klamath Lutheran Ladies Aid will be held Thursday, November 17 at the church, 1175 Crescent Street. Dinner will be served at 5:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Remember-the rummage sale being sponsored by Chapter AU of the PEO Sisterhood, Friday, November 11 from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. and all day, Saturday, November 12.

Bonanza Elects City Officers

Bonanza citizens reelected their mayor, recorder, and treasurer and elected one new councilman November 8. Louise Van Sibe was renamed mayor, Virginia Hartley, recorder and Lowell Horn, treasurer. Walter Casebeer was elected to the council.

Other members of the city council are Roy Ferrelund, Jim Hagelstein, Jesse McPail and Jim Dyc. The voting was done in the city library.

Horsefly Irrigation District Elects

Two new directors were elected to the board of the Horsefly Irrigation District November 8. Frank H. Brown was elected for a three year term and Joan Crabb for two years. Cecil Fahney is the other member of the board. Voting was held at the irrigation district's office in Bonanza. Fred Rueck and Virgil Schmoer are the retiring directors.

Now She Shops "Cash and Carry"

Without Painful Backache - Nuzzing backache, headache, or muscular aches and pains may come on with over-exertion, confined spaces or day-to-day stress and strain. And folks who can't stand to sit on a hard seat for long periods of time... with that restless, uncomfortable feeling. If you are miserable and want out because of these discomforts, Don's Pills often help by their pain-relieving action, by their soothing effect to ease bladder irritation, and by their mild diuretic action through the kidneys - sending to increase the output of the 15 million of kidney tubes. So if nuzzing backache makes you feel drugged-out, miserable, with restless, sleepless nights, don't wait, try Don's Pills, get the same happy relief millions have enjoyed for over 50 years. Ask for new, large, economy size and save money. Get Don's Pills today!

Seven Klamath Falls Women Attend Girl Scout Confab

Seven Klamath Falls women and one high school senior represented the Klamath Area Girl Scout Council at the 33rd national Girl Scout convention held in San Francisco November 1 to 4.

Official delegates for the local council were Mrs. Elmer Harnden, president, and Mrs. Art Moore, first vice president. Mrs. R. P. Ellingson participated as second vice chairman of the Northwest regional committee, and Sharon Jeschke represented Klamath Area senior scouts. Others who attended from Klamath Falls were Mrs. W. W. Dewing, Mrs. Fred Goeller, Mrs. Quincy Moore, Mrs. Glen Johnck, and Mrs. Keith Cobo, local executive director.

More than 6,000 people were registered for the convention including delegates from all 48 states and all territories of the United States and 10 countries which are members of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts.

Gralapp Attends SOC Conference

Arnold Gralapp, city superintendent of schools, attended a conference on the curricular and physical plant features of Southern Oregon College, Ashland, Wednesday evening.

The meeting of 10 laymen and educators is called by Dr. Elmo Stevenson, president of the college, twice a year to study the growth of the school. The group was to study the plans for the new athletic unit the school is to build next year.

Gralapp is the only school superintendent member of the group which is made up of laymen and educators from Southern Oregon.

Advertisement for 1847 Rogers Bros. Fall Silver Sale. Features 'SAVE $21.00' and '57-Piece Service For 8' for $79.75. Includes an order form for mail orders.

Thompson and Jesse Lightle of New Pine Creek brought home a 200-pound elk from their 10-day trip.

Ralph Poole Jr.-was home to Lakeview on leave from duty with the Air Force at Marysville. Prior to entering the service for a four-year hitch he was employed on the J. C. Clark ranches in Lake County.

Bob Fitzgerald-has been pasturing sheep on the Neel, Elliott, Clayton Bradley and Fred Longfellow ranches in Lake County.

Ned Sherlock-of Eastside purchased some weaner calves at the Klamath Auction Yards and has trucked them to his ranch.

Eastside - Word has been received from Mrs. Clara Combs, wife of the late Judge Combs, that she is vacationing in Hawaii.

Winter Coming - Improvements in the Eastside District in preparation for winter include the grading of the Trow Long driveway and spreading of gravel. Ned Sher-

Advertisement for Weisfield's 24 Pc. Service for 6 Stainless Steel Flatware. Price $4.88. Includes a list of items and contact information for Weisfield's Jewellers.

Advertisement for Weisfield's Famous Name Costume Jewelry. Features 'YOUR CHOICE 2.00 EACH' and lists items like necklaces, bracelets, and earrings.

Advertisement for Weisfield's Remington Travel-Riter Portable Typewriter. Price $69.50. Features a list of specifications and contact information.

Large advertisement for Weisfield's Philco Table Model Radio. Features 'INTRODUCING the New 1956 PHILCO TABLE MODEL RADIO' and 'SPECIAL! $10.00 TRADE-IN OFFER'. Price $24.95. Includes an order form.